

Mitty Tohma
October 2, 2025

NEWSLETTER ISSUE 251003

Activities around Europe and Middle East this summer

At the European Parliament

Hosted by: MEP Annalisa Corrado,
Delegate for Climate and Ecological
Conversion, Democratic Party, Italy
Organized by: Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) Europe and Middle East

WFWP Europe and the Middle East hosted a high-profile forum in the European Parliament focused on the Women, Peace, and Security (WPS) agenda. The event brought together approximately 90 participants, including prominent Members of the European Parliament, policymakers, academics, and practitioners. The forum featured two expert panels addressing critical dimensions of WPS: preventing conflict, promoting women's equal rights, and fostering secure educational environments for girls and young women.

See information, photos and vimeo

The Past is a Teacher, the Future is an Opportunity

WFWP Albania - Speech Contest

The project aims to encourage young people to reflect on the past and the future while promoting creative writing, critical thinking, dialogue, and active citizenship.

See details

HerStory

The September HerStory session featured Ms. Caroline Saeed Jarjis, a distinguished Sociology professor with a Master's in Sociology from the Pontifical University of Rome and a Bachelor's in Technical Medicine from Baghdad.

With experience teaching in Baghdad, Erbil, and Basra, Ms. Jarjis has dedicated her career to fostering peace, empowering women, and advocating for intercultural understanding. She is fluent in Arabic, Aramaic, English, Italian, and French, which allows her to connect with diverse audiences.

See Recording

WFWP Russia
3-day Educational Training program on moral education for young people.

Read more

WFWP Portugal
The farewell ceremony of the Executive Secretary of CPLP, Dr. Zacarias ...

Read more

WFWP UN Vienna
Bringing together youth to think about ways forward in a conflict ridden society.

Read more

WFWP Sweden
Empowered by the arts-United for Peace, a second cultural event was held in Stockholm.

Read more