

ON THE BLESSING

I. THE BLESSING

To be a blessed family is already to have a fearful title and a fearful position. For it is the position of being responsible for substance, lineage and heart.

Blessed families are to be man's eternal ancestors, and the only things they can be proud of are their blood lineage, substantial character and heavenly heart. In order to be proud of substantial character, you must be careful of what you have in your face, that is, your eyes, ears and mouth. You must choose what you see and hear and then digest everything, keeping your mouth silent. Work in silence in every way, except when you must make a decision in the position of responsibility and authority.

Heaven gathers all blessed families together before the altar of sacrifice. Blessed families must stand together weeping over the misery of the sacrifice on the altar.

Blessing does not come in a comfortable situation, but should come after you go over the hill of suffering and the cross. Until today, the suffering has been great and the blessing small, but in the Last Days, suffering and blessing will come in proportion to one another.

*1f

Try not to receive blessing while in debt, but be prepared heartistically to offer even a straw in front of the Will in order to receive blessing.

If a blessed family does not realize the meaning of the blessing, it will regret it for eternity.

M1c

Through loyalty and filial piety lay the foundation that cannot be accused. Then be proud of being an exemplary family. In past history there may have been a standard of loyalty and filial piety, but never that of an exemplary family. The blessing is for the purpose of realizing exemplary families.

In the future you will not be accused by Satan but by angels and the passed-away saints.

Though blessed couples may have their individual shortcomings, we must respect them because Heaven gave them the blessing.

We should not criticize blessed families at our discretion. Only after we respect the blessing of God can our history begin.

When you visit a certain locality, first visit the blessed family in that area, then take care of your own business. A blessed family is the doorway to their area.

When we meet blessed families, we must do so respecting them as being in the position of God. If a blessed family fails to fulfill its responsibility in the future, the grace of that family will come to him who served that family.

If a village treats coldly a blessed family which really toils for the sake of its area, it will be struck.

After you are blessed you will encounter trials that may lead you to forfeit the blessing—trials from other people, spirit men, Jesus and even God.

I often pray for blessed families with tears. Why? Because I blessed them, I feel ashamed before God. The reason I have led blessed families thus far is to allow God to recognize them one day because of me.

Loyalty is for the archangel, filial piety is for Jesus, and fidelity is for us.

I know that there are problems because I have blessed some who did not go through the regular course. But you must begin a new history by becoming a family worthy of inheriting heavenly heart, substantial character and heavenly law.

Blessed families are now in their period of 5 percent responsibility. Accordingly, I am in the position of examiner. For a while, therefore, I may look like their enemy, but if I do not treat them harshly, Satan will do so instead. So it cannot be helped.

The blessing is the point where the greatest happiness and greatest misfortune cross.

The place of blessing ceremony is so precious that it cannot be bought even in exchange for God.

We are heavenly citizens. Whereas the chosen people cannot embrace God perfectly, the heavenly citizens can do so perfectly. Because we are heavenly citizens, Satan cannot claim us even after death.

The Marriage of the Lamb is a holy ceremony where a man and a woman stand to be blessed for the inheritance of heaven and earth.

The value of the True Parents is so great that they can never be exchanged even for the whole world, nor the True Children even for all mankind.

Do you really know the value of the blessing? The blessing is the position which even Jesus and the Holy Spirit were not able to attain after working for 2,000 years since the Resurrection.

The position of being blessed is the position of Adam and Eve before the Fall.

The reason Heaven gave couples the blessing was not for their sake as individuals, but for the restoration of their clans, of the nation, of the world and of the cosmos.

The blessing is given to establish a foundation of fortune for betterment.

You are hit by the indemnity stick because Satan exists.

When a family is in disharmony, Satan rejoices.

Because of blessed families, the world can start to develop horizontally. Without them, the world develops only vertically.

<sup>DI</sup>

Peter (disciple of faith) = Adam's position (Cain) James (disciple of hope) = Jesus' position (Abel) John (disciple of love) = position of Lord of the Second Advent (Seth)

<sup>*41</sup>

Peter was crucified upside down to indemnify Adam's reversal of the law of heaven and earth, but John did not die because he was the model for the Lord of the Second Advent.

The family is the point where God's love can be connected to the earth's people. Therefore, the family becomes the standard for the realization of Heaven.

