UPF organized a beautiful event in the city of Laç entitled "Ambassadors for Peace - pride of the city".

The event took place in the Cultural Hall of the city where 130 people participated.

The Mayor of the city, who is also the Deputy Chairwoman of the Local Peace Council, greeted all participants and proudly shared that she is an Ambassador for Peace, and for 4 years she tried to practice the principles of peace.

Present were also the Deputy Prefect of the area, the Chairman of the Regional Council, the adviser of the President of Albania, and many other VIPs.

The event was moderated by the well-known journalists and Tirana Peace Council Chairman Mr. Defrim Methasani.

Mr. Apostoli also attended and gave congratulatory remarks accompanied by two songs.

Wonderful performances were given by local artists and the girls' folk city dance.

In the end, 14 Ambassadors for Peace were appointed.
