The "Entrepreneurial African Women in Diaspora's Prize Ceremony" was held in Angola House in Lisbon, on 8 March 2017, in honour of International Women's Day, and our WFPW Portugal President Marta de Carvalho was awarded a prize in the category 'The Lawyer who Strives for Peace'.

This ceremony was an initiative by Isabel Denascimento from Angola in collaboration with the Santomense Tiamo Veloso and supported by the 'House of Angola' in Lisbon/Portugal.

The awards ceremony was preceded by a wonderful dinner and took place in an atmosphere of joy and excitement, since it was a first of its kind.

Having received the award, Marta de Carvalho expressed very emotional words of encouragement, appreciation and gratitude, and dedicated the award to God as well as Rev and Mrs Moon as the founders of a peace movement that includes WFPW. She also honoured her children and grandchildren, and her mother Maria Luisa - all of whom gave her so much love and support.

She also thanked the Singer and Ambassador of Peace Isaley Leitao, for the nomination.