Holy matrimony is the work of fulfilling the course of restoration.

<sup>OO</sup>

Blessed families must go the same path I walked, spitting up blood to cry out to God.

After a great blessing, there comes a great migration. After 21 years of gaining children and all things, Jacob moved to Canaan. Moses, too, returned to Canaan. After Jesus' time, the Germanic tribes made a great migration. In our time, there will come a worldwide migration.

Blessed families are the masters of the Unification Church.

You must live, praying: "We will take up the unfinished task of heart, the unfinished task of substantial character, and your commanding words."

In the realm of heart, there are vertical relations (with parents), horizontal relations (between husband and wife) and relations of left and right (among brothers and sisters).

Through the blessing you can inherit everything.

Holy ceremonies continuously occur in the life of the Unification Church. Can you compare a precious hour of worship service or pledge service with an hour of meeting the president of any nation?

Blessed families must become the root of the restoration of the nation. People cannot be grafted onto decayed roots.

When blessed families fail to set the example and then become an object of accusation, their regret will remain for eternity.

There is no way to solve the problem of failure after being blessed. The last focal point of life as a man is the blessing.

The purpose of God's providence of restoration is to raise children of His direct lineage, not adopted children, and that process begins with the blessing of the Marriage of the Lamb.

Paradise is where adopted children go.

According to my experience, Heaven promised me a blessing which would be found in the highest place, but after this promise, God led me to the lowest place.

~*~

You should walk the path of restoration not for your own benefit but for the benefit of those who come afterwards. When you see older blessed members living a poor life in shabby dress, you should feel solemn.

~*~

I must raise the same number of families as the Israelite families who failed in the wilderness through three generations. And I must be able to boast of them before the universe as examples of loyalty.

The way to preserve the blessing is to suffer.

The only desire that remains is that of receiving the blessing. But we are never to receive it by sitting quietly.

What do you pay in order to receive the grace of God? You have to say, "I will pay for it by my filial love."

You have to miss the blessed land. Jacob asked his kinsmen to bury him in his homeland after his death.

In order to have a blessed land we have to have a worldwide ideology.

Blessing is promise. Promise is that of the future world for those who come after.

The ceremony of the blessing is simple, but there are surprisingly difficult historical contents behind it. The standard of the blessing is such that if I laugh, the whole cosmos can laugh.

A blessed family should fulfill the mission as a second Messiah. A blessed family should not become a burden. If it cannot fulfill its mission, it will invite disaster.

II. IDEAL MATES

To the highest degree, love your spouse who is heartistically connected with you.

The conjugal relationship is the place where heaven and earth meet each other. A married couple represents the dual characteristics of God, and when they embrace their children, they should be in harmony by having the same heart as that of Adam and Eve who embraced the universe.

Ideal mates exist for the purpose of pulling the universe together and of achieving Heavenly Father's Will. Therefore, they should not aim at enjoying themselves horizontally, but at enjoying the Will and living for it.

Men and women are like bones and flesh respectively. Men represent Heaven and the bones of the world. Therefore, they should not lose their dignity and integrity.

Ideal mates must be able to trace their motives and results to Heaven.

Before you yearn for your ideal mate, you should yearn for True Parents and brothers and sisters. Only by setting up this condition can you have God meet you.

Brides should not claim ownership toward their bridegrooms. Christianity has established the ideal of being a bride. When it meets God in the Last Days it should not possess a sense of ownership and self-consciousness.

In the first true historical course ever since the beginning of 6,000 years of history we must possess moderation and dignity.

We must become unique seeds. Heaven is planning to leave the heavenly lineage through us at a certain time, and so to marry is a precious and strict thing. We should know that no restoration is possible if mistakes are made beyond that place.

Most sages have never known that it was Heaven's Will to raise families after raising individuals. Therefore, we should know that when God blesses families, it is for the purpose of restoring nations.

Pa

Jesus lived as a bachelor until he was 33. Wherever you may be, you who understand the Principle must be a person whom God can trust concerning the male-female problem.

III. THE FAMILY AND FAMILY LIFE

Dwelling in the law of love means not to be dominated by antagonism, but to be able to control it.

