

Youth Federation for World Peace Uganda launches Pure Love Club

Suuna James
June 13, 2015

The Youth Federation for World Peace Uganda in its series of country wide Pure Love Club launchings conducted its second club launch at the Henry Kasule Memorial Secondary School. Over 40 Students participated and pledged their loyalty to the Pure Love Club.

The Youth Federation for World Peace team led by its president Suuna James briefed the members about their mission of reserving purity for the future marriage. The head teacher of the school Mr. Fred Luzzi praised the Youth Federation for launching a club that has very good values and pledged to fully support it in his school.

The YFWP Uganda later offered a biography of True Parents to the school library plus t-shirts for the pure love club members.

Though Pure love club, YFWP Uganda will be able to deliver Universal Principles Education to the students of Henry Kasule Memorial School.

YFWP Uganda offered a 2 day residential workshop for the students during their holidays in December.

