

Herb Myer has ascended

Mary Jane Despre
January 4, 2018

Herb Myer passed away on December 29, 2017, from a heart attack. He is from Houston, Texas. A longtime Unificationist now connected to Sanctuary Church, Herb has been at "Here's a wave..." since January 2017.

Herb is from Houston, Texas. He is married to Shizuka Iwaki Myer and they have a daughter, Elisa. He graduated from the third class of Unification Theological Seminary in 1979. In the 1980s, his missions included organizing the large Youth Seminar on World Religions and the Assembly of the World's Religions. Later he worked in CARP. In recent months, he began writing his memoirs.