August 13, 2018

YSP Burkina Faso, in partnership with the Mayor of TENKODOGO and El Hadj Daouda DIAO (Peace Ambassador) launched its activities at Town Hall of TENKODOGO. This ceremony gathered 70 people including 60 youths and students.

The launch took place in 3 steps:

- Official launch
- Teaching character education (on filial piety)
- Social activity such as giving of clothing and shoes

The ceremony began with the national anthem of BURKINA FASO. After the presentation of the program by the Master of Ceremony, we had the introductory word of the representative of the Mayor, Mr. Amadou DICKO, who encourages to deflate the vision of YSP because youth is the pillar of development.

Following the intervention of the Mayor's representative, the President of YSP – Burkina Faso Mr. Bokkun NONGUIERMA give the inaugural speech, followed by the congratulatory words of Mr. Issouf DIAO representing the co-sponsor. We finish the first step by signing the resolution and launching of YSP.

The second step is to teach the education of character, It was introduced by Mr. Bakari TRAORE, representative of the FFWPU-BF in the Central East Region of Burkina Faso. The teaching is focused on the filial love and more precisely the means to be good. The third stage was dedicated to a donation of clothing and shoes to a poor children's association. We finished the ceremony with an overall picture.