Origin-division-union action is manifested concretely in daily family life. When you leave home in the morning, do so with happiness, and when you come back home, do so with happiness. After coming back home, you should talk to your wife and children about what happened that day and discuss with them to correct things. Connect everything with love and a smile. You may discuss the Will with your wife, but if either of you wants to keep some secrets about the Will, you may do so even for eternity. You should have that kind of relationship. Worldly couples have not been that way.

Pa

The home where children can proudly say that their father and mother are wonderful and where they see their parents rejoice is a resting place for the children.

If you became angry with your wife or scolded your children, you must apologize to them and love them even more.

Each family must establish its own "Parents' Day," "Children's Day," "Day of All Things," and "God's Day." From now on, you must lead your family to the land of Israel and establish the decisive power for victory.

The time has come when all blessed families must create a new history together. The 1960s were the years to go over the cross on the individual level, but the 1970s are the time to bear the cross on the family level.

Blessed families must set the example in serving Heaven. You must look forward to Sundays and the first day of every month with both your mind and body fully dressed.

<sup>44</sup>
First we must express filial piety as children to our parents. When we grow up, we must be a couple of fidelity. These are the internal, heartistic stages which we must go through. What we must express externally is loyalty.

Don't try to give of your heart to your children only after they are born, but give of your heart in preparation even before they are horn.

Early in the morning, couples ought to pray in tears, holding the hands of their children. The children ought to be able to long for and adore their parents while their parents are away.

Don't have an unpleasant face during the daytime and at night. Wake up smiling, work smiling and go to bed smiling.

<sup>10</sup>
When you find some imbalance in your relationship with your spouse, both of you should be sincere enough to supplement each other by heart and faithfulness.

<sup>M.</sup>
No weed will grow in those who live with the heart of parents.

Children of filial piety are those who feel a parental heart. It doesn't matter what worldly knowledge or position you have. The only thing that matters is whether you have the heart of heaven.

From now on we are under the direct dominion of God, so we must consult with God on everything. In order to do that, you must realize that you are a public being. Even if you must neglect your individual joys and sorrows, you must participate in the public joys and sorrows. The safest way is to walk the Way of the Will by attracting others' sympathy. To do so, you must lead a life at a lower level than Heaven permits you.

Even though blessed children may have hardships, you should not live according to their needs, but in accordance with the destiny of God, the nation and world.

There will come a day when people from all over the world will visit the blessed families of Korea. You must have things to show them and words to speak to them at that time.

On the day of worship service, couples should go to church in such a happy way that children will want to come along with them out of envy.

If a friend of your husband comes into your home drunk and tumbles into your clean bed with his dirty shoes on, how would you treat that intruder? Be generous to him and even he grateful, because that friend of your husband trusts you so much.

WCJ

The families who live without tears are my enemies.

Unless you willingly live a life of reporting and asking permission, you will have to live life only as you are told to do.

Blessed families must not get accustomed to a certain standard of life. Even now they must be able to move and go anywhere if necessary.

Be concerned about where I go. Those families which don't dedicate their sincere heart during my world tour will become problems.

The highest offering of heart is a blessed couple.

The motto for the course of restoration refers to parents, husbands and wives, and children. The time has come when we must establish parental love and brotherly love and find and raise loyal subjects for the nation.

PR

Even while sleeping I often wake up and immediately kneel to pray. Can I who know parental heart sleep comfortably? You will never feel a guilty conscience if you live with the parental heart of raising children.

A true child of filial piety is he who inherits the most difficult thing from his parents and does it with confidence.

A child of filial piety will consult with his father even on the smallest detail of daily life. Learn everything through filial piety.

A wife should have the heart to be glad that her husband can go to die for the Will. A husband must be able to be glad that his wife can go and die for the Will. You must have such a heartistic relationship with God that you have this attitude.

Parents should think of those things which their children don't think of.

A man is a representative of True Father, and a woman a representative of True Mother. If a husband neglects his wife, therefore, this means that he neglects True Mother. If a wife tells a lie to her husband, this means that she tells a lie to God.

MIC

When I am fulfilling my responsibility for the nation, you should cooperate and raise your family for that purpose. If the nation is ready and your family is not ready, the nation will feel the sorrow of an orphan.

WEI

Jesus called God his Father and said that those who did the Will of God were his brothers, and that he himself was a bridegroom. He meant that he was to establish a family centering on God.

