Slow To ANGER, Great In POWER

Aug 21, 2022- TN

Thank you, King Kyle! God bless you, everybody in PA holding it down there! The Rod of Iron Freedom Festival is coming up real fast. Thank you, brother, for that beautiful testimony. That was amazing and thank God your wife is recuperating. Let's give it up one more time for God! God is great! Hallelujah! Praise Him! Thank you for all your prayers. It was all the prayers and God's love; we are so grateful.

Some things happened this week that I'm sure everybody is familiar with: The crazy far Left democratic DNC propaganda magazine Rolling Stone had a big article on us.

<https://www.rollingstone.com/politics/politics-features/rod-of-iron-ministry-jan-6-sean-moon-moonie-1398447/>

People always ask, "Well, how does it feel to be in Rolling Stone magazine?" I answer, "It really feels like nothing. It really does." They did a 10-page article on us; it was a huge article. We didn't know it but this Rolling Stone they have like 60 million views per month. In Korea and Japan, hardly anybody knows Rolling Stone magazine but I think everybody in America has heard of it. That would be a fair statement, right?

Teddy Daniels has his own show "In the Trenches with Teddy Daniels," on the Stew Peters Network on Rumble with 430 000 followers. He's a purple heart recipient combat vet, and a great friend of ours, from PA. I'm going to be on the show on Monday. He covered the whole article on his show this past week, so we're going to see a little clip of that.

Also look at the wonderful poster that some lady named Christine Wike or something is posting around! Look at the WARNING poster! If you look real closely, it reads

"Building spiritual retreat in Thorn Hill."* By the way, if somebody knows where that knife is, give it back to me okay; I can't find that hōchō. That's a beautiful knife CRKT by James Williams. I actually really like that knife, 16th century blade style.

"Claims to be King of Kings."* When have I claimed to be King of Kings?

"Obsessed with the worship of guns."*

"Believes Jesus Christ was a failure."* When was Jesus a failure? We believe in the failure of the people to accept Christ as King. So, it's literally the opposite. And of course

"Close ties with North Korea."* Okay our whole lineage has been genocided in North Korea. I guess you would call that "close ties." We've been all killed.

To this lady who's doing that, if she is a Christian, then "don't bear fall witness and literally lie about what we believe."

So, it's pretty crazy, it's pretty nuts but God uses it. This is an age where people can see what we say for themselves. We put everything up online, we hide nothing so you can see what we believe; you can see what we say. In the age where the internet is accessible to people, the more the haters do this, then actually the more people look into it for themselves; they can see with their own eyes.

That being said, let's go to "In the Trenches with Teddy" and see this wonderful fun hilarious clip with Teddy Daniels on his show this past week. I'll be on the show Monday, and we'll get you the details.

The book of Nahum- some context

All right folks, if you brought your Bibles, let's go to the Book of Nahum. Nahum, we know was one of the minor prophets, and he wrote a very powerful work. Just to give you some context: the book of Nahum is written as the Assyrian Empire has become one of the first world empires. The Assyrian empire brought very devilish tactics to the world stage of warfare. They would fillet their opponents; they would skin them alive and then hang them up on stakes all around their castles. This was a type of brutality and viciousness that the world had not seen on such massive scale. It became one of the biggest empires and eventually was overthrown by Babylon.

That's when the prophet Nahum lives, in that transitional period when Assyria has gotten big; Assyria has become the empire of the world and it has destroyed and conquered Israel. It's taken over the Northern Kingdom and it's now coming after the Southern Kingdom; it has enslaved many of the people of God. The Assyrian Kingdom being pagan have pantheons of gods and have placed their gods everywhere. This is after Jonah by the way; Nineveh is the capital of the Assyrian empire and this is after Jonah and the destruction of Nineveh.

The Israelites have forgotten about God. After many generations they've fallen into the Assyrian kingdom culture; they've fallen into the secular Hollywood of Assyria, the secular things of the land etc. They've bought into the deities and the gods and of course they're now in the culture of Assyria which is again not only genociding other countries etc., but they have some of the same common themes that we see in all political Satanist systems. Satan's power being from what? Killing babies! Killing babies, destroying marriages, sex-trafficking children! These kinds of things are pillars of Satan's kingdoms, and it's unbelievable that in the modern day the Left is pushing for that. My goodness!

I was on a date training with the Queen in a Thai restaurant in Knoxville, and a lady walked into the restaurant with a shirt. It was like all lightning letters; it said, "Pro-choice" and I guess her lesbian partner had blue hair and on the back of the shirt it said, "Long live Roe v Wade!" I said, "Oh Lord! Have mercy! Oh Lord! Do I want to make a ruckus in the middle of this Thai restaurant while everybody's having curry? Do I have to get up and make a video about this lady?"

No, no! Of course, she was just exercising her free speech, but her desire and her will was not doing so well because thank God, God has taken down the demonic Roe v Wade! Hallelujah! Praise God! Now, the United States cannot just mass murder children; that power goes back to the states and states can decide. So, there will be states that will safeguard children and protect them, and there will be evil states that are led by political Satanists that will of course continue to try to kill the babies, because Satan's power is always after the innocents. That's why the Divine Principle is so powerful because it shows it clearly.

The Fall of Man & its consequences: pedophilia, child trafficking

We were talking with folks in Morristown this past week and sharing with them how powerful the Fall of Man is. When you understand Chapter 2 of the Divine Principle you understand, "Wow! Satan's power comes from sexual sin!" That's where his power comes from; it comes from sexual sin. Then look: all the demonic groups, all the groups that are from socialism, communism, political Satanism, what do they use as their weapon? They use sex as a weapon. To ensnare you, to blackmail you, they send prostitutes; they get you on film, etc. This is how the real world works and it's very demonic. That's why young people have to safeguard themselves; they have to be aware of the predators and the wolves that exist.

Once you understand the Fall of Man, my gosh, now on the mass scale people can see, "Whoa! These people are really pedophiles; these people are actually after our children!" They're not just after controlling their mind; they're actually AFTER them; AFTER them. This is coming from the Kinsey Report that was popularized in the 1960s. Kinsey was a student of Freud; Freud with the Oedipus complex where he basically made justifications for child molestation. He said that his patients who were molested by people that were above them when they were younger, they actually fantasized and desired that. That was the whole Oedipus complex that totally discredited Freud as a psychologist by the way, but that led to the whole idea of the Kinsey Report. Kinsey tried to draw the conclusion and tried to falsify all the data. He was an actual pedophile.

The Kinsey Report was an "academic" attempt to show that children were sexual from BIRTH. He had all these statistical numbers about how many times little babies are having a climax or something like that per day. Are you kidding me? These people are crazy; they're ABSOLUTELY crazy! Do you understand? This is what he was writing about, and he was making the academic scholarship by which from the 1960s on, the whole leftist apparatus in America, Hollywood, most academia, most sex therapy, all that has been based on the Kinsey pedophilia and the Kinsey child abuse papers. This man committed MASSIVE crimes against children trying to gather this kind of data. This guy was clearly, clearly, a predator and the Left has used him as the academic sort of crux for their whole idea of trying to lower the age limit and all those kinds of things that they're trying to do.

But the point is: what is the reason for them doing this? Why is there an Epstein apparatus? Why is there this massive trafficking ring? Why does Craig Sawyer who is our Navy Seal buddy and he runs Veterans for Child Rescue, <https://vets4childrescue.org/>, why does he share with the world that child trafficking in America is 30-billion-dollar business? 30-40 billion dollars! That's bigger than all sports in America combine: NFL, NHL (National Hockey League), NBA, MLB (Major League Baseball), etc. You combine all sports together, but the trafficking of children is the BIGGEST business, BIGGEST business in America today! And of course, the Texas border is wide open and they're just letting the traffickers pour in! It's absolutely ridiculous!

And not only is it big business, but of course we HAVE the evidence on Epstein, on Ghislaine Maxwell. The FBI has all the data on them; they have the lists, but apparently, they're not interested in them. No! They're interested in Melania's closet and raiding a former president. Unprecedented, like in a Third World country! Unbelievable, folks! They're more interested in writing articles about us than Hunter Biden's laptop or about the freaking 30-billion-dollar sex trafficking ring which they're protecting.

