WFWP Italy held a Japanese Tea Ceremony, through the sections of Bergamo and Turin, at the request of Professor Elena Centemero, our Ambassador for Peace and member of WFWP and IAPP.

The Tea Ceremony was organized at the hotel management school "I.P.S.S.E.C. Olivetti" in Monza (near Milan).

Three classrooms of students were accompanied by some professors, administrative staff and the principal of the institute, Professor Renata Cumino, attended and participated in the ceremony.

The program started in the morning with an explanation of the ceremony, its history and a power point presentation showing ancient Japanese tea houses on outside and inside, the explanation and the vision of the material used, including the spiritual meaning of the "Way of Tea".

We were so surprised to see all the students participate actively at the ceremony, followed by the professors and the principal of the school. Everybody could feel a special atmosphere with a sense of internal peace at the end of the event.

After the conclusion the 6 WFWP members and Professor Centemero were invited to a special lunch prepared by the students of the school.
