

Ulyanovsk Holds Seminar for Second-Generation Children

Yuriy Gavrilin - January 4-6, 2019

A three-day seminar was held from January 4 to 6 for Second Generation children in Ulyanovsk region, including some from the cities of Ulyanovsk and Saratov.

Seventeen children aged 7 to 12 years, plus 13 adults, attended the seminar whose theme was "Life of Faith." In addition to several lectures, the seminar included performances, a quest, interaction with parents, cooking, origami and making cards (fundraising product).

Everything was very well organized by Sunday school teachers and several parents, with the help of three young Japanese missionaries and one photographer who also made videos.

At the end of the three days, parents and children were interviewed. They spoke about the high spirit of the seminar and said that the children were happy to meet each other.