Especially with the Epstein list! They should RELEASE that list, every single person on that list INTERNATIONALLY should be exposed and brought to justice. These are crimes against humanity. They would be tried before a jury of their peers, and 100% they should receive the death penalty. It should definitely be on the table, because those people are committing crimes against humanity. But how come Rolling Stone Magazine doesn't want to cover that? How come the New York Times doesn't want to cover that? How come the Washington Post doesn't want to cover that? Are you with me, folks?

Remember with True Father and the Washington Time in the 1980s, we were the ones that even exposed the neocons, and Bush's sex trafficking ring in Washington, DC? We're the ones who exposed that. Father was not only exposing Bush, but he told him. I remember I was sitting with Father; there was Daddy Bush and we were there at the Washington Times' banquet. I remember sitting there. Father leaned over to Bush and he told him, "You are the king of Satan's world." And Bush laughed, "Ah! Reverend Moon, Hahaha! You're so funny!" I was sitting there like, "This is the president of the United States, and Father calls him the king of Satan's world!"

I can't remember whether or not that was around the time that he exposed the pedophile ring that the REPUBLICANS were running in DC. It's not only the Democrats folks, but the neocon establishment also are running this.

About Representative Madison Cawthorn out of North Carolina: I said some time ago that he was a vet but it was actually not correct. He wanted to join the military but he had a crippling accident before that, so he was not actually injured in war. He's a young man, good-looking guy but he has no legs and he's in a wheelchair. He said that when he got to Washington, he was invited to all these parties. Not only the Democrats, but the Republicans too were trying to invite him to these parties. They were literally telling him, "No, come! We have these sex parties." He said, "What?" You see this is not just hearsay about Hollywood. These are representatives that are IN IT and were invited to these demonic parties. Of course, these are purely setups; they're traps. They're called 'honey holes' by the FBI and the CIA. They're traps to get these people on film doing illegal things of sexual nature, so that they can blackmail folks; blackmail.

That's why Satan is the first pedophile, sex-trafficker, and the first groomer. He weaponized sexuality and destroyed it, whereas God created sexuality for what? For marriage! He created it for a purpose: to bind the husband and wife together and for them to become one flesh, become ONE in heart, mind, spirit and body. To be one being that can serve and adore God and become the matrix, become the framework, become the base, the foundation for healthy children. Because healthy children seeing their parents being in a loving relationship with powerful love, romance and intimacy, that gives them hope for the future of what? Marriage! It makes marriage look wonderful.

Instead of Hollywood and all the fake things that the Left pushes out! Free sex culture and all this stuff is FAKE! It's degrading, it's despicable, it's animalistic; it just degrades and destroys in its total degeneracy, and it leads to destruction. You look at the statistics on retention rates of marriage and higher rates of divorce. If you even had one sexual partner outside your spouse, your potential for divorce increases 50 %. Bam! Just by having one premarital partner!

The God of the Bible, the FIRST God that STOPS those ancient practices

That's why the Bible sees fornication- that is premarital sex- as a SIN; as a sin. Fornication is a sin. The Bible says that fornicators cannot even inherit the kingdom of God. In that list it puts in homosexuals, it put in fornicators, it put in liars, etc.; there's a whole list. Fornication is a grave sin. Keeping your purity before marriage, saving yourself for marriage is absolutely critical Christian discipline. It doesn't get you saved or anything, but it's a way to glorify and honor God with your discipline so that you are preparing for marriage in the right way; you are keeping it holy. Amen!

So, you see that cultural war brought by the Left, but that cultural war also existed in the book of Nahum, with Assyria, with Babylon. All the time the people of God were fighting this larger cultural war with these giant empires because their culture said, "No! You can't kill children! That's what God says. You can't kill babies; you cannot kill them. It doesn't matter if you're having them out of wedlock or whatever, you can't just murder your baby. That is a sin. You cannot traffic them; you cannot buy or sell them and you certainly cannot have fornication with children; that is an ABOMINABLE sin!" You understand folks?

Many scholars wrote on the early gods of antiquity comparing different epochs and different gods of different cultures, and they find that the God of the Bible is the FIRST God in antiquity that STOPS those ancient practices. Those ancient practices by the way were very normal; those ancient practices were pervasive; they were everywhere. It was like Hollywood EVERYWHERE in those ancient cultures.

Of course, they could get away with it at such a higher degree because they didn't have social media, and people could not post about what they found or what they filmed. About Bill Gates saying this, doing that, or about Jeffrey Epstein on this plane or whatever; catching somebody on film saying this or that. They didn't have this kind of apparatus in antiquity so it was much easier for them to control the narrative, control the media and of course control the government, with the government controlling the entire population.

So, in Nahum, the people of God are dealing with this.

Let's go to the book of Nahum and just remember that the context is the kingdom of Assyria; it's a powerful kingdom, one of the first empires of the world. So, what is God going to say?

Nahum 1: 1-15

Jealous & Powerful God

1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

Now if you just stop there, you see God very angry, but look at verse 3

The Lord is slow to anger

3 The LORD is slow to anger...

The Lord is what? Slow to anger. What does that mean? He has forbearance; He is forbearing. It's not like He gets angry, has an emotional tantrum and He BLOWS everybody up. I know sometimes we feel like saying, "God, just enact your judgment quickly!" because it's so painful to see the pain all over the world.

But the point is: God is slow to anger. That teaches something about the nature of God, and of course how we should be. We can still have righteous anger against evil, but we also must be slow to anger; we must have forbearance. But that doesn't mean we APPROVE of the evil, folks. Amen! Just because God is slow to anger, it doesn't mean He approves of the wickedness, of the evil which is accruing. That's what Father revealed! That God is weeping; He has suffering in His heart. He's in pain because He sees that the people keep on killing their kids, selling their kids, breaking down their family, destroying their marriage, etc. God of course feels that pain and God feels sad; that's bad. But God is slow to anger.

God is jealous

Now, there's something interesting here: 2 God is jealous.

In Hebrew, "jealous" does not mean jealous like one of the teenybopper girls being jealous about their girlfriend because of some boy or something like that. That's not the type of petty jealousy that we're talking about here.

We're talking about such jealousy: for example, if you were world champion in boxing or in MMA (Mixed Martial Arts), you earned that. You had to fight all these beasts; it's tens of thousands of hours of training in the dojo, in the gym, training, training, training, getting your face punched in, getting your head knocked off, getting your teeth punched in, getting your arm broken, getting you choked, etc. And you have climbed up that rank. You had to fight at the amateur level, and you had to beat this guy and that guy and this guy and this beast and that beast, and against this guy you thought you were going to lose because he had too many tattoos and too many muscles but you BEAT him! Somehow you caught him and you beat him.

Now, you're moving up to the pro level and now you're going to start with the minor pros and you got to whoop them. You got to fight them and maybe you lose one; you get up again, you have to fight the next battle and you win that. And you work your way up. Then you get into UFC (Ultimate Fighting Championship) okay, so you got into the minor MMA leagues and now you got into the UFC, and you're like, "Wow! I made it to the top!" No! You're on the bottom of UFC; you are one of the underlings of UFC. All the empty-hand murderers, all the assassins, all the empty-hand killers are in this organization. 1.FC is also a great organization out of Asia; Garry Tonon, one of my professors fights in there as well.

Unbelievable! You are fighting your way up these ranks, up these ranks, up these ranks, up these ranks, up these ranks, okay and now you made UFC and now you've got to fight the most dangerous empty-hand killers and they're just total beasts. Before Father passed, I trained with UFC guys when I was preparing for my MMA stuff in Korea; those guys are beasts, beasts. One of my very good coaches, he's a beast; he's a Korean hulk, he's a beast. They're brutal; they are some of the toughest people you'll ever, ever meet.

