

WFWP Italy's President Invited to Speak at a Press Conference and Book Launch

Elisabetta Nistri

May 25, 2019

WFWP Italy President Elisabetta Nistri was invited by Professor Antonio Lerario to the press conference and launch of the publication of his book "One day you will understand", on 25 May 2019. This book has been dedicated to today's families. At this occasion, Elisabetta also delivered his Peace Ambassador Certificate that he hadn't been able to collect on a previous occasion.

Prof. Lerario is a teacher who has dedicated all his life and heart to the education of young people. Through expressions that are always very deep and rich of emotion, he wanted to offer us this new book that shows us the image of a typical today's family that is economically fine indeed, but displays a lot of struggle between husband and wife and between parents and children to the point of breaking down. The book wants to alert and assist us in recognising and dealing with potential issues within the family.

Elisabetta expressed her appreciation to the author for this book. She took the opportunity to introduce WFWP with its objectives and activities and emphasized the importance of the role of the women as peacemakers in the family as well as in society.

One of the guests present was the director of a magazine called "L'attualità". He will publish an article of this event and of the activities of WFWP in the next issue.
