

Bergamo, Italy celebrates Celestial Parent Day and the Birthday of True Parents

Franco Ravaglioli
February 18, 2018

On Sunday February 18, 2018, the community of Bergamo met in the polyvalent / auditorium theater of Orio al Serio (Bergamo) to celebrate the 51st Day of the Celestial Parent, the coronation ceremony of the Kingship of God, the birthday of the True Parents.

The celebration began at 10:30, with the Pledge of Families followed by some songs offered by the True Voices choir that prepared the spiritual atmosphere for what it was then the central message offered by the Pastor of the community of Bergamo, Adosco Comito, on the meaning of the three festivities.

At the end of the morning meeting three Mansei were offered: for the Celestial Parent, for the True Parents and for the victory of the sixth year of Cheon Il Guk.

After lunch shared with the community, we met again inside the theater to attend the scheduled entertainment planned for the afternoon. The Stereotipi musical band was the first to perform, they proposed live music; then the ASD Orientalya dance group performed several oriental and hawayan dances and this ended the celebration day.