So, you're fighting, fighting and now you are in the UFC, and now you have to fight, fight, fight. Now you're going to fight all the killers and let's say you're barely winning. Yet you have to fight and it is total bloodbaths, fighting in all those martial combats. An unbelievable story of you loosing and then coming back up and losing, all these kinds of things, and then let's say you finally won. You finally won; you became UFC champion! The UFC belt, that's the most coveted belt in all of MMA. So, you have won the UFC championship and you've now become the champion of the world. Your face is scarred, you probably have tons of cuts over your face, your nose is over here (behind your head) (laughing); three, four, five, six different discs on your neck have been pulled out. But you made it and you finally got to the mountain top.

That was earned, right folks? That was totally earned; that guy put in the blood to climb that mountain. But then now once you get up there, now you have some bozo who never even STEPPED in a dojo; you got some cake-eating in his mama's basement playing-video-games beta boy talking about, "You suck! You're not the real champion. I could whip you!" and all this kind of stuff. Are you kidding me? You understand how ridiculous, RIDICULOUS that would be! That boy is trying to STEAL what that man EARNED. He's trying to steal something that that man had to shed his BLOOD for! Are you with me folks? That man EARNED that by beating all those beasts! He EARNED that thing and yet that little computer troll wants to tell him how to do stuff, "Well, you should punch like this and you should do this and that. You look like a joke when you were trying to strangulate that opponent. I'll teach you." Are you kidding me? Are you kidding me, folks?

Do you see how ridiculous that is? That is so absurd! Now, imagine you're doing that to a UFC champion! That is quite absurd. Because those people are tested in the art of martial combat, they're at the HIGHEST level in the world, and some guy who's never trained is not going to do ANYTHING to them, literally will do nothing to them. So, it'll be ridiculous for that kind of a troll to curse the UFC champion and say, "You don't know anything; you're not the top." You see what I'm saying? How would that fighter feel? Let's say obviously he's a tough guy but how would he feel if somebody was trying to steal that from him and take that away? No! He'd be like, "What the heck are you talking about?"

THAT'S the type of jealousy we're talking about. Actually, it's a type of honesty; it's being honest. The UFC champ is not being an egotistical person when he says, "No! I'm the champ, I literally earned this. I am literally the champ. I literally beat all these beasts to get here." He's not being an egotist. Amen! He LITERALLY has that position. He's not being an egomaniac; he's stating the truth.

Now, if that beta boy playing video games all day said that HE was the UFC champ, of course not only would he have actual fighters say, "Alright, boy, come to my gym!" "God bless the internet that teach trolls the consequences! I love it when trolls are controlling a fighter and the fighter says, "Okay boy, come on to my gym, come on, and we'll see how good you get," and then they teach him a lesson. I love that! That's Justice; it's honest and it's justice.

In the same way, the Assyrians were saying this to God, "God you're nothing! You're not the Creator; you're lower than the Assyrian gods!" The Assyrians conquered the Jews so now they believed that the Jewish God was under their gods. You see how that worked? It was not only, "I conquered you," but, "I conquered your GODS!" See how that worked? That's how antiquity worked. That's why if you go to ancient places like Rome, etc., you see that they built temples on top of Babylonian temples etc., and you see that they built churches on TOP of them. It's that kind of idea in Antiquity: you conquered the people; you literally conquered their gods and their gods would become subservient to your gods. This is what the Assyrians believed; they believed that the God of the Bible was subservient to THEM! Little did they know that He's the Creator of the universe and they are the false fallen angels. Amen! Are you with me folks?

So, that's what it means when God is jealous. He is HONEST and He's saying, "These fallen angels you are worshipping them as gods? You fools! I AM the true God!" That's what God means when He says He is jealous. It's not like, "Oh my gosh, look at that dress she's wearing! I'm so jealous!" That's not what we're talking about with God's type of "jealousy." Are you with me, folks? It is an honest truth that God is saying, "No, I'm the Creator. All these fallen angels that you worship as gods you Assyrians, these are false. I AM the True God! I AM the True Creator!" He's not being egotistical; He's stating the TRUTH! Amen! He's just being HONEST! They're trying to steal that from God. So, that's what we're talking about when we're talking about "God is jealous."

God is furious

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

How Furious would that UFC fighter be if these people kept on doing that to him, and the media came out and said, "He's not really the UFC champ; it's this kid trolling him in the basement who's the UFC champ?" The guy would be FURIOUS! Can you imagine the Washington Post, the New York Times, the Rolling Stone Magazine coming after some UFC fighter saying, "You're not the true champion! It's that kid who's trolling you?" Are you kidding me? Come on! That would be ridiculous; it would be so ridiculous! To God that's how ridiculous it is that these Assyrians are claiming their gods are greater. Isn't it interesting? It's important to understand that context.

The Lord's great power & self-discipline

3 The LORD is slow to anger; and He is what? and great in power;

What does this show? It shows a God who has great POWER but has SELF-DISCIPLINE! He is a God that has SELF-DISCIPLINE! He doesn't just use His power to blow your head off and when He's upset at you, He pulls out His gun and waves it. Which is aggravated assault by the way and you go to prison for 25 years if you do that, and it's unlike God, so don't do it for obvious reasons. You understand folks? No, no, no, no! What does it show? God has great POWER, but He is forbearing; meaning what? He has great self-discipline.

How important it is for protectors, kings and priests and for the people of God to resemble this! We too must have and hold great power. That's not to be in the hands of the government of this world; that's to be in the hands of the people. So, we too as a people must have great power and that's what the Rod of Iron symbolizes.

That's why Rolling Stone is freaking out, "OH! The End Times apocalyptic Cult of Sean Moon and his Rod of Iron! Everybody gets a Rod of Iron! Oh my Gosh!" The Lefties hate that, hate that, HATE that, because when your family, your neighborhood and your children are under attack, they want you to rely on the Big Brother, on the state to come and protect you.

But we've seen that through history, under socialism, Communism, political Satanism, the state would never come. In fact, they will not come to protect you, they will come to genocide you. It is always what happens with centralized power; always! It never happens another way. And certainly, Rolling Stone Magazine will not come to protect you; certainly, the reporters at Rolling Stone or New York Times, Washington Post, they aren't coming to get in between the state and the patriots. Is that a true statement? That would be a true statement. No! Of course not; they're not coming.

Co-heirs with Christ

That's why our Founding Fathers had that as what? A human right! Not only religious freedom, not only freedom of speech and assembly and media and to address grievances, etc. but also what? The freedom to bear arms. This is a critical freedom; it's the freedom to protect yourself from unwarranted, unwanted predation, and that is a human right. That's why they hate it! The journalist actually called us and he was like, "Well, I've read the Constitution of the Kingdom of God and I have some questions about that." He was quite distraught about the Constitution of the Kingdom of God because it's not a tyranny. Oh darn! When the Lefties see the Constitution of the Kingdom of God, and it's not tyranny, they're like, "Dang on it! I thought I could weasel my way in that tyranny!" No, it's not tyranny!

So, you have What? You have freedom of religion, you have freedom of the press, you have freedom of speech, and you have freedom of what? The right for people to bear arms. Why? Because people must be the sovereign. The Bible calls us 'co-heirs'; in Romans Paul calls us, "co-heirs with Christ." What does it mean? Christ is the KING of KINGS, folks! Do you understand what it means to be a co-heir with the King of Kings? That's not a joke!

But you cannot believe that because even now in America, you have been brainwashed from a young age by the propaganda of the government education system, the indoctrination system, "No, you are a servant to the state; you must obey all the laws even though they're unconstitutional, even though they're ILLEGAL! You must be a servant to the state!" In Japan and in Korea this type of indoctrination is hard, it's super hard. That type of same Prussian school of education system that was brought in by Horace Mann and implemented around the 1970s- 80s is getting stronger and stronger as forty years have passed, and now our system of "education" of children is resembling the indoctrination systems of the East and of different totalitarian countries.

