On March 9th, The Albanian Women's Federation organized a meeting aligned with the UN motto for the day: "Women in Leadership: Achieving an Equal Future in a Covid-19 World."

Besides congratulatory messages, entertainment and games, the highlight of the event was the appointment of six new, young Ambassadors for Peace. The event was held simultaneously in our Peace Embassy in Tirana, on Zoom and on Facebook.

All of the new Ambassadors for Peace are bright and energetic young ladies, who just graduated from the "Women's Peace Academy" - a four month long educational program.

The program combined lectures by WFP Albania vice president Mrs. Marjeta Rroshi on topics of personal growth as basis for leadership, challenges of interpersonal relationships and the family, transformation of conflicts, and vision of women as creators of the future. These lectures were complemented by presentations by respected women leaders: Mrs. Eglantina Gjermeni, member of parliament, Mrs. Edlira Cepani, human rights activist, and Mrs. Mimoza Hajdarmataj, director of Women in Public Service NGO and a former MP.
