

Why I Think I Know That There Are Six Now Perfect People

Someone kindly asked me to explain why I think I know that there are 6 now perfect. I said it was the Cheon Shim Won and Jesus. So, True Father, True Mother, Hyo Jin Nim, Heung Jin Nim and Dae Mo Nim and Jesus. Jesus being God's first perfect child and going it alone in the eternal spiritual world for over 1900 years.

Since I was about 10 years old I understood that Jesus reached perfection while overcoming Satan's temptations in the desert. The final try by Satan to stop him at the end of the completion stage. With True Father I believe it was whilst being tortured by Japanese soldiers in 1944 and managing not to give in to the temptation to give the names of his friends to get out of the torture. A brutal trial from Satan also. I'd also received that True Father was like Jesus when I was 5 years 9 months old. So Jesus and True Father are perfect. True Father testified thousands of times to True Parents stating that he and True Mother were True Parents. I haven't had spiritual confirmation by revelation that True Mother is perfect but I have True Father's word for it.

There will never be another first True Parents. Also from the first day I saw their picture in the prayer room at Affleck Street in Aberdeen I could see no sin. Looking at their picture always filled me with a feeling of spirit and purity. I believe true Mother is perfect. Also at this late stage of Providence if she were not perfect there would be no Providence. It takes parents to give rebirth. Hyo Jin came to me 2 nights running at our small fruit farm in Amazonas in May 2019 and told me he had reached perfection in the Spiritual World. I had not been aware at the time that True Mother had stated that the 4 position foundation in True Parents family was complete meaning God had a son and daughter who were perfect who had children who were perfect. A perfect 4 position foundation. This quite a recent victory that happened within the last 10 years. A massive victory in the world of cause that will manifest in the physical world sooner rather than later in my opinion.

She also mentioned that there was a unity of brothers in that 4 position foundation. I'd believed Heung Jin Nim was perfect for quite a long time. He was guiding me when I joined. I received the same messages sometimes that a sister who was a medium for Heung Jin Nim gave. It was never stated clearly that he was perfect but having his picture in the prayer room suggests it. If they were not perfect and not perfectly pure why would their pictures be there.

The same logic to Dae Mo Nim. Would True Father have allowed someone imperfect to take charge of ancestor liberation. That an imperfect person could do that better than a perfect person? Unlikely. I feel it when I pray that they are all perfect also. So, If 6 are perfect it's relatively recent compared to 1900 years and more when it was just Jesus. How much saving can 6 perfect people do. I suggest it's lots. That they will guide others in True family to perfection fairly quickly. So, I say I know this to be true. As I type I feel it! I know it's true. Matthew 5:48. Be ye perfect. It's coming. Many will cross the finishing line like Hyo Jin told me he had. When I challenged the spirit "Why didn't True Father tell me this?" Hyo Jin said "It doesn't matter who tells you. We are all one. Totally united" So, Providence will conclude successfully but we do all have to believe and keep trying.

What I have typed here is true. If you can receive it you will have the support of 6 perfect people. The Cheon Shim Won is True and Jesus is also perfect. 6 perfect people working together can heal. Can perform miracles. If we have faith they will make miracles through us. Hyo Jin's music is special. I got news today that a work colleague of mine who I prayed for and also played Hyo Jin's music on shift while he was there has been given the all clear from Liver Cancer. They removed over two-thirds of his Liver. The Doctor thought they had lost him last October during and after the operation. He was in intensive care for over a week.

He's not a member. I believe being perfect is an absolute. I believe I have been allowed to glimpse the top of the mountain. It does not mean I am at the top of the mountain or even near. It simply means I have glimpsed the top of the mountain and it is an absolute. An absolute victory. Eternal and cannot be lost. I know many here already believe this. Many know this better than me but if you don't then please receive this testimony
