Washington, D.C.

Christians, Sikhs, and Muslims gathered for a Peace Starts with Me Alliance program in Washington, D.C., on Oct 16 to stand for Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, the Mother of Peace, and the right of all people to live their faith freely.

A powerful invocation by Bishop Keith G. Allen opened the event, followed by remarks from Dr. Achille Acolatse:

"When faith communities come together in prayer and action, Heaven moves."

Dr. Michael Jenkins shared an overview of religious-freedom concerns in South Korea and beyond. Round-table discussions explored how to raise awareness and advocate for Mother Han's release.

Imam Qadir Abdus-Salaam, Anila Ali, Dr. Surinder Singh Gill, and

Bishop Richard Moseley led interfaith prayers. Attendees signed a card for the Mother of Peace and received Bitter Winter reports and resources from MotherofPeace.com.

The event's message reached even further when a Sikh newspaper featured it on its front page.

Release the Mother of Peace

The Mother of Peace Needs Your Help

On September 22, 2025, Dr. Hak Ja Han was unjustly arrested in South Korea. This is a blatant attack on religious freedom. Dr. Han is one of several prominent religious leaders who have been targeted by the new South Korean government. This is not just about one person. It is about protecting freedom itself.

If you care about freedom, stand up for the Mother of Peace and help us spread the word about this injustice. She has dedicated her life to the pursuit of peace in the world and reconciliation between nations, religions, and peoples accross divides. Let's free the Mother of Peace together.

“Freedom of religion is not for the sake of one religion alone. It is to allow all people to find the path to God and live together in peace. When one faith is suppressed, the whole of humanity suffers.”

@DemianDunkley I am certain that God is with Mrs Hak Ja Han Moon because asking members to follow these 3 rules Forgive-Love-Unite with each another and evec with those who are persecuting her and us, avoid a lot of trouble. God knew it and said it to True Mother, I am sure.

I long to live in a world where we can see one another as
