

FFWPU UK: Children's Book Review - Betsey Stockton - Girl with a Missionary Dream

Ala Zubovskis
June 4, 2025

This Month's book review from our Children's Ministry's Ala Z. is 'Betsey Stockton: The Girl with a Missionary Dream' by Laura Caputo-Wickham.

Inspiring Young Hearts: The Story of Betsey Stockton

In our latest recommended read, Betsey Stockton: The Girl with a Missionary Dream by Laura Caputo-Wickham, children are introduced to a truly remarkable role model. Born into slavery, Betsey Stockton gained her freedom and went on to become one of the first African American single women to serve as a missionary overseas.

This beautifully illustrated book shares Betsey's courageous journey to Hawaii in the 1820s, where she dedicated herself to educating children and training local teachers. Her deep faith, perseverance, and love for others shine through on every page.

Part of the "Do Great Things for God" series, this book is perfect for children aged 4 and up, offering an accessible introduction to important themes like faith, justice, and purpose.

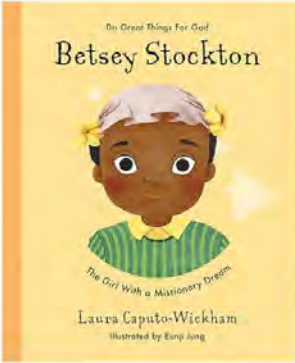

It's a powerful reminder that no matter our beginnings, Heavenly Parent can use us to make a lasting difference in the world.

A wonderful addition to your home or Peace School library!

I'd never heard of Betsey Stockton, but wow what a story! Born into slavery, freed as a young woman, and determined to pursue her dream of being a missionary, we all enjoyed this book (9yo daughter, 6yo boy twins - and adults!). This story will appeal to a wide age group - from a 3/4 year old with a 5 minute attention span to a 9/10 year old who still enjoys a snuggle and a picture book! Hardback, with gorgeous illustrations, it makes a lovely gift too.

★★★★★ A must read for all children, but especially for children of color

Reviewed in the United States on 22 May 2024

I volunteer in a Christian school where the majority of students are African American and Hispanic. One day an administrator commented that it has been challenging finding books about people of color that weren't sports figures. These books are perfect for young readers(K-2) and feature three African American women who did great things for God and others. The stories are compelling and the illustrations are great. Highly recommend!
