ABOUT NATIONAL PARENTS DAY

An American holiday

In 1994, Congress unanimously passed “The Parents’ Day Resolution” establishing the fourth Sunday of July as a perennial day of commemoration.

On this day each year, Americans recognize outstanding parents, celebrate the teamwork in raising children, and support the role of parental guidance in building a strong, stable society.

Throughout the nation in almost every state, community leaders organize Parents’ Day events to honor parents.

Local Parents’ Day Committees are made up of volunteers, public officials, community leaders, ministers, teachers, students, and, of course, parents, who organize events to honor parents.

Every year since 1994, these local committees have sponsored annual Parents’ Day programs, gathered nominations, and awarded some incredible parents in towns and neighborhoods across America.

You are invited to participate with your time, expertise, and energy. You can provide in-kind services, gift certificates, donations, or just show up at one of the many Parents’ Day events and applaud the parents making a difference in your area.

Parents of the Year

At the national level, the Universal Peace Federation sponsors an award ceremony, inviting and hosting state nominees to a Parents of the Year Banquet in Washington, D.C. with members of Congress and other dignitaries.

National Parents of the Year awards are given to parents who exemplify parental love, service, and dedication to their family and to the broader family of their local community.

In this way, America’s moral fiber is supported and strengthened in that most essential place: the home.
