

WFWP Portugal's Int'l Women's Day Celebration

Marta de Carvalho

March 9, 2017

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the town of Odivelas, Portugal, invited WFWP Portugal President Marta de Carvalho, as well as UPF Portugal and some of our guests to take part in the presentation of the 'Beatriz Angelo' Prize. It took place on 8 March 2017 at the Exhibition Center of Odivelas.

Kioko Oliveira, a member of WFWP Portugal, offered a beautiful Japanese song which, translated, means "Happiness is here" (where the woman is).

We also invited professional singer and Peace Ambassador Isaley Leitao who performed an African Song called 'Malaika'. Both were wonderful performances, and we appreciate their contribution very much!
