At the request of the board, the President of WFWP Italy called a meeting to report on the latest events at the national level. The invitation was also extended to members of local branches. The President showed photos of recent events in Rome, such as the conference at the European Parliament headquarters, as well as various photos of the award received in Assisi, UNA COLOMBA PER LA PACE (A DOVE FOR PEACE).

The President then reported on some recent international and European events and focused on the objectives of WFWP International for 2026, which remain the same as those for 2025, with a commitment to implement even more projects.

The goals are:

- Women, peace and security;
- Women's leadership;
- Women for peace;
- Climate action and environmental sustainability;
- Global development;
- Aid services.
