How to Be Successfully Single Before Marriage

Prepare for marriage in the CORE Program (free!): highnoon.org/join-core

Most single people quietly hope that life will “finally work” once they’re in a relationship — but that mindset keeps them stuck.

In this episode, Andrew & Benjy discuss what it really means to be successfully single: channeling your sexual energy with integrity, building inner wealth, and preparing your heart for a God-centered future.

Sometimes God is a Fiesty German Woman

by Myrna Lapres

On a recent flight from Rwanda back to San Francisco, I had a tight layover in Munich—just about an hour to get from one gate to the next. As I stepped off the plane and into the terminal, a woman in an airport golf cart appeared almost out of nowhere. She asked where I was headed, then immediately whisked me off through the crowded airport. She didn't seem to have a horn, so she simply called out for people to move as she navigated at full speed. She zipped me through customs and got me as close to my new gate as possible. By the time I arrived, the plane was already boarding.