That's why in the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, the Kingdom of God Constitution, the Department of Education for example is banned; it's banned, because it's always weaponized to do propaganda and take the children and dismantle them, always, always, always! And of course, the Department of Education is pushing what? They're the ones pushing what? They're the radical LGBTQ and are currently pushing RADICAL transgenderism, RADICAL life-altering surgeries; they're pushing this stuff and making MILLIONS of dollars on it! Unbelievable, folks! Unreal! We never imagined we would see this! And you have generations of young people believing it; four years old "I could come and change my gender," and the "lesbian moms" -that's not moms - are forcing them to do it. Are you kidding me? We are way off the deep end, like Sodom and Gomorrah folks; way off the deep end.

They can't even say what a man or woman is anymore. Are you kidding me? That's why they say that math is racist and that two plus two does not equal four; "it can equal five or it can equal six" depending on your interpretation. (Laughing)

Have fun trying that with gravity or have fun trying that out at an MMA dojo, okay? This is one of the great things of training in these martial arts: it gets these young people out of these delusions. Because it's like, "No! You don't get to decide what reality is." There's a certain reality and that reality is that if you believe you're a superman and you come into an actual fighting dojo you will get whooped; you'll get whopped, whooped, whooped, whooped! I don't care if you watch Naruto ten times and memorize all the stupid spells in Harry Potter, none of it is going to work. It's just so unbelievable!

But look how far our culture has degraded off of reality! This is what God is saying. He's saying, "You people are crazy! What is the reality? I'm the Creator. I created this universe and you people are mucking it up, and then these stupid fallen angels who betrayed me, you're putting them as gods! Are you kidding me? That's ridiculous! As God, I could whack your heads off right now, but I'm slow to anger so I've been patient. I've been pleading with you to turn back and REPENT and come back. But

You just won't listen!

You keep a hardened heart.

You just KEEP playing with those demons,

You just KEEP KILLING the babies,

You just KEEP having the orgies, and

You KEEP going to stupid sex cults.

I'm telling you it's going to KILL you and destroy you like it KILLED and destroyed your parents and your grandparents!"

You understand how frustrating that is? That's why God says He's furious. Wouldn't you be furious? It would be infuriating to see that happening.

Let's go to verse 3 one more time:

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: The LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

What does that mean? All the injustice, God will not forget; they will be judged at some point.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

The Good Judge

He has great power! But what does verse 7 say? 7 The LORD is good,
And what did verse 3 say? 3 The LORD is slow to anger

He's slow to anger, and He's good. He doesn't just do that in an emotional tirade but there's a line. If you keep killing the children, if your culture keeps murdering the babies and trafficking the babies, and moms are thinking it's okay for them to sell their children into prostitution; if you keep DOING that and you don't heed God's warning, what's going to happen? That FIRE is going to pour out at some point; judgment is going to come. Judgment is going to come. But even though judgment comes, God is what? He is good. He's like the good judge. What does the good judge do, folks? The good judge PUNISHES the criminal. Right? Isn't that true? The good judge PUTS the rapists in prison or gives them the death penalty.

Rape is a terrible demonic crime, but the baby is not the rapist. Are you with me folks? The baby is not the rapist. That rapist should get the death penalty. Amen! That rapist should get the death penalty; he committed a horrendous demonic satanic crime. He raped that woman and my God! Now she has a baby. But the baby is not the rapist; you can't confuse that.

We want all the women to be what? To be Rod of Iron queens, to be prepared; to be Peace Police Peace Militia women. Everybody training from a young age and capable to defend themselves, so that woman can stop the rapist at ground zero if she has to. But let's say worst case scenario he disarms her, well still that baby if it was formed in rape, that baby is not the rapist. That MAN should get the HARDEST punishment; he should get the death penalty. He should get a TERRIBLE punishment; he should get justice.

But we've seen people born of that terrible situation and yet become a voice for what? Even for Christ! Like that sister Juda Meyers that we had on the King's Report. She was conceived in rape, and she now runs an organization that tries to help people conceived in rape to find Christ.
<https://choices4life.org/> Praise God! I mean my God who can reach those people? You know what I'm saying? She's from that so she knows their heart.

So, what is a GOOD judge? This is the problem with those Lefties; they say, "Oh, you're not supposed to judge anything. Do not judge lest you be judged." They quote that scripture, but the Bible tells us to "Judge righteously." It actually refers to Christ as the righteous judge, so give me a break! They try to relativize it so you can't judge anything, "Whatever we do you can't judge it." This is the Lefty thing. No! But what happens in the communities where these kids are able to romper room through businesses and rob these businesses, and they get off the hook? What happens in these Democrat cities? What's happening in California, in New York? You see these mob robberies happening in the jewelry stores. This is CRAZY! These youngins are running around and they're stealing everything; they think it's fun, they think it's a joke. Many times, the business owners are immigrants and their lives are RUINED; their savings are all destroyed! And what does the judge do? Oh! The judge lets them off the hook!

It's kind like in France! Oh my Gosh! One of our young kings out there in France sent me this video

<https://www.msn.com/en-in/news/world/watch-go-karting-at-french-jail-sparks-political-conflict/ar-AA10Z4cT>

It's incredible! This is a prison in France where they have Mario Kart! A French man sent me this! He's a blessed child, he's a young king out there in France holding it down. This is PRISON, folks, in France! This is for the prisoners who murdered and raped white ladies or whatever. Literally they're raping these white women in Europe, then the judge gives them no prison, and in the case that they are sent to prison they're playing Mario Kart! Are you kidding me? And then they celebrate some Islamic holiday in the prison! How can this maximum-security person be living in that prison on taxpayer money where they're getting cakes and have all the little foodstuffs they want to eat? Are you kidding me folks? Meanwhile the normal French people they're crying because their little Sarah has been murdered. Are you with me folks? How is this justice?

This is why it's very important to understand that a good judge punishes EVIL! If you don't punish evil, look at what they're doing. They're running over the population in France, and in these Lefty areas in California and New York, people are running hog-wild robbing convenience stores and this and that business to steal stuff. Stealing and that kind of thing it's a sin, and the judges are doing what? The judge is not even punishing them, so is that a good judge? No! That's a BAD judge! Bad! A good judge has to have cojones and has to judge the wicked; he has to PUNISH the wicked so the wicked are not incentivized to continue to do wicked things. You can't incentivize people to wickedness; there has to be a consequence that's very painful for them.

It's like when a coyote or some predator, a bear or a lion, comes up to you; he doesn't care about you. He doesn't care what language you're speaking; he doesn't care. You can't be saying, "Mr. Mountain Lion, please walk away; go away now. You have a very nice face but please go away, okay." He's going to go, "Grrr!" He will bite your neck and sag on it and pull your jugular out. He doesn't care what your explanation is. If you make yourself like a bear; you make yourself bigger with your coat or you pull out your gun and you shoot him, that's all he understands. All he understands is, "Oh, I got too close! Oh, I got hit with something! Oh, I don't like that! I got to run away." That's how predators are.

What happens when these predators are preying on people and their families and their kids, and the judge is not punishing them; he's not hitting the coyotes on the head, he's not whipping the bear in the nose, he's not putting the shepherd's hook? That was actually meant to be used when a lion was coming to bite you. When the lion opened his mouth, you jabbed it right down his throat and the lion had gag reflexes, choked and it ran away. That's why there was a hook on the shepherd's hook; so, you could pull it back out. You jabbed the shepherd's hook in the lion's throat; that's what it understood.

That's what a judge has to be doing to the predators, otherwise what happens with those predators? They're going to keep coming; they're going to get the sheep. And the sheep represent what? The innocent people; the innocent of the population on the national level. Amen! Those must be protected!

Training with sheriffs

So, it's better if all the people from a young age learn to be responsible gun owners, learn to be responsible martial artists, and learn to be responsible with what? Power. That they learn to be slow to anger, not act emotionally; STILL harness and have power, but use it for good. In those kinds of societies, crime rate, break-ins, home invasions, all go down.

Just like in Kennesaw, Georgia! In that town they implemented that everybody had to have a rifle in their house. That's what a sheriff should be able to do, to mandate that every house must have an AR-15, and that they come to the sheriff's office for free training. How wonderful that would be! The sheriff should actually be doing that; they should be doing that all across the country. They should be having free NRA classes, GOA classes at the sheriff's department. They should be teaching people about gun rights and letting them come for training. They should have a shooting range in the yard out back where folks from the local area would come and shoot with the cops. Then it would really become a brotherhood.

