HerStory
Keynote Speaker

Ms. Carmen Magallón

Intertwines women, science, history, peace, and activism.

An inspiring series of monthly encounters with women from Europe and the MENA. They will tell their stories to bring us closer to their culture and their life of challenges and successes.

Ms. Carmen Magallón is a notable academic and activist from Spain, known for her work on the history of women in science and the relationship between gender, science, and peace. She has received numerous awards for her contributions to peace and feminist thought, and has been involved in various international peace initiatives.

Testimonials

Ms. Rosaleen Bloomfield - UK

Fun, informative and moving conference. Loved connecting with so many wonderful people and the spirit of reconciliation, peace and love from the Bridge of Peace ceremonies was a truly uplifting - a magical highlight. Thanks Mitty and the organising committee for doing a sterling job.

Dr. Aicha Bacha – France

Dear friends, It is with immense pride and gratitude that I share with you a remarkable moment of my journey! I had the great honor of participating as a speaker at the Global Women's Peace Network's 22nd Annual Conference on Women's Leadership, an event that brought together women from 100 countries. This summit was held in Tirana, Albania, around the theme "Pathways to Peace and Development through Women's Initiatives". Read more >>

Geopolitics of Care: From Tirana an Agenda of New Peace Written by Women.

Tirana, 6 Nov 2025 – For a few days, Tirana became a discreet yet decisive meeting point for peace diplomacy. In the Albanian capital, representatives from 33 countries gathered—invited by the Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) and the Global Women's Peace Network (GWPN)—to share experiences and proposals on peace, inter-religious dialogue and female leadership.

In a time marked by conflicts and polarizations, the message coming from Tirana is clear: peace is not simply a balance of forces, but a responsibility of care, and without women at the centre of this process, security remains fragile. Read more >>
