Just after the launch of the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community at UPF Africa level, the Ambassadors of the Congo living in Pointe-Noire took part from June 27 to 28, 2020 in the room of the Chamber of Commerce in a 2-day seminar organized by UPF Pointe-Noire under the theme: A Heavenly Congo in a Heavenly Africa.

In his opening remarks, the Chairman of the UPF Congo His Excellency Mr. Driss SENDA, Advisor to the Head of State, paid tribute to the True Mother who continues to intensify her efforts to place the Ambassadors of Peace on all active living plans to establish Cheon Il Guk.

The first day of the seminar was marked by two presentations by the Secretary General of the UPF His Excellency Augustin ZODJI who developed the following sub-themes:

UPF and vision of the Founder,

The Heavenly Congo

The Universal Principles of Peace.

The day was rounded off by the restitution of the World Summit 2020 made by the National Leader Rev. Norbert NDIELLE.

The causes of conflict and violence as well as the foundation of a nation of peace were the sub-themes presented by National Leader Rev. Norbert NDIELLE on the second day. There followed the five universal principles of ambassadors presented by Mr. ZODJI Augustin.

A new ambassador for peace was appointed on this occasion. He was the Counselor of King Ma Loango.

After taking note of the swearing in of the new Ambassador, the Chairman of the UPF made the conclusion by launching a vibrant call for unity, to bring together all the Ambassadors for the Peace of the Congo, in order to build peace and to live in spirituality, and according to the principles of Universal Peace.