Not only would that help the cops, the law enforcement and the sheriff's agency in relationship with the local people, but it would show that they're not their enemy; they're there standing with them, and they want them to be trained. They know the people are the first line of defense; many times in the rural areas you got 30-minute call times etc. How wonderful would that be if sheriffs nationwide had pistol classes from NRA, and if they had former combat vets come in and teach how to use a rifle, how to clear corners and how to move through a house, how to do CQC (close quarters combat)! How wonderful an asset that would be to people! What an amazing service that would be!

And they could do it totally for free. The people would bring their own ammo, the people would bring their own rifles; it would cost nothing. It would just cost what? It would just cost them seeing the people not as servants but seeing them as, "They're the people; they're the masters. We're the public servants; they're our masters. Let's help them become better sovereign people! Let's help them defend their private property better! Let's help them defend their housing development! Let's help them identify the law!" For example, to not pull out your weapon and threaten people with it; that would be aggravated assault- stuff like that. Just give people that information. Those are all great things.

How wonderful would it be for every church after service to do some training with the people, arm the queens, arm the women. Why? Because the predators are after the women the most, so allow those sisters to become strong in Christ and also strong shepherdesses. Even women in the body of Christ are called to be like Christ who is a Shepherd, so you're also called to be a lioness and a shepherdess. That doesn't mean you try to dominate your husband and try to whoop him and try to be a woman feminazi or something like that! No! But it means that you're called to be a strong Peace Police and Peace Militia woman. Amen! Praise the Lord!

God is going to bless the land where you have people that are responsible, who understand forbearance, who understand that you don't just act on your emotion. You have power, but you have the forbearance, you have the self-discipline, you have the ability to use it in the last resort if the predator is pushing too hard. But you never use it to threaten, to bully; you never use that power to exert yourself or your belief etc., upon others. No! You're a PEACEFUL, PEACEFUL gun owner.

King David was talking about the law-abiding gun owners, and he said, "Well, our Founding Fathers were not law-abiding gun owners!" They were not obeying the British law so they were not law-abiding gun owners! The better phraseology for gun ownership should be "peaceful gun owners." Americans, we are PEACEFUL gun owners. But if you make wacky laws as the British did and you try to ban ammos like in California, arguing that it's not part of the Second Amendment, that you can't have! So, when they try to do that kind of crazy nonsense, then you got to say, "No, no, no, no, no, no, no! Get back thee Devil!" Right? You have to say, "No, no, no, no, no!" Amen! Praise the Lord! Pass the ammo! Hallelujah! Praise God!

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble---

Why? Look at that powerful judge who enacts good; He punishes the wicked, which is hard to do. Look, I'm sure it's hard! If you're a judge you get all that pressure and everybody's like, "Oh, just please forgive him!" Everybody's trying to say that to you; I'm sure, right? All the bad people are crying out. Let's say a crime has happened and the bad people are saying, "Oh please, forgive me, I'm sorry!" This kind of stuff. And the media is all there and they're all filming the bad people crying and pleading and begging, "Please forgive him, judge!" And now you're in the situation and you're going, "Oh, okay, I got the media, I'm on TV and all these people are pleading, but I say: NO! You're going to get the death penalty!" Oh, now there's going to be a media storm about the judge, "blah, blah, blah!"

Like what happened to the Supreme Court Justices, right? They knocked Roe v. Wade; they knocked down the gun control situation saying that your Second Amendment right stops at your doorstep. They knocked those down, and look how the Left went crazy, and the media went nuts, frenzy. They were doxing Supreme Court Justices! So, you got to be brave. Clarence Thomas led the charge; a black man on the Supreme Court. He's a black man! They said, "Oh, we want the first black person on the Supreme Court." What are you talking about? Clarence Thomas is on the Supreme Court and he's black. He's just not a Lefty, that's why you say that he's not on the Supreme Court. He's a BLACK man on the Supreme Court and he just led the charges to struck down Roe v. Wade, and this unconstitutional gun control bill.

God's judgment coming

But look at what they did: they doxed them. They went to Kavanaugh's house. Antifa and blue-haired lesbians were all there shouting and screaming, ranting and hollering, "These people need to be destroyed! Kill them!" You remember? So, being a judge doesn't mean you're popular. Most people want to be popular; they don't want to be hated by people, and since they don't want to be hated by people, they do what? They BEND! They bend to how the culture wants them to be. That's where we lose our ethics, that's where we lose our morality, and in the end, that's where we lose our families, and our CHILDREN will be taken. Because we're just too simply bending to the whims of society which always leads toward what? The free-sex culture!

It starts with, "Oh, come on! It's not only for marriage; we should be dating and we should have intercourse before marriage." It always starts with that. Then it goes to the gay stuff and then it goes to transgenderism. It legalizes young kids making adult decisions, and that leads to what? Pedophilia. Once you leave marriage there's only one way that culture will go and that is towards pedophilia. There's only one way, because you can only choose God or Satan; that's it. All the sexual liberation, all the sexual freedom over generations goes to destroying the children. That's where it goes to, because that's what Satan did. He destroyed Adam and Eve; he destroyed whom? God's children. That's his modus operandi from the very beginning, folks. That's why all these organizations like Epstein, like Ghislaine Maxwell, the FBI and CIA hiding the list, shows that it's a massive earth-shattering network of the super class and super elites.

That's why we're talking about God's judgment coming. The people of God got to pray; we got to be prepared, but we got to pray. What do we have to pray for? Of course, we got to pray for God's Will to be done and His Kingdom to come. But at the same time, we're in a state of judgment in the world. We have the plagues; we have the famine.

Since last week China has been hit with a MASSIVE drought, so it's good and bad. A massive drought, the worst they've seen, which leads then to what? Shutting down the factories. Droughts lead to what? Flooding. Floods come after droughts; massive flooding. Flooding leads to what? Disease, pestilence. Pestilence leads to what? More poverty. More poverty leads to what? War! That's what it leads to. China has been hit.

Remember last week we were praying that within China God may start touching, touching, touching, with the Holy Ghost power? Remember? Last week we were talking about God just touching people, touching their heart and just boom! Because He's the God of the universe, He's the God of creation. This past week God has hit China HARD. They've been hit with drought. Why?

Intercontinental nuclear war vs. national civil wars

Because what we don't want in this present stage of warfare is intercontinental war. That's bad! This is what the globalists and the evil banking cartels and George Soros and Bill Gates are trying to push the world into. They're trying to push us into intercontinental war where the nations are fighting one another; i.e., the big ones, US, Russia and China fighting together. We have to understand that if that happens, these elite CARTELS will become stronger; they will centralize government harder just as they did in World War I and World War II. They will centralize government harder; their power will INCREASE if we go intercontinental nuclear war. Not only that, but we're going to have nuclear DEVASTATION which is the reason why they're preparing bunkers and Bill Gates has huge seed vaults in Antarctica. This is not even a joke; it's real. People think you're crazy if you know reality.

That's what they're trying to push it into! They're trying to push it into the New World Order; they're talking about "The Great Reset," as Klaus Swab declares. Oh, my Gosh! This wicked demon! These people want this intercontinental nuclear war. Why? So, America can be utterly destroyed; so, the remnant of freedom we have here may not spread to the rest of the world. Now, everybody is on lockdown across the world, everybody is becoming poorer, everybody is becoming less free and we're literally the last man standing. So, if they KILL the Christian conservative gun owner the whole world is done folks; done! It's going to be tyranny WORLDWIDE; their power will grow and increase MANIFOLD.

That's one way this war phase due to the curse of the Han mother can go.

Another way it can go is: if the HOLY GHOST starts moving and start TOUCHING people! Whoop! If the HOLY GHOST starts moving and just TOUCHING people, then from each nation from within like Sir Lanka, PEOPLE will start getting a conscience again. They'll start saying, "Wait a minute! We don't want to get into this!" and the people can start rising up in every nation and particularly in China; that's how it needs to happen.

