Rosie Dijan Muyongo

April 9, 2021

Dear Blessed Central Families, Brothers and Sisters,

Spring time is here. Early in the week we had some sunny days, then it was followed by winter like weather with cold temperature and rain. It is amazing how the weather changes. I hope that we are all able to adapt to these changes in weather and are all able to stay healthy both physically and spiritually. There are many interesting and inspiring things happening here in America and abroad. I hope you are able to get the news from International Headquarters , from our national headquarters and also from our sub-region. In case you don't, please let me know.

Tomorrow, Saturday, April 10, WFWP is celebrating it's 29th year anniversary. Also, CARP Las Vegas together with CARP Bay Area is holding an online event entitled "You Are Worth More: The Honest Truth About Marriage". You can check the details from the sub-region 5 newsletter which I forwarded yesterday and is also included in the weekly updates from Pastor Nelson Mira,
