Dear brothers and sisters,

Our brother Jim Avey has passed. Jim had worked at Belvedere and East Garden helping construction and other activities many years ago, he and his wife later settled in Alaska. Some of you may know Jim and his wife Donna from years back, they were in the 1982 Blessing..

His Seonghwa ceremony is taking place on Zoom today, Sunday, 1/10, at 2pm Eastern Time (10am Alaska time).

Here are more details:

In Memory of James Avey Jr.

Name: James "Jim" David Avey Jr.

Spouse: Donna Avey

Birth Date: August 9, 1946

Blessed Date: July 1, 1982

Ascension Date: January 6, 2021

James "Jim" David Avey Jr., 74, died from vascular dementia and complications of stroke on Jan. 6, 2021, at home in Anchorage, Alaska, surrounded by family. Jim was born on Aug. 9, 1946, in Berkeley, California. His family drove to Anchorage in 1951, settling in Bootlegger's Cove.

Jim graduated from West High in '64, trade school as a carpet layer, and drafted into the Army in '68. Once discharged, he wandered the world. He lived on a houseboat in Amsterdam, in a cave in the Canary Islands, and in a treehouse at Taylor Camp on Kauai. He eventually came home to Alaska, where he built a cabin in Hope.

In 1976, he joined the Unification Church and met his beloved wife, Donna, in 1979. Through church mission work Jim supported the Joshua House Children's Centre, an orphanage in Guyana. He continued to work as a carpet layer until developing kidney failure. In between dialysis treatments he delivered for Hummel's Flowers. After receiving a transplant, he spent time with his grandkids, served free coffee outside his downtown home, and traveled with Donna.

He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Donna; son, Jaedon Avey (Adrian); daughter, Jaena Tranberg (David Kojin), all of Anchorage; daughter, Ursula Rotche of Costa Rica; grandchildren, Michael, Martha, Kona, Sarah, Jeffery, Aaron, David, and Steven; great-grandson, Kai; sister, Andrea McGovern of Hawaii; nephews, Joshua, Christopher, and Nathan; stepdaughter, Heather Lewis (John) of Texas; grandsons, David, Hilton and Lyle; and cousin, Kay (Mike) of Kansas. He is preceded in death by his parents, James David Sr. and Bettye Lou Avey (nee Wentworth).