They are on the brink of civil war in China by the way folks, if you don't know. They're in a massive real estate bubble. There's a massive financial crisis in China right now, and when you have a financial crisis you have high unemployment, etc., you have a lot of young males that are unemployed, and that's a recipe for civil war. China is on the brink of civil war. It always has had to go through expansionism to keep itself together, because it's always been atheistically trying to hold things together, but it didn't happen; they didn't have the power. So, China is on the brink of civil war. They're getting ready to take over Taiwan, but GOD this past week has hit it with massive droughts. So, as they're preparing to bomb, destroy and take over Taiwan, now they're getting hit with massive droughts, and because of the government's inadequacy and the government not being able to respond well to these crises, their power and people's trust towards the government is collapsing.

Especially after the financial crash and after they literally put tanks in front of banks. I showed you the pictures; they're putting tanks in front of banks because people are trying to pull their money out, and since it's all digital money, it's already spent by the government and it doesn't exist. So, they're trying to pull their money out, trying to pull out their savings, "I can't even access my savings. What the heck's going on?" They're throwing rocks and trying to get into the banks, and then the tanks come. You understand? That's how China works.

So, it is on the brink of civil war. Now they've been hit with this DROUGHT which is going to create FLOODS, which is going to create PESTILENCE and poison rat stuff flying all over the flood basin. It's going to increase poverty which is going to hurt temporarily, but it's going to STIMULATE people to start thinking, "Hey, wait a minute! What have we bought into here?" We need the good-hearted people of China, the patriots to RISE up and STAND against the government.

See, if ALL the nations of the world, ALL the patriots in those nations say, "NO! We're not going to go under this global communism crap! We're going to stay a free nation"; if they do that, now the global cartel of elites is going to have a heart attack. Now there are too many moving pieces. Now in each country they have to deal with an opposition force that is fighting them. In each country the patriots will be directly fighting that global cartel and their cronies that were installed there.

Whereas if we go to war, they're going to recruit our children to go DIE in the nuclear wars that they created to bring international COMMUNISM! That's what we don't want; we don't want that.

So, we're now at this fork in the road but that's why we have hope in our heart. Why? Because GOD is GOOD and He's a STRONGHOLD in the DAY of TROUBLE. Amen! We serve a MIGHTY God, the Creator of the universe, Yahweh, Jehovah; He is the HOLY SPIRIT who can TOUCH people and make them come ALIVE!

He can make them rise up!

He can make them rise now in Venezuela and Colombia.

He can make them rise up in France.

He can make them rise up in Korea and Asia and China and Africa and all-around Europe.

He can make them rise up.

It's impossible for men to do that, yes, but "with God ALL things are possible." Amen! We got to have hope!

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

What do these pedos and child rapists think? That they're going to run from God? Are you kidding me? You're going to run from the Creator? That's why they fear death; that's why they don't want to die. They want life-extension technology and they don't just want to live forever but they want to be God, because they know that their evil wickedness and their organizations of corruption and wickedness, God sees it all. He's a good judge, He's a brave judge, He's a courageous judge and He doesn't care about what BLM or Antifa are going to do to Him; He's not scared. When He drops the judgment, it will drop, and their day of judgment will come and they know that. That's why they don't want to die; because they don't want to go meet God face to face and be sent to the pit of hell. Amen!

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

Like Hillary Clinton and Nancy Pelosi! (Laughing)

12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

Hallelujah! Let's give God some glory, folks, and praise Him this day! (Applause) Hallelujah! Praise God!

So, we have to pray! We have to pray that we don't go towards thermal nuclear war but that we go towards all the nations being brave and rising up; learning that We the People are the judges and We the People will determine the future fate of each nation.

*If the people don't rise up, if they don't realize they're the sovereign kings and priests of that nation, that nation will fall. It will fall to the wicked pedo organizations; it WILL fall to the wicked Bill Gates and Epstein Island and Ghislaine Maxwell on an industrial scale. It will!

*But if the people rise up, if they're touched by the Holy Ghost, if they love Jesus again and they realize that Jesus is not just the weak blond-hair blue-eyed surfer fake Hollywood Jesus... NO! He is the protector, He's the shepherd, He's the lover of men's souls; He's the One who SAVES! If we remember that again and find courage once again and hold the public servants accountable once again, become godly once again, Whoo! God can do a mighty work in this global age where people are starting to realize, "Wow! It's either now or never folks, because there is nowhere to run! That global cartel? It's coming."

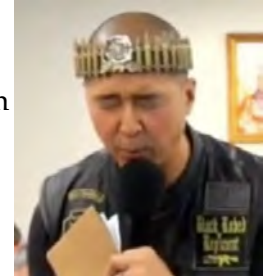

It's hurting your checkbook in gas, in food prices and it's going to get continually worse until they starve all the nations out, because when people are starving, they will be commanded around easily by these cartels; easily. Women will be prostituting themselves for a gallon of milk as they do in Venezuela; for one gallon of milk, they literally sell their organ. That's how they want it worldwide folks! That is the kingdom of hell on earth; that is the kingdom of hell!

THEY desire that, but we know that they are what? They are a joke; they are the ridiculous fallen angels who are trying to pretend that they're God. But remember how God is jealous in the way that He's honest. It's a joke; they're claiming to be UFC champ but they're not UFC champ. God is not only the ultimate fighting champion, He's the universe fighting champion. He's the true UFC champion! Amen! And His Kingdom is coming! Hallelujah! Praise God!

Please join me in prayer!

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father, we thank You for this beautiful day today. We thank You for studying the words of the prophet Nahum today. We studied about the demonic kingdom of Assyria and how You destroyed that, even using BABYLON to destroy it and then eventually destroying BABYLON to free Your people from the captivity. We see this unbelievable history!

Dear God, we know that we're living in such a historic time; such a time like this, such an incredible time to be alive, the world has never seen before! We are encountering WORLDWIDE lockdown, WORLDWIDE pestilence, WORLDWIDE famine, WORLDWIDE poverty now building up to WORLDWIDE war.

But dear God, we know that YOU are in control and with just one TOUCH of Your hand it can go from thermonuclear war to uprisings in all countries; realizing that this is the final line, realizing that there's nowhere else to flee, realizing that we as a people must be brave and “resist the devil so that he will flee”. In all countries we must realize that we are the sovereigns of those countries and that the nation belongs us, the people.

So please God, we ask for us to be moving in Your Will, we ask for us to be having animation in Your Will and being able to be strong and courageous in Your Will. You are the good and courageous judge as we saw today; You are slow to anger but You will pour fire from Heaven when the hammer falls.

Dear God, we know this is a critical time in human history now with the curse of the Han mother upon the earth. But still, we know that Your remnant and Your people are RISING up and STANDING up and that all the good-hearted people of this world who have a conscience are RISING up and they're pointing their hearts towards You once again. There is a tremendous potentiality for Your harvest to flourish and EXPAND in manifold ways.

So, we pray,

- That THIS day we can see China starting to collapse, Russia starting to collapse; we can see the European globalist structures starting to collapse; we can see the evil empire starting to collapse from within.
- That the PEOPLE may be rising up and taking their proper PLACE and restoring PEACE and FREEDOM and LIBERTY and human RIGHTS as we see in the Kingdom of God Constitution TO the PEOPLE of the world,
- That they may realize that communism sought to destroy them and political Satanism sought to enslave them forever, and that, therefore the evil empire must give the people the power of the Rod of Iron; they must give the people the power to defend themselves and their families and by extension their countries.

Dear God, we know that Your Kingdom is coming so we have HOPE and we know that You are moving with Your POWERFUL Holy Spirit. Let us be STANDING with You on the battle line and giving You ALL the praise today and forever.

We thank You and we pray all these things with all the kinship lines that are gathered here together with Your Three Generation Kingships, and we pray in Your precious name.

Amen! Amen! and Aju!

All right folks, let's give it up to God! Let's all rise and give Him the praise! Amen!

