On December 21, 2018, in the city of Sucre, the inauguration of the WFWP branch. With the purpose of empowering women as peacebuilders and leaders of the family to transform the community, the nation and the world. Through education, promotion, association, reconciliation and humanitarian service, WFWP aims to create an environment of peace and welfare for future generations and people of all races, cultures and religious creeds.

Through the principle of living for the sake of others. This event led to the participation of 70 people among special guests, public figures from the Legislative Assembly, Lic. Yesenia Yarhui Albino, as well as Lic. Uganda Vedia, free volunteer lawyer who works in the human rights group Chuquisaca (A. P.D.H.CH). These public figures committed themselves to carry out activities that help to the development of the society. Restoring the principles and values of women who work and live for the good of society.

Representatives of the WFWP of the city of La Paz, Cochabamba and Santa Cruz also participated in this event to support the inauguration and commitment in WFWP activities.

The guests felt inspired, wanting to be part of the WFWP Bolivia. There was a good response, and commitment to carry out the Association with the selfless support that helps society.
