“What is the Ocean Providence and where do you and I fit in?” Following in the wake of the West Coast’s Ocean Summit in Las Vegas, this year’s 2016 Ocean Summit for the East coast will be held in Irvington, NY at the historical East Garden where True Parents worked and shared many Hoon Dok Hae (scripture) teachings and celebrations during their ministry in America.

With the goal to bring together all who have a heart and interest in True Parents’ amazing vision for developing and loving the oceans, and ultimately the world, this summit gives those attending the opportunity to learn and connect with others of the same vision, goals and values.