PIC

Parental heart is such that parents want their children to become better than themselves. God, the parent of mankind, wants the children He created to become better than Himself.

The purpose for a husband and wife to become one is so that their family may become one; the purpose of the family becoming one is so that it may become one with True Parents; and the purpose of it becoming one with True Parents is so that it may become one with its clan and race and the nation.

We must have the mind to look forward to an official holiday. Only by establishing a good tradition in this way can we have our offspring establish the same tradition of life. On official holidays we must share everything with one another and live joyfully while God rejoices. On these official holidays we must establish the law of Heaven by making our families loyal.

It is parental heart to want your children to establish families and clans that will be envied by the nation and the whole world.

Until we achieve a true heavenly family, a true world of love will not be achieved. We must deeply realize that we are not qualified to be exposed to the love of God which is hidden so deeply within Him, and we must ask Him to enable us to yearn for it.

Do not become so hasty that you put God aside.

N.

The basic unit of society is a family. The Church should center around families, and the nation also center around families. A blessed family is like newly born Adam and Eve. You must establish all the heavenly regulations while you are alive.

Even though you quarreled with your husband in the morning, when he returns home in the evening you must give him a smile and treat him as though you did not ever quarrel with him.

The family is the gateway which God is going to pass through, which Jesus and the Holy Spirit want to pass through and which all mankind wish to pass through. Therefore, that gateway must be peaceful and happy.

Only when you establish the kind of family which is welcomed by individuals, families, the clan, race and nation can your family start the path to restore dominion over the cosmos. At that very moment, the "Day of the Family" will be established.

Jesus' mission of restoring his clan and the nation centering around his family was to be carried out by him in the position of a child. You too are laying the foundation for the nation in the position of a child, while I build the foundation for the world in the position of a parent.

Since we are in the Head House as the first sons, we must feed all who visit us. Just as I took care of all the members throughout the night without sleeping, blessed families must take that responsibility in my place.

The father-son relationship is the basis of all heaven and earth.

There must be a cause behind every result. We must become the example and seek to educate our children. Children are living testimonies of the internal and external life of their parents.

We should not become shameful persons in front of our offspring.

Every Sunday you should bow to God in your own family.

Prior to appearing at official meetings, we must go through the ceremonies in our own families of having become children of filial piety, loyal subjects and women of fidelity. Through these ceremonies God, True Parents, ourselves, and all things become directly connected.

Morning service is the ceremony of reporting your life to Heaven. We must make every Sunday morning the moment which our children are eager for. On Saturdays, we must clean house and then the whole family should happily gather at a set time.

Three blessed families of the same trinity should consult each other about serving Heaven, raising children and living for the Will.

When you love children, don't love them as individuals. You must raise them to express filial piety toward True Parents and loyalty toward the Ideal.

For that purpose, you must build a certain foundation so that your children will, without fail, become loyal subjects, women of fidelity, and sons and daughters of filial piety. Only this way can you become ready to enter heavenly life.

How did I accomplish the restoration of the family? I established the standards of Adam's family, Noah's family, Abraham's family, and Jesus' family, and gathered together those who met the standard of adopted sons. How busy and pressed I was in doing all this within the limited period of 40 years! For this purpose, I managed all things even in the most difficult circumstances. Thus were made the Unification Church and my own family.

Since your body already belongs to God (I Cor. 3:16), you should not go anywhere else but to good places, and should not do anything else but good things.

Pray constantly so that Heaven, who chose you, may not shed tears because of disappointment.

We joined the Unification Church to become sons and daughters of God, to govern His nation, and to live with Him.

It is the Principle that when parents have children of filial piety, Satan will be subjugated. This is because if Adam and Eve had maintained filial piety, uniting with God, the archangel would have had to be subjugated.

The time has come when blessed families should awake. Now is the time when God treats us with law rather than with love.

Do not take heartistic life lightly. Be attentive to your husband's face, dress and body. You must also make yourself up and smile.

MIK

The highest beginning and ending point upon which the heart of God can rest is the family.

It is greater filial piety to serve the parents of the nation than those of your own family, and even more so to serve the parents of the world, and much more so to serve the parents of heaven and earth.

They are most blessed who live with the idea of heaven and earth in spite of living a poor life in this world. Whereas this world changes, heaven and earth do not change. Therefore, those who live with the idea of heaven and earth are the most blessed.

