

Blessing

Which couples or families, the spirit world will send to me?

The Netherlands, 9. December 2012

This time six puppies of Solidago Osiris's first nest! Although she was scared to death at the first encounter with a newborn puppy of her aunt, with her own puppies she was an exemplary mother.

What follows was my great expectation: which couples or families, the spirit world will send to me?

Always it's uplifting to experience how these people react to my story about God, True Parents and the UPF. Two couples came back on three evenings in order to hear more about this.

Eventually, all couples, from a lawyer to a tiler, were enthusiastic to be blessed and to participate in World Peace based on True Father's philosophy.

On December 9, everyone could come with family, neighbors and acquaintances.

My son, Remy, warned that this could end up in a party with 30,000 people (Haren).

Not that many were there. However, those who were present, were full of expectation about what the President of the UPF, Hans Campman, was going to tell.

The mood was so hopeful, that - with pleasure – Hans could talk with full devotion for more than an hour with full devotion. The response to the Four Promises was a very convincing "yes".

My grandchildren, David and Melissa, took care of coffee and tea with cake. Here one could experience how much God could work with them. Everything went fine, without my interference!

All together we were with 21 people and children. The service was perfect. With much love the people had been served and this was definitely a positive contribution to this afternoon.

Remy, as a photographer, had organized the group picture a few hours before. The result was a beautiful picture!

The many phone calls the next day were full of gratitude for the experience of the previous day.

Many compliments for Hans, who, with much joy, could explain some features of the Blessing.

It was a wonderful afternoon!

Hopefully God and True Parents were happy with these blessings. That is the goal ultimately! That is the purpose of our life: to help True Parents liberate God and to give back the world back to Him, so that the True Love can flow around the whole world, where everyone is craving for.
