Everyone in the DC, Maryland and Virginia Areas are encouraged to join the Rally on Thursday, March 19th.

Take the Day Off - 200 coming from NY & NJ
300 Needed from the DMV

Everyone from DC, MD, VA Meet at The Washington Times Building at 9am for coffee, tea and a meeting with Rev Dunkley and chant and song rehearsals. Then board the comfortable coach buses to the embassy and back.

The Japanese Prime Minister will be in Washington, DC on Thursday and we need her to see our sadness and the horror of what is happening to our Church in Japan.

Board The Bus

Arrive between
9 and 9:15 am

Thursday, March 19th

You can pick up your Tee Shirt and Lunch and join the short Pep Rally and Rehearsal in the Arbor Ballroom.

Please try to Car Pool to the Washington Times Building

The graphic features the text "Capital Family Church DC & MD Area" at the top. Below it, the main title "Community Home Group Services!" is written in a large, elegant script font. Underneath the title, it says "This Weekend" and "Check with your Local Community Leaders For your scheduled time and locations". The graphic is surrounded by several illustrations of diverse groups of people in various settings: a group of people talking, a group sitting around a table, and a group of people standing together.

The DC Community will be holding

CFC NOVA Center

Hello brothers and sisters, we welcome our KEA members for the third Sunday of the month, and have the opportunity to receive a message from Pastor Sung Do Kim on "The realization of blessings." His speech is in Korean, but he has prepared a written English translation that will be read by Ain Nomura. We're also excited to welcome Ain's father, Rev Jang, on a visit home from his current mission in Korea. He will also share some of the latest updates from his work there. And finally, we will celebrate all the March birthdays!
