

Valentine's Day Blessing in Tallinn, Estonia

Olga Martinson - February 14, 2019

On a sunny Valentine's Day in Tallinn's Old Town, 30 beautiful married couples from around the world and eight single people received the Blessing!

We gave them greeting cards with words about the family and our contact information. We took pictures of them and recorded their names.

People were very grateful, and some made a donation.