On June 27th, WFWP members volunteered at the Midsummer Night Programme organised by the Petőfi Sándor Cultural Center in Dorozsma, near Szeged. Members helped prepare and serve bread and wine, took part in the origami craft activity, and assisted with packing away tables and benches after the event.

The collaboration began when a WFWP member living in Dorozsma contacted the Cultural Center to offer support for their programmes. The event provided a meaningful opportunity to serve the local community and build new connections. Afterward, the head of the Cultural Center expressed sincere appreciation, praising the volunteers for being exceptionally skilled and kind.
