Chile church members elected their new president democratically in a general assembly following all the necessary procedures. There were 48 people present. This is the result:

Miguel Angel president: 46 votes
Raul Guzman director: 41 votes
Sergio Castillo director: 46 votes
Milton Hernandez treasurer: 44 votes
Pedro Arias secretary: 45 votes

Somehow the church HQ seems to be extremely worried about this and went out of its way to try to influence members against it. They sent continental director Dong Mo Shin and Chang Shik Yang, as well as other leaders to try to influence the outcome of the assembly. They also issued memos and made direct threats to members who would participate...

Dong Mo Shin and Chang Shik Yang are holding a parallel general assembly in a hotel in Santiago, Chile, with a few members. But it is not legally acceptable since they did not follow proper procedure.