Bible Project- Overview: Nahum

BLESSED BE THE AR-15

Inside the Bizarre and Dangerous Rod of Iron Ministries

The AR-15 is a divine instrument for enforcing God's will — and that will, says Rod of Iron Ministries' leader, favors Trump

BY TIM DICKINSON

AUG 18, 2022 6:30 AM

DAYS AFTER THE insurrection at the Capitol — where he'd been close enough to the rioting to get tear-gassed — Pastor Sean Moon posted an incendiary rant to Instagram. Wearing his trademark crown of bullets and speaking to the camera from behind a golden AR-15 assault rifle, Moon declared Jan. 6 had been the “Boston Tea Party of the Second American Revolution.”

Far from condemning the day's violence, Moon praised the insurrectionists who “took dominion of the Satanic Temple” — that is to say, the U.S. Capitol building — and sent “the most powerful people on the planet scurrying away, like rats, in total fear, total panic, in tunnels.”

“God was victorious that day,” Moon insisted. “The criminals,” the pastor added — referring to America's elected representatives who refused to back Donald Trump's coup attempt — “can never take that image out of their mind. Now they realize, ‘Oh crap, if that happens again, the cops may stand down.’”

Moon is the leader of Rod of Iron Ministries, a breakaway militant sect of the Unification Church. The pastor, 42, is the son of the late global religious leader Sun Myung Moon, revered as the second coming of Christ by his followers, known colloquially as the “Moonies.” The younger Moon's church has gained infamy by glorifying the AR-15 assault rifle as the biblical “rod of iron,” an instrument of God's justice.

Headquartered outside of Scranton, Pennsylvania, Rod of Iron Ministries has stirred alarm with ceremonies in which its faithful bring their weapons to church. Moon preaches an end-times theology that's intertwined with earthly politics. And along with his brother Justin — who, in a nifty twist, owns a gun company that sells assault weapons — Sean Moon has sought to build political power in MAGA world, by cultivating connections to the Trump sons, hosting an annual Freedom Festival that has attracted Steve Bannon to speak, and even forging ties to the NRA board member who put his name at the top of the list of the fake slate of 2020 Electoral College voters from Pennsylvania.

Moon calls Teddy Daniels, a Jan. 6 participant who ran as Doug Mastriano's preferred candidate for Pennsylvania lieutenant governor, "our great friend and brother in Christ."

Moon has often been portrayed as a zany zealot rather than a threatening revolutionary, but the days when a preacher in a bullet crown could be laughed off as an oddity are over. At a time when GOP leaders are increasingly embracing violence as an acceptable — or even necessary — response to losing an election, Moon's teachings offer another layer of cover, painting the overthrow of government as ordained by God.

The fervor for regime change that Moon uncorked after the assault on the Capitol has not abated. When the FBI raided Mar-a-Lago last week, Moon turned again to Instagram to blast the attorney general and top Justice Department officials as "abominable, deceit-spewing sociopaths," imploring "Resist these devils, America. God is with us."

Hyung Jin "Sean" Moon's childhood was, to put it mildly, far from typical.

He grew up cloistered in his family's 19-acre church compound in Westchester County, outside of New York City. Because of security threats his family faced, Moon recalls in a 2018 book, he was "not permitted to wander the neighborhoods, hang out with friends, or ride our bikes outside." His outlet from bitter isolation — home, he writes, "seemed like a prison" — was self-defense training, including Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, of which he's now a blackbelt, and, eventually, firearms.

Sean's father, the Rev. Sun Myung Moon, was the founder and leader of the Unification Church, the conservative global religious movement founded in South Korea. The elder Moon presented himself as a biblical messiah, and famously presided over mass "wedding" events in which believers were purportedly absolved of sin. For the elder Moon, homosexuality was a grave trespass against God, and he compared gay men to "dirty dung-eating dogs."

In the United States, the elder Moon overcame legal troubles — he was once sentenced to 18 months in prison for filing false tax returns — and founded the conservative Washington Times, which he used to cultivate political power inside the Beltway, including forging close ties to the Bush family. In a bizarre 2004 ceremony, Moon was coronated inside the Dirksen Senate building, declaring himself God incarnate in front of more than a dozen members of Congress.

When the patriarch died in 2012, it sparked a bitter succession battle for control of the Unification Church and its vast business enterprises. Moon's wife, Hak Ja Han, known to followers as the "True Mother," consolidated control. She boxed out her son Sean, who'd trained at Harvard Divinity school and insists he was his father's handpicked successor.

Feeling betrayed by his mother, whom he now likens to the "Harlot of Babylon," Sean launched his own sect in 2013. The younger Moon's church has evolved to fetishize AR-15s, rebranding in 2017 as "Rod of Iron Ministries." The church burst onto the national consciousness with a 2018 ceremony in which members were invited to bring their assault weapons to church, held just days after the school massacre in Parkland, Florida.

Moon, who wears a crown of polished bullets made for him by a religious follower, preaches that the AR-15 is the biblical "rod of iron" — an instrument of divine power. This bizarre reading of the bible springs from passages like Psalms ("You will break them with a rod of iron; you will dash them to pieces like pottery") and Revelations ("And He shall rule them with a rod of iron.")

Preaching a last-days theology, Moon prophesies that a heavenly kingdom will soon be established on Earth — and that his heavily armed followers will help rule this land. "The citizens of the Kingdom of God, who will share in Christ's sovereignty, bear the responsibility to defend their family, neighbors, and nation with their own rod of iron," Moon writes in his book, Rod of Iron Kingdom.

Moon casts himself (and his progeny) as the monarchs of this future divine realm, which he calls the United States of Cheon Il Guk, shorthanded as CIG. He has even written its constitution, describing CIG as "a sovereign and actual nation [that] does not yet exist in this world, but is the long awaited culmination of the End of Time." The CIG constitution vaguely resembles the American one, but prominently bans abortion and gay marriage, and installs Moon as king.

When he preaches, Moon is rapid-fire and abrasive — a match for a church that treats assault rifles as instruments of the Lord.

But in conversation he comes across as more tempered. Speaking to Rolling Stone on a Zoom call from his ministry's new retreat center, bought in 2021, in rural Tennessee, Moon clarified that, while his father was the second coming of Christ, he does not deem himself as God, rather "akin to what normal people would see as the Pope — sort of the representative of Christ." He says his following is approximately 15,000 families worldwide.

Moon says he's unconcerned by those who refer to Rod of Iron Ministries as a cult. "It doesn't bother us. It doesn't paralyze us," he says, adding that the Moonies have been decried as a cult for decades. "We've been hearing that labelling for the last 50 years," Moon says. "We're used to that type of persecution."

Moon insists CIG will be "a kingdom not of tyranny, but a kingdom of freedom and responsibility." As he spoke, Moon expounded on some of his church's beliefs. "We see homosexuality just like bestiality," he said, describing a strict moral code that also sees "dating and having sex before marriage as a critical sin."

By definition, establishing the United States of Cheon Il Guk will require an overthrow of the current United States of America. Moon denies that force will be required, rather that "people through self-determination and being led by the Spirit of God will organically institute that in their countries."

But behind this softer framing lies the same dark message. Pressed, Moon also insists that the "rod of iron" — or the AR-15 — will be the "accoutrement which allows people to always keep their political servants in check."

Put more plainly, Sean Moon is leader of an apocalyptic, revolutionary, heavily armed, assault-weapon-fetishising religious order that the Southern Poverty Law Center has described as an "anti-LGBTQ cult."

Political extremism is a profitable endeavor, and the greater Moon family is no exception. In Sean Moon's church, guns are holy. But for his brother Justin, they're also business.

By crossing the streams of end-times Christianity and Second Amendment fundamentalism, in the swing state of Pennsylvania, Rod Iron Ministries is making itself a powerful draw for MAGA politicians eager to communicate with the most based of the GOP base.

Sean Moon's gun-promoting church, in Newfoundland, Pennsylvania, is closely tied to his brother's gun business, the Kahr Firearms Group, headquartered in nearby Greeley. (Both towns are exurban to Scranton.)

Kahr Arms Groups owns several gun brands including Thompson, and the company makes street-legal Tommy Guns as well as AR-15s. While the NRA touts Kahr as "a Premier NRA Industry Ally," the company actively partners with the even-more-hardcore Gun Owners of America, and fights gun-control legislation in Congress as part of GOA's "No Compromise Alliance."

