

National General Assembly of Cheon Il Guk Leaders in Congo Brazzaville

Achille Mouanda

April 30, 2017

We held a National General Assembly of Cheon Il Guk Leaders in Brazzaville from April 27 to 30, 2017. More than 20 leaders from the different parts of Brazzaville, Pointe-Noire, Sangha and Niari took part in this assembly.

Rev. Norbert Ndielle Moutsatsi, president of FFWPU Congo, gave an opening remarks which was followed by reading of the speech from the International President of FFWPU, Sun Jin Moon which was delivered at the 2017 World Assembly of National Leaders in Korea. Then Mr. Achille Mouanda, secretary general of FFWPU Congo spoke about activities in our nation. We had three major agenda: Heavenly Tribal Messiah, Finance and the Construction of the National Temple.

The leaders from the field such as directors of Witnessing and Education, Blessed Families, and other affiliated organizations have in turn presented their reports and strategies for the national restoration.

As the president of FFWPU insisted on unity, sincerity and confidence for a new Congo, participants joined hand in reciting the resolutions to be united and to go forwards for the great victory. The leaders are determined to support True Parent and the 2020 Vision and to make Congo a Cheon Il Guk Nation. YES WE CAN.

During the event we also had two new department leaders who were nominated for Brazzaville and Pointe-Noire.
