

International Day of Families and Africa Day Observed in Republic of Congo

Clément Tsana
May 25, 2015

Observed in Republic of Congo May 15, 2015

Brazzaville, Congo—About 50 Ambassadors for Peace and other high-level guests from the Republic of Congo attended a program held to mark the UN International Day of Families 2015.

The May 15 event was held by UPF-Congo at the Congress Palace in the nation's capital, Brazzaville.

After a reading of a message specially written by UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, three presentations were given on:

- “The Family Is the School of Love and Peace”
- “The Benefits of Marriage”
- “Family Values and Peace”

Africa Day Observed in Republic of Congo May 25, 2015

Brazzaville, Congo—Ambassadors for Peace and other dignitaries from the Republic of Congo commemorated Africa Day 2015 with a meeting in the Congress Palace.

Approximately 50 persons participated in the event, which was held on May 25 in the capital, Brazzaville.

The discussion centered on issues of leadership and participative governance.

Originally held to mark the 1963 founding of the Organization of African Unity, Africa Day has developed into a worldwide celebration of African unity.