From July 11th to August 19th, 2022, it was held a 40-day special workshop for raising CARP leaders in Brazil, led and organized by CARP-Brazil, in cooperation with IAYSP Brazil with the special presence of the representative of True Parents' representative in South America, Rev. David Dong Woo Kim, regional president of Heavenly Parent's Holy Community for South America; FFWPU-Brazil President, Pres. Koichi Sasaki; President of IAYSP South America, Pr. Samuel Ota Linhares.

The thirty-six participants, aging from 18 to 30 years old, from all over Brazil participated in in-depth Divine Principle lectures and study, as well as in memorization line-by-line of Divine Principle, lecture training and a practical period of witnessing in CARP Centers across Brazil.

During the witnessing period, from Aug. 5th~18th, more than one thousand people received the content of the Divine Principle, raising newly converted members and several others committed to attend 7-day Divine Principle workshops, as a way to follow-up their conversion process.

Through the workshop, participants reported a greater connection with the heart and love of Heavenly Parent and True Parents, understanding from their hearts the importance of witnessing and conversion of new people to inherit the heart and tradition of True Parents; and determined to invest more and more in creating a thriving culture of witnessing for the Sphere of 2nd Generation, for the victory of Vision 2027 and to return joy to Heavenly Parent and True Parents.
