

Belvedere Family Church: Jeffrey Kiluba's Passing

Justin Okamoto
October 10, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

One of our Up-and-Coming participants, Elizabeth Kiluba, sadly experienced a loss as her brother, Jeffrey Kiluba, passed away on October 7th. Elizabeth was attending an event in Las Vegas at the time and had to rush back to New York. Their parents, Prosper and Charlotte Kiluba, are members in the UTS area and are facing an incredibly challenging period. We kindly request your thoughts and prayers to support them through this tough time. If you wish to provide additional assistance, here is the GoFundMe link to support the Kiluba family.

My parents Prosper and Charlotte Kiluba shared the shocking news of the tragic passing of their second son, my younger brother Jeffrey on Saturday 10/7. Jeff was on a brief holiday in the Dominican Republic. He had called on Friday expressing excitement to see Mom and Dad again on Sunday. Sadly, on Saturday morning His body was found lifeless. We are in absolute shock and no words can describe what my parents, my sisters Stephanie & Elizabeth, and my youngest brother Simon are going through right now. All we wish is to bring Jeff home for a proper burial and celebration of his life.

Jeffrey has touched the lives of many. From the people and the community, we grew up around, his schoolmates, his many teammates over the years (soccer, wrestling, track & field), the people he worked with, and to the big U.C community he proudly felt part of. He will be remembered by many.

Our Father, Prosper Kiluba flew to the Dominican Republic upon receiving the news. As we wait more details for his burial, we would like to humbly ask you to help us Bring Jeff home.

Thank you.

While I do not know you or your family personally, I hurt for you all. It was not too long ago that I was posting a go-fund me for my dad and had to ask for donations.
