At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort, a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God. About the ninth hour of the day[a] he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God come in and say to him, "Cornelius." And he stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa and bring one Simon who is called Peter. He is lodging with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea." When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among those who attended him, and having related everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. Acts 10:1-8

The communists are a formidable enemy and they dominate two-thirds of the world. Without thinking twice they will execute anyone, anytime. Because many people are afraid of the communists' lack of mercy, they won't say anything against them. But I'm not afraid and I stand up and declare the truth. Even if the United States becomes helpless in dealing with the communists, if the State Department gives up and the CIA loses hope, I will not give up. Even though everyone else retreats, I will spring forward, fighting in the front line and declaring that communism is the enemy of God. Dear

In Sunday's service, Hyung Jin Nim spoke about Wim Hof, the "Ice Man" who climbed Mt. Everest in shorts, swam hundreds of meters under a glacier, stayed in ice water for over 2 hours, overcame the effects of e coli endotoxin injected into his blood and trained 12 others to do the same, with monitoring by scientists. The human body has much more capacity than we realize, stimulated by exposure to cold and deep breathing, which causes the amygdala to release more adrenalin than a first time bungee jumper plus natural opioids. He claims to cure bipolar and auto-immune illnesses like Crohn's disease after 4 days of breath training.

Inside the Superhuman World of the Iceman

Last week Hyung Jin Nim was feeling sick before the service, and he was thinking to end the service early, but Heavenly Father had a different idea. The service ended 4.5 hours later with fervent prayer and healing. He felt healed himself. The chills and fever were gone. He tried to take a nap afterwards, but had so much Holy Spirit energy that he couldn't sleep until 1am!

He has started to run out into the cold and to take cold showers. Cold is our training partner. Its proper use can lead to controlling adrenalin and opioid levels. He led the congregation in three 30 deep breath/holding breath cycles followed by prayer and healing of those requesting prayer.

One Who Courageously Accepts Responsibility

by Janelyn Breslin

I went to the Baptist church today and heard a very good sermon. There is an effort and movement within many Evangelical churches to "restore" men in this culture back to people of virtue, honor, character, and responsibility. He started off by saying that he is not going to bash men which men have been experiencing in many places. Instead, he referenced scripture to understand "who" or "what" men need to shoot for.

He said there is a difference between "men" and "boys". He advised single women not to marry a boy - he will destroy your life. He asked women when they see a man acting as a man to encourage him. The male domination of women has been a personal moral failure of many men, yet they are called by God for spiritual "headship". Without a man being a spiritual head, there is chaos. So what does "manhood" and "spiritual head" mean?

The definition of manhood he gave was: "One who courageously accepts responsibility." A "man" accepts responsibility; a boy will blame someone else. One of the most painful things that happened in the Fall was afterwards when Adam stated - "The woman thou gavest to be with me" - here Adam is blaming God even before he blames Eve. According to scripture, men have three basic responsibilities:

One Who Courageously Accepts Responsibility

by Janelyn Breslin

I went to the Baptist church today and heard a very good sermon. There is an effort and movement within many Evangelical churches to "restore" men in this culture back to people of virtue, honor, character, and responsibility. He started off by saying that he is not going to bash men which men have been experiencing in many places. Instead, he referenced scripture to understand "who" or "what" men need to shoot for.

He said there is a difference between "men" and "boys". He advised single women not to marry a boy - he will destroy your life. He asked women when they see a man acting as a man to encourage him. The male domination of women has been a personal moral failure of many men, yet they are called by God for spiritual "headship". Without a man being a spiritual head, there is chaos. So what does "manhood" and "spiritual head" mean?

The definition of manhood he gave was: "One who courageously accepts responsibility." A "man" accepts responsibility; a boy will blame someone else. One of the most painful things that happened in the Fall was afterwards when Adam stated - "The woman thou gavest to be with me" - here Adam is blaming God even before he blames Eve. According to scripture, men have three basic responsibilities:

- 1) There is a Will to obey. He cited the example of Jesus who obeyed the Will of God - "Not as I will, but as thou wilt. Thy will be done." A "man" accepts God's Will over his own personal desires. One cannot know the Will of God unless one knows the Word of God. I think Hyung Jin also "obeyed" when he accepted and acted on the Responsibility of being crowned as Father's successor. I admire his total investment in his effort to fulfill True Father's anointment.
- 2) There is a Work to do. One work - for both men and women - is "image bearing". We were created to bear the image of God in our attitudes, actions, and relationships with others. "Man is the image bearer; Boys are glory thieves." Men need to find their purpose and invest their lives in what will outlive them. Boys spend their lives. Men work; boys are lazy.
- 3) There is a woman to love and care for. Men serve and protect the woman in their lives. Boys use women for their own pleasure and comfort. A man gets up and keeps fighting; a boy quits.

I really liked his clarity. This church goes into prisons and work - especially with young men in prison - to help them become "Men of Valor". I find this whole effort inspirational in contrast to the "Man bashing" that is currently a cultural trend. Too many boys without fathers or fathers without faith or character. It is a vicious cycle unless it is stopped by one generation. This church is being pro-active in countering the evil effects of broken families, Marxism/feminism, etc.

It's natural to sometimes feel isolated, but it's important to remember that there are many people of good will who are working to establish the same world of self-reliant men and women honoring God's words and ideals that we are seeking. How to connect and support each other's efforts to fulfill God's will is something to think about.
