

SATANISM AND RITUAL CHILD SEX ABUSE

by Marie Koh

Former FBI Senior Special Agent-In Charge Ted Gunderson warned about the growing influence of satanic related crimes in America through The Gunderson Report, a 25 year research into unresolved cases involving horrific satanic child rituals.

A declassified FBI file released last year reveals the Mc Martin case and the Finders case that have been kept secret from public view since the 1970's and 1980's. These reports expose the criminality of satanic cults, ritual child sex abuse, human sacrifice, human trafficking, child pornography, and mind-control psyops experimented on children. But as horrific as these crimes are, the most damning ones, are those being committed through our own justice system, by our Central Intelligence Agencies, the FBI, other intelligence companies and their connections with people of power in government, the Justice Department, the immigration system, the Military Industrial Complex, the education system, in medical science, the elite class, terrorist organizations, socialist and communist agendas foreign and domestic. There is an active criminal enterprise embedded within our governmental apparatus that is far-reaching and ongoing in America today and around the world.

The Original Investigation of the Finders Group:

The search for the Finders Group began when six unkept and bug bitten children aged 2 to 7, were found in a Tallahassee park, Florida on February 4, 1987 accompanied by 2 well dressed men driving a Dodge blue van. The inside was said to be “foul smelling” and littered with maps, books, documents, a U.S. Passport and a mattress making it appear lived in. The two men were arrested by Tallahassee police officers when they could not identify the children's names or who their parents were. They were later charged for child abuse after “more than one showed evidence of sexual abuse” a doctor said.

The Tallahassee Police Department (TPD) had reason to believe that the two men were involved in child pornography and sought assistance from the local Customs Office to conduct a search through their child pornography data base. The results were negative. A US Customs agent advised TPD that documents, computer disks and the U.S. Passport seized from the blue van contained two identifiable Washington DC addresses.

Before long, the TPD, the Washington Metropolitan Police Department (WMPD) and the MPD Intelligence Division conducted a joint investigation to locate the two Washington DC addresses, the children's identity and their parents. One address found was an apartment duplex in Grover Park, NE of DC where they believed the children were living, the other was a warehouse located at 1307 4th Street, NE, Washington DC. A third location was later investigated at a farm in Madison County, Virginia where evidence of satanic rituals were discovered as well as cages reported to be used for children who visited the farm.

A previous investigation conducted in December 1986 by Detective Bradley from the WMPD sparked interest when the two Washington DC addresses indicated by the TPD matched his investigation involving a cult named the Finders. An informant had tipped him off regarding the Finders which consisted of 40 members who were running businesses from a warehouse at 1307 4th Street, NE of DC, and whose children were living at apartment 3918-20 West Street, NW of DC. The informant said the group was involved in "brainwashing" children, blood rituals, sexual orgies with children and murder. The detective was also able to match the names of some of the children from TPD with some of the children in the custody of the Finders in Washington. But because the informant had not witnessed these events, his testimony could not be used as evidence. The information provided by the informant however, was enough to obtain search warrants for the two DC locations.

Page 58 - While under investigation, a member of the Finder's group tells the investigators that their organization became active in 1972 with the idea of responding to people in emergencies. The members claimed they were an association of intellectuals who had chosen to live an alternate communal life, who gathered information for people or companies, and that the mothers had all agreed for the two men to drive their children to Florida. They all stated that no one from their group engaged in sex with the children, performed satanic rituals, and that they were not a cult. The adults present admitted that they were the children's parents and agreed to be polygraphed.

In an initial interview with TPD, the two men had said that they were teachers from Washington DC on route to a school for brilliant children in Mexico, but due to the children's poor condition, they were charged for child abuse and jailed in Leon County, Florida. Both men were later found to be connected to the Finders.

