Glimpse of a Blessed Life in the Northeast for the First Time

Come hear real stories of the Marriage Blessing Journey. Open to singles and couples.

This one-day gathering is designed to help us close the gap between the ideal and the day-to-day reality of a Blessed family life. Together we'll explore how to move toward that vision and how the Blessing reaches beyond just our couple's relationship.

Registration

- Early Bird: $50 (register by Oct 28, midnight EST)
- Regular: $60 (register by Nov 11, midnight EST)
(Includes food, materials, and full-day program)

High Noon Ascend Program

Ascend isn't just another course – it's a community and a process designed to help you grow. The program brings together three powerful elements:

- Small groups where you walk alongside (same gender) others who understand your journey, including a trained facilitator.
- Self-paced course content that teaches practical tools for lasting change.
- One-on-one mentorship and accountability so you're never walking alone.

Whether you're joining for the first time or stepping back in for continued support, Ascend gives you the structure, relationships, and guidance to keep moving forward.

It starts soon, so don't miss out and register now!

How Resilience is Cultivated

by Myrna Lapres

Dr. Martin E. P. Seligman, often called the father of Positive Psychology, discovered that children need to fail in order to succeed. In fact, it can help them figure out how to succeed next time. He discovered that until the early 1960s, achievement was the most important goal that parents sought to instill in their children. But from the later 1960s until the present, the focus of schools and parents has shifted to building up self-esteem.
