Pastor Kenji's Weekly Message

This Friday, the Capital Family Church will hold our Monthly HJ Offering Papers Dedication Ceremony

Hello.

As a regular letter, it has been a little while, but during this time I have also been having a truly wonderful time.

Although the pace has been slow since I said I would visit families, I was able to visit two families. When I was in Japan, I would visit families alone as part of my job as the church leader, but here in America it is more like family-style interactions. We all sang karaoke together, played games, and spent very memorable times. I am truly grateful.

Also during this period, I was able to visit Las Vegas and Indianapolis. If I were to express each experience in one phrase:

- Las Vegas: I wanted to know Jesus more. (Going forward, I want to visit churches more and encounter Jesus more deeply.)
- Indiana: I touched the power of the next generation of our church and felt great hope. (They will without a doubt create a bright future.)

In addition, I would like to announce the Monthly HJ Offering Paper (Wish Paper) ceremony. It is held every month, 30 minutes before the Night Prayer Vigil begins on the first Friday of the month.

It is a time to offer it to Heaven and pray that our wishes will be fulfilled, and at the same time, not only to pray but also to make a determination to take action ourselves to make those wishes come true. We look forward to the participation of many people.

- Date & Time: August 7, 9:30 pm
- Place: CSW (Washington Times Building)
- Attire: Preferably white or purple clothing
- Who can participate: You may write an Offering Paper on the spot and offer it, or those who already offered one last month are also welcome.
- Other: Those who can join the Night Prayer Vigil afterward are encouraged to participate.

Please take care in the heat and have a wonderful week.
