The Story of Ms. Tomiko Duggan's Success in Witnessing

Dear Belvedere Community,

Thank you for your sincere dedication and hard work.

We are pleased to announce a special Zoom talk by Ms. Tomiko Duggan. This event is open to everyone - young and old alike - including those interested in witnessing, those who enjoy bringing joy to others, those involved in home gatherings with neighbors and Family Group Service activities, CheonBo Couples, and those aspiring to become CheonBo Couples.

Meeting Details

Date: August 6 th , Thursday at 8 pm.

Zoom: us06web.zoom.us/j/4445114899

Introduction to Ms. Tomiko Duggan:

During a recent Kodan Zoom meeting, Ms. Tomiko Duggan, shared the story of her success in witnessing. She will be speaking for the Western audience this time.

She serves as the Global Coordinator for IAPD and UPF International, based in Washington, DC.

She spoke about meeting diverse people through UPF and guiding them toward the Blessing; leading many to the Blessing by hosting tea ceremonies and other events, forming teams with local members to successfully organize various activities; and the educational programs and systems established at the Washington DC church, where she plays a key role.

The talk promises to be engaging, inspiring, and truly beneficial.

Please don't miss this opportunity to hear Ms. Tomiko Duggan speak.

May God Bless you and your family,

Ed Nakai
Belvedere HTM Coordinator
