A Message from our Pastor

Dear LA Family,

We are coming into the Holiday season (perhaps that is more stressful than exciting for some); so I hope everyone can have meaningful moments with their families and communities.

Let's take a moment to reflect on the Verse that Pastor Keisetsu shared with us on Sunday:
Matthew 6:33-34
But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

It reminds me of a great quote: "Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift; that's why it's called the present."

Brothers and sisters, every day is a gift, so let's keep our eyes on the Kingdom! When we live every day with that focus, surely we will realize the great dream of our Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

With that being said, here are some Kingdom-building, community opportunities to look forward to:

- For starters, we are excited to welcome Rev. & Mrs. Thompson to Los Angeles this weekend. If you have yet to register for the workshop, please check below for the information!
- On November 8th we are hosting a Fall Peace Cup tournament after church (Location TBA). Our Next Gen Missionaries have been working around the clock to prepare the experience for everyone.
- And finally, on November 15th, we are hosting our annual Fall Festival right outside our church! They are still seeking volunteers to run various shifts, so please see the volunteer sign up link below in the section on Fall Festival.

God Bless you all, and looking forward to spending the next few days together.

Sincerely,
Joshua Holmes
