

WFWP Kiev, Ukraine visited a summer camp for internally displaced children

Anna Kalmatskaya
August 1, 2019

During the summer, WFWP Ukraine periodically visited a summer camp for internally displaced children that accepted about 350 kids.

They visited the camp a few times, which had colorful master-classes, treatments and humanitarian help for the children and their families.

The most impressive program was the Vytynanka master-class where the children had to create their family tree by drawing it on colored paper and cutting it out.

Reported by Anna Kalmatskaya
WFWP Ukraine