

Memorial Service for Dr Nnamdi Ahunanya

Valletta, Malta, 12. February 2017

Ahmadiyya Muslim community, Laiq Ahmed Atif, Brother David Mizzi, the Principal of Stella Maris School, members of the Nigerian Community and members of our Unification community in Malta.

The Master of Ceremonies was National Leader, Bryan Corlett who guided the proceedings, inviting people to share and in introducing the speakers and singers who offered songs.

Ambassador for Peace, former Minister of Agriculture & Fisheries and friend Noel Farrugia, shared his experiences with Nnamdi over the years.

A letter of appreciation was read out, written by Continental Director Jack Corley, praising Nnamdi's work with UPF and his ability to invite many VIPs to our Conferences.

Nnamdi's children travelled from New York and London to help organise the Service and at the end of the ceremony, his wife Comfort and the children thanked everyone for their attendance.

Nnamdi is survived by his wife Comfort, eldest son Chigozie and his wife Soon-Jung and their daughter Nayeli, resident in New York and second son Chinonya and daughter Chioma resident in London and Malta respectively.

Nnamdi will be buried in Nigeria after a funeral with his family members from around the world present, in Ibo State, Nigeria.

We pray for him as he enters the next phase of his life.!

By Bryan L. Corlett

Our brother Dr Nnamdi Ahunanya the Secretary General of UPF Malta, passed away suddenly in Nigeria, while visiting his family in his home town on January 15th.

An Interfaith Memorial Service was held on the 12th February at the Stella Maris College Chapel, a school where his two sons had attended.

Over 100 people attended the event, with testimonies of his life, being shared by the Director of the

Nnamdi's children – David Mizzi, Principal of Stella Maris School - Noel Farrugia, former Minister of Agriculture & Fisheries – Bryan Corlett, National Leader, Malta