The Warrant at 3918/20 W Street, NW, Washington DC:

Search warrants were obtained for each property believed to belong to the Finders on February 5 to 6, 1987, where Ramos J. Martinez United States Customs Service officer (USCS) claimed to have seen "large quantities of children's clothing and toys. The clothing consisted of diapers and clothes in the toddler to preschool range. No children were found on the premises. There were several subjects on the premises, only one was deemed to be connected with the Finders. The rest were renting living space from this individual... a substantial amount of computer equipment and documents purportedly containing instructions for obtaining children for unspecified purposes. The instructions included the impregnation of female members of the community, purchasing of children, trading children and kidnapping them. There were telex messages using HCI account numbers between a computer terminal believed to be located in the same room, and others located across the country and in other foreign locations. One such telex specifically ordered the purchase of two children in Hong Kong to be arranged through a contact in the Chinese Embassy. Another telex expressed an interest in "bank secrecy situations, other documents identified interests in high-tech transfers to the United Kingdom, numerous properties under the control of the Finders, a keen interest in terrorism, explosives, and the evasion of law enforcement. Also found in the computer room was a detailed summary of the events surrounding the arrest and taking into custody the two adults and six children in Tallahassee, Florida on the previous night. There were also a set of instructions which appeared to be broadcast via a computer network which advised participants to move 'the children' and keep them moving through different jurisdictions, and instructions on how to avoid police attention."

He goes on to say, "The resident was identified as a Chinese National. Due to the telex discovered referencing the Chinese Embassy in Hong Kong... he was a graduate student in the Anatomy Department of Georgetown University."

The TPD had informed the press while the search warrants were still pending for the two properties, therefore newspaper clippings on the Finders story can be found in the FBI file or online.

On Friday February 6, 1987 USCS Special Agent Ramon J. Martinez met Detective Bradley at the warehouse on 4th Street, N.E. who said, he was “able to observe numerous documents which described explicit sexual conduct between the members of the community known as Finders. I also saw a large collection of photographs of unidentified persons. Some of the photographs were nudes, believed to be of members of the Finders. There were numerous photos of children, some nude, at least one of which was a photo of a child on display and appearing to accent the child’s genitals. I was only able to examine a very small amount of the photos at this time. However, one of the officers presented me with a photo album for my review. The album contained a series of photos of adults and children dressed in white sheets participating in a ‘blood ritual’. The ritual centered around the execution of at least two goats.

The photos portrayed the execution, disembowelment, skinning and dismemberment of the goats at the hands of the children, this included the removal of the testes of a male goat, the discovery of a female goat's ‘womb’ and the ‘baby goats’ inside the womb, and the presentation of a goat's head to one of the children.

Further inspection of the premises disclosed numerous files relating to activities of the organization in different parts of the world. Locations I observed are as follows: London, Germany, the Bahamas, Japan, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Africa, Costa Rica, and ‘Europe’. There was also a file identified as ‘Palestinian.’ Other files were identified by member name or ‘project’ name. The projects appear to be operated for commercial purposes under front names for the Finders. There was one file entitled ‘Pentagon Break-In’, and others which referred to members operating in foreign countries... observed by me but related by an HPD officer, were intelligence files on private families not related to the Finders. The process undertaken appears to have been a systematic response to local newspaper advertisements for babysitters, tutors, etc. A member of the Finders would respond and gather as much information as possible about the habits, identity, occupation, etc., of the family. The use to which this information was to be put is still unknown. There was also a large amount of data collected on various child care organizations.

The warehouse contained a large library, two kitchens, a sauna, hot-tub, and a 'video room'. The video room seemed to be set up as an indoctrination center. It also appeared that the organization had the capability to produce its own videos. There were what appeared to be training areas for children and what appeared to be an altar set up in a residential area of the warehouse. Many jars of urine and feces were located in this area.... both locations had satellite dish antennas.”

After the search, SA RJ. Martinez was assured by authorities that he would have access to the evidence through Customs to pursue any investigation necessary, but only after MPD was done sorting out the evidence.

On March 31 , 1987, SA RJ. Martinez was supposed to meet with Detective Bradley of the WMPD but he was not there. The Agent spoke to a third party who told him that the evidence had been handed over to the State Department who said that the passports seized and trips made to Moscow, North Korea and North Vietnam from the 1950's to 1970's were all within the law. In other words, no federal law had been broken.

