FFWPU-Korea President Rev. Kyeng Seuk Lu gave a message at the National Seonghwa Ceremony of Gaudencia L. Estoce Jr, the pastor who passed away during Typhoon Haiyan.

The donation dollars that have flooded in the past three weeks are now at work in the Philippines. About 100 volunteers, who included Korean, Japanese and Filipinos leaders and youth, traveled to Bogo City to provide help after Typhoon Haiyan devastated the island nation.

The core group of the volunteer team visited the official residence of the Bogo City mayor, Celestino “Junie” Martinez Jr. (wearing orange shirt). The mayor received a copy of True Father’s autobiography.

These volunteers visited the Bogo City Mayor Celestino “Junie” Martinez Jr.’s official residence to go over the plans for volunteer work and also gave the mayor a copy of True Father’s autobiography.

Additionally, a National Seonghwa (Ascension) Ceremony was held for Gaudencia L. Estoce Jr, the pastor who passed away during Typhoon Haiyan. About 200 Filipino Unificationists attended the Seonghwa and Rev. Kyeng Seuk Lu, the newly-appointed President of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) Korea, also attended to offer his condolences to the family and community.

A volunteer team from the Filipino International Community of America (FICA) will travel to victims of the typhoon in Tacloban and Leyte to provide support. FICA is still collecting donations together with the