You must reflect on what kind of children you will raise for the will of God and how well they will serve Him.

To live bothered by one's conscience is the worst evil, and it hurts not only oneself, but his family, race, nation, the world, and even God.

To establish the authority of your family, you must first establish the authority of your individual self. To establish the authority of your individual self, you must heighten your consciousness of the authority of the Will.

nt.

Suppose that you were handed over to Satan. Only if he is unable to touch you even in that situation and tells God that you are undoubtedly God's filial son can you truly be a filial son of God.

You have to live a practical life to restore Cain and Abel following my family.

Parents should have something about which their children can proudly say their parents are the best in that field.

nt.

A husband and his wife should live with fervent love which is unchanging during their whole life. Although they become old, they should do so following their past standard of connection.

-4C

When a husband and his wife give birth to a child, the best thing is for them to have not only heartistic unity but also physiological unity with each other.

After you have a family, you have to live with three times more thankfulness than before.

*44

A child is wordless, but he is a teacher who leads his parents.

*44

A child acts after he explores his parents' heart by himself.

If a parent says to his child, "Become a person who knows God," he gives the greatest teaching.

You have to learn the True Parents' view of life. Each of you should be an individual through whom the True Parents are shown to others.

The greatest purpose of religion is to build true families.

*OF

The tradition of a family should be established by each of three successive generations.

A blessed family is the fruit of the 6,000-year history.

The wife should love her husband more than she loves her father. The husband should not be inferior to anyone in this world in loving his wife. You should love your mother more than any filial child loves his mother in this world. The husband should love his wife more than their children love their mother. The wife should love her husband more than their children love their father. Such is the ideal family.

The families of a trinity have to get in touch with one another within the first three weeks of every month. You have to live centering around your trinity families.

The center of a restored family is the Lord of the Second Advent. The desire of each Family member is to establish a restored family.

The True Parents are advocates of family life. God has been carrying out His providence for 6,000 years until today in order to find this family of the True Parents. The Unification Church is the place where how to become connected with this family is taught.

Adam's family was originally created by God so that it might become a family which could influence the universe, not a family which would be influenced by it. Your family should not be a conventional and secular one. You should not say that even though your family is not good now, it will become good in the future. Yours should already be a good family.

The husband is in the position of subject. He should stand in the center. This is the place representing God. If the family is disharmonious, the husband should take the responsibility for it.

If the Unification Church has to leave the tradition for the rest of the world, then most important is how it leaves the standard of family unity to the cosmos.

A subject is called loyal only when he is able to make people cry. I am Father only when all people feel grateful to me. We should establish families in which God's desire and our desire are in accordance with each other.

A blessed family is the object of desire of all people. But if a blessed family cannot fulfill the responsibility given it, it will be a failure.

The man should take responsibility for whatever happens to the family. He should have the central authority in his family. Establish the tradition in your family.

101

Although as husband and wife you pass away, you have to leave the Way of God behind.

It is deplorable that spirit men attack families. Only if all of you prepare and establish a foundation can I organize families in the spirit world. Thus, it is you who are responsible for the mobilization of spirit world on earth.

The families of the same trinity should live together and have the same feeling of life.

Basically, a trinity should be such that one of the families takes care of all three and the other two go out to work.

The final base of God's providence is the family.

IOU

The greatest of enemies is the enemy of love.

The greatness of the Unification Church is the fact that it conclusively solved all problems centering upon the family.

Your day-to-day individual course of life has to become the basis of ultimate victory.

Joy and happiness exist only where they are in accordance with the love of God. That is to say, the joy of parents begins with their children and the joy of children begins with their parents.

A family is the mother of the Kingdom of Heaven, and its ideal is love.

A family is the beginning and the end of all connection.

PR

A person can be called a child of filial piety when he desires that his parents' situation should be solved before his own.

An individual is like one car of a train and a family is like a locomotive. When an individual fails, his restoration is easy, but when a family fails, it means bankruptcy.

PII

A family is our starting point. It is like a space for breathing.

The wife should not owe debts in heartistic life. She should have concern for her husband.

The only way a wife can control her husband is to take the lead wholeheartedly in the Will of God.

P11

If a filial child is to laugh, he should do so as he looks at the faces of his parents.
