SUNDAY SERVICES AROUND THE CAPITAL AREA

Message from Rev. Kenji Miyako regarding the Capital Family Church Services.

This Sunday, we had planned for everyone to carry out Community Service in their respective communities regions in DC and Maryland, but due to the heavy snowfall, in-person gatherings are no longer possible. Moving forward, some communities may continue to meet via Zoom centered around their leaders, while others might have leaders making phone calls to greet and check in with each household. There are also likely communities that received instructions to watch Rev. Dunkley's worship services in Florida.

Everyone, please stay connected through your community leaders, enjoy the snow, and have a wonderful weekend! Just to be sure, We provided the link below for anyone who would like to participate in the Florida worship service.

We will do our best to make it interactive and engaging, and I hope you can join us from the warmth and comfort of your home. I will give an overview of the past year of our NOVA community and look forward to hearing your reflections as well in the breakout discussions.

We will be using a new Zoom account just created for our community.