And this is where the case investigation really ends because the Finders case becomes a CIA internal matter, classified 'secret', not available for review. He was told that the FBI had dropped the case, and that the FBI's Foreign Counterintelligence Division were handling it. They advised the MPD not to discuss what had transpired with the FBI Washington field office.

No further information was made available. No further action was to be taken on the basis of the report, the FBI file says.

On February 18,1987, the United States Attorney's Office declined prosecution for the violation of USC Title 18. Section 1201 (kidnapping) and 2251 (sexual exploitation of children).

Apparently, there was not enough evidence proving that the children were kidnapped or sexually abused by the group, and according to the FBI, “No federal law was broken.”

Second Investigation requested by the Justice Department in 1993:

Questions concerning whether or not the Finders probe had been properly handled after it was closed in 1987 continued to plague Washington DC. There were unresolved allegations concerning the CIA's connection with the Group.

The TPD had expressed their disapproval about the handling of the case by DC police. “They dropped this case like a hot rock,” one investigator said. DC police were silent about it, and the fact that the case had become a CIA ‘internal matter’ only raised more questions as to what the CIA had to do with the Finders. CIA officials passed the allegation off as “hogwash.”

Yet, the FBI file does confirm that the CIA used a firm called Future Enterprises to provide their agents with computer training. The firm was owned by the Finders.

Democratic Rep. Charlie Rose of North Carolina, chairman of the House Administration Committee, and Republican Rep. Tom Lewis from Florida wanted to know if there was any truth to these allegations involving the CIA and other intelligence agencies influencing the outcome of the original investigation, so a new probe was instigated based on USCS R J. Martinez’s report at the Justice Department.

Rep. Tom Lewis said, “Could our own government have something to do with this Finders organization and turned their backs on these children? That’s what all the evidence points to. And there’s a lot of evidence. I can tell you this: We’ve got a lot of people scrambling, and that wouldn’t be happening if there was nothing here.”

Page 39 of the FBI file reveals the identity of a woman named Isabelle Pettie, she was the wife of Marion Pettie, the leader of the Finders Group. She was employed by the CIA between 1950 and 1971. A Special Agent (SA) was asked whether the investigation was “treading on anyone’s toes out there” he replied, “Sort of.” He went on to say that the CIA had someone monitoring the case since it broke out in the news media back in 1987, and that the agency knew about the Finders or a member of the Finders that frequently traveled to Moscow, North Korea, and North Vietnam during war time. In addition to that, one of Pettie’s sons worked for the CIA through a proprietary firm called Air America.

The CIA knew who Marion Pettie was, that he ran the Finders Group, and that he or someone from the group was authorized to travel back and forth to restricted countries like North Korea.

Pettie denied all allegations made against him and his organization, he told U. S. News, “The group has never been connected to the CIA...The group numbers some 20 members; they do freelance journalism, research and ‘competitor intelligence’ for a variety of mostly foreign clients...we do not work for foreign governments.”

In an interview with a journalist, Pettie made an interesting comment where he saw himself as a “political powerhouse.”<sup>1</sup> A rather big statement to make for someone who claimed he doesn’t “do anything.”

Furthermore, Pettie told Steamshovel Press in 1998, that back in the 1950’s he ‘kept open house’ mainly to intelligence and counterintelligence people in Washington. OSS people passing through, things like that.”<sup>2</sup>

Pettie’s casual affair with intelligence communities certainly gave him ‘open house’ to a wide variety of intellectuals ranging from high ranking military officials, to former CIA chiefs, to ‘decentralists’ movement organizers believed to be a front for a One World Government ideology; computer technology developers and New Age occult enthusiasts, to name a few.

“Overall, we’re a zero security threat.” Said Pettie.

Investigator Ted Gunderson thought otherwise. In a handwritten note to the Treasury Department he stated: “The Finders are a CIA front established in the 1960s. It has TOP CLEARANCE and PROTECTION in its ASSIGNED task of kidnapping and torture-programming young children throughout the U.S. Members are specially trained GOVERNMENT KIDNAPPERS known to be sexual degenerates who involve children in Satanic sex orgies and bloody rituals as well as murders of other children and slaughter of animals.”