Sean Moon describes his brother as "a member of our church," adding that "like any other member, he contributes what he feels in his heart

... to the organization.” I asked Moon whether adopting the Rod of Iron branding for his church had anything to do with boosting his brother’s business. “No,” the pastor retorted. “Of course not.”

To honor the leader of the MAGA movement, Justin Moon’s firearms company has launched several lines of weapons emblazoned with Trump’s likeness and slogans.

Like their father, the Moon brothers have sought to cultivate ties with powerful figures of the American right, and the modern GOP is proving a fertile ground.

When Justin Moon’s company opened a firearms emporium called the Tommy Gun Warehouse in 2016, Sean gave the blessing, and Eric Trump gave the keynote speech. The brothers have also both sought photo ops with Don Trump Jr., who features prominently on Sean Moon’s Instagram account, as well as Justin’s.

To honor the dear leader of the MAGA movement, Justin Moon’s firearms company has launched several lines of weapons emblazoned with Trump’s likeness and slogans, including the POTUS 1911 pistol, the Commander in Chief AR-15, and the Trump Thompson Tommy Gun, chambered in .45 for the 45th president.

In 2019, the Moon brothers together launched the Rod of Iron Freedom Festival, “a non-denominational event to celebrate our Second Amendment.” Its 2021 lineup included former Trump adviser Steve Bannon; Richard Mack, originator of a bogus theory that sheriffs can decide what’s constitutional; former NRATV star Dana Loesh; and John Lott, author of the book More Guns, Less Crime.

And then came the 2020 election, where Pastor Moon saw it as God’s will that Trump would win.

In the run-up to the election, Moon was an unabashed Trump supporter. He filmed himself on Instagram at a Nov. 2 campaign rally near Scranton wearing a MAGA hat and chanting “God Bless Trump!”

Moon was initially crushed by Trump’s loss. On the day after the election, as the “red mirage” was receding, Moon posted: “It is now out of the hands of men! Only by the gift of God can Trump win Wisconsin, Michigan, or Nevada. It is now up to our True Father completely one with Jesus!!! Keep praying Kingdom!”

But by the following day, following the defeated president’s lead, Moon was eagerly promoting the Big Lie to his flock, writing in a new post: “TRUMP VICTORY!!! AMERICA WILL NOT GO ALONG WITH THE ILLEGAL STEAL!!! TRUMP IS OUR PRESIDENT!!!”

Soon, Moon was putting himself at the center of the political movement that, against law and tradition, sought to block the peaceful transfer of power to Joe Biden. He participated in the Million MAGA March in D.C., the “Stop the Steal” rally at the Pennsylvania state capital, Harrisburg. Moon later gave the invocation at the Jericho March rally in front of the U.S. Supreme Court on Dec. 12, which sought divine intervention to overturn the 2020 election results.

Moon even inserted himself in efforts to get Pennsylvania to recall its electors to the Electoral College. On Jan 3, he helped organized a protest in front of Pennsylvania Speaker of the House Brian Cutler's home to demand the recall of the state's electors.

As the nation hurtled toward Jan. 6, Moon began associating himself with the "Black Robed Regiment" — a loose association of right-wing religious leaders who've appropriated a name the British once used to mock radical preachers who helped foment the American Revolution.

Moon was soon touting Jan. 6, in explicitly militaristic terms. In a video posted on Dec. 30, Moon prayed in front of a wall of Tommy guns at his brother's gun warehouse. Invoking the American Revolution, he asked for God to give Trump "the spirit that was in our founding fathers; the spirit that stood up against evil." Moon then asked God to guide his backers "as we mobilize for Jan. 6, as the commander-in-chief has called."

On Jan 5, Moon — who is obsessed with motorcycles as well as guns — rallied a pack of "Rod of Iron Riders," resembling a motorcycle gang, to Washington D.C. Moon wrote that their purpose was to "scout D.C." and posted a short film of their reconnaissance ride. He wore a skull face mask, painted in camouflage.

On the day of Jan 6 itself, Moon showed up on the Mall in the predawn darkness. As the mob rushed forward to the Capitol, Moon got close enough to the action to get hit with tear gas. While Moon's exact role in the day's events is murky, one of his church faithful, a man named David Kanagy, who was also in attendance, wrote about the experience on the Rod of Iron Ministries website — describing ministry members attempting to overrun police positions.

Kanagy's writing — and particularly a passage on a second failed push to get into the Capitol — offers a preview into the devotion Moon has from his followers. "I saw others climbing the stairs of the bleachers on the left side, so I followed them up the stairs," he wrote. Kanagy added that he was warned the scaffolding was unsteady. "I thought I shouldn't worry, but be there to support the King," he wrote, apparently referring to Moon. "If the scaffolding collapsed from so many people, it would be tragic, but that would be a good way to die as an offering."

Today, Moon takes pains to separate himself from the "crazies" of Jan. 6. He insisted to Rolling Stone that he and his followers were just "peacefully singing" — including praise songs and "God Bless America" — when he was tear-gassed. "For us, it was just exercising our First Amendment right to peaceably assemble," he says.

But in the immediate aftermath of the event, Moon had insisted that history would vindicate Jan. 6 as the day "Goliath's air of invulnerability" was "shattered," adding that the original Tea Party of 1773 was "also condemned at the time."

Moon says he's not been contacted by law enforcement or the January 6 Committee.

Sean Moon did not take Joe Biden's inauguration well. In a video from Jan. 21, 2021, Moon cast the Biden presidency in calamitous terms, as a victory for Chinese communists. "The Chi-Com puppet agent," he said, referring to Biden, "has usurped the once-Judeo Christian republic of America."

Moon preached armed resistance, invoking the founder of the Oath Keepers militia. "God is telling us to become his hands and feet," Moon said. “Just like Stewart Rhodes of Oath Keepers said, all the Trump people now seem to be activated to become part of civil defense forces, neighborhood defense forces — whatever you wanna call it.”

Moon insisted it was not time to be “cowering in fear of being called a cultist, or extremist, or a domestic terrorist.” Pointing to his family’s long history of being called a cult, he added, “Join the club. Get over it.”

The gun-loving pastor has long lionized the Bundy family — whose serial armed standoffs with the government, Moon has written, epitomize “the character and courage” necessary to stand up to “abuses of federal power.” Warning that the “Stalinistic curse machine is coming,” Moon continued his video, insisting that the only defense was mass resistance. “There should be 100 Buddy ranches,” Moon said, adding of that armed standoff: “It should be like that everywhere. So if they try to come for one they come for all.”

Despite such unhinged rhetoric, Moon and his church continue to make inroads with MAGA politicians. In May 2021, Doug Mastriano — now the GOP gubernatorial candidate in Pennsylvania — was scheduled to speak at Rod of Iron Ministries. The appearance fell through; Mastriano appeared instead at a fundraiser with Rudy Giuliani. Moon says the two have yet to meet personally, but insists of Mastriano, “We support him and his policies.”

At the 2021 Rod of Iron Freedom Festival in October, former Trump adviser Steve Bannon was a special guest speaker, as was Joey Gibson, a far-right former Senate candidate who is closely associated with the Proud Boys. Teddy Daniels palled around with Moon, taking a selfie holding the pastor’s golden AR-15. (Made by his brother’s company, the rifle gets its distinctive color from a coating of titanium nitride.) The 2022 lineup is still fluid, but already touts former Trump White House adviser Sebastian Gorka and former U.N. ambassador Alan Keyes.

Pastor Moon sees himself and his church in a battle with “political Satanism.” He has thrown his lot in with the MAGA movement because, he insists, it reflects “the human desire to pursue freedom and not let a small cabal of people rule over them with impunity.”

When I asked Moon if he sees the MAGA crowd as helpful in advancing the events necessary for establishing his divine kingdom, he deflected: “We don’t know how God will use all these relationships.” But he says that his motivation is “standing together with people who are like-minded, like-hearted — and want to pursue God’s will in His kingdom.”