The file in its entirety reveals an alarming amount of cover ups, of tampering with evidence, loss of materials, mismanagement, destruction of evidence by one or more departments. See page 40 of the FBI file for more details.

Page 48 and 49 show the mishandling of the St Martin School case. How officials downplayed the crimes committed against children and family members. Again, enormous amount of evidence of child abuse and ritual sacrifices on the grounds and yet, the investigation was quickly shut down.

32 years later, these cases remain unresolved; justice never came for these abused or murdered children. In fact, according to the file, the perpetrators walked free once the cases were dismissed by the courts.

So who are we to believe? Well, ‘the proof is in the pudding’. The children’s testimonies count as evidence. The core investigation produced by officers on the ground count as evidence. The FBI file speaks for itself, and all we need to do is open our eyes to see it.

When we look at human sex trafficking, human slavery, drug and weapons trafficking the statistics today are off the charts. There is more slavery in the world today, than in any other time in world history. It is truly unprecedented. Check out the State Department website — The Trafficking In Persons Report 2019 on human trafficking and modern slavery.

The fact that the child sex trade generates $150 billion dollars in revenue per year proves that these crimes against humanity are not only ongoing, but they are being ‘allowed’ to operate in plain sight all over America and across borders. Why is it that so many governments aren’t willing to deal with this issue?

Ted Gunderson explained in his video presentation viewable online, that 83 children went missing per hour in America, that’s over 700,000 children going missing per year during the late 1970’s and 1980’s. Another estimate showed that 2,500 children were kidnapped and murdered in this country every year.<sup>3</sup>

He further stated that up until the late 1990’s, there were about 4 million practicing satanists in the U.S. and about 50-60 thousand human sacrifices occurring on American soil every year. How did these heinous crimes go undetected? Unresolved?

Officials in positions of power are responsible for the safety of the people they are supposed to serve in their communities. Had those officials done the right thing in bringing justice to these missing and abused children back in 1987, America would not be facing judgement today; and it is judgment of a spiritual kind. Today, over 800,000 children disappear every year, that’s one child going missing every 40 seconds in the United States. And a staggering 8 million children go missing globally each year.<sup>4</sup> In most cases, they are either found murdered or not found at all. These numbers do not include abortion rates which is a whole entire article on its own.

History has shown us that government is never the answer to humanity's problems. The government is made up of elected officials who exist for the sole purpose of serving the people of their country. In America, it's not the people that serve government officials. The Constitution of the United States of America tells us, "In God We Trust" which means, government is not our parent, it is not our God, we the people do not worship government; we worship God the Father, the Creator of heaven and earth who bestowed His trust upon us, his children so that we may live free one nation under God.

America was founded upon valuable Christian principles. The Bible teaches us to love God, love your neighbor; to treat others as you yourself want to be treated. These words exist for the happiness of mankind, they are unchanging and everlasting, the true justice of a loving and compassionate Father. His laws do not burden the soul, but instead, liberates it from sin. To believe in God is to understand that we are not God, and that children are a gift from Him; we therefore, do not bear the right to terminate a life for our own selfish end.

In conclusion, I believe that America stands at a threshold; and it is up to us the people to decide the fate of our nation, to decide what kind of world we want our children to grow up in. This is not the time to stand down and feel defeated in the face of evil; but rather, to stand before our flag in honor of those who came before us, who gave their all so that others may live free. The power lies in the will of the people of the United States of America who are the descendants of the greatest bravest fiercest heroes to have ever walked the face of the earth; history never forgets its fighters, its givers, its responders in times of injustice and crisis. I believe we can make history great once more.

Let us never tire to do what is right. Let us stand for the innocent, the defenseless and the weak among us. Let us stand with Vets4childrescue today to expose and terminate the hidden hand of darkness that stalks our world with terror and subversiveness . Let us stand together and make America just and great again.
