Resistance to Tyrants is Obedience to God

September 11, 2022- TN

Big shout out to you all in PA and everybody else here. Praise God Almighty! Incredible time we are living in, folks. Well, let's get to Scripture here today; we're in Jeremiah chapter 34 and we'll begin verse 8.

The British parliamentary monarchy vs. the American system

Before we get into it, there's something interesting. Jordan Peterson who is probably THE most listened to psychologist in the entire world right now, I guess he's in the UK doing a tour, and he made comments on Queen Elizabeth's passing, etc.

<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/1/#inbox/FMfcgzGqQSQBXPMTVRBZdMjgVLrwKfdf?projector=1>

(Jordan Peterson comments on the Queen's Passing)

Now, we know they're tied with the Rothschilds and others and obviously it's not God's kingship. But as a Canadian he was reflecting on the American presidency, and he was saying that the American president has now become like the Russian czar; he's an elected president and he's both president and king.

He said he actually had a chance to meet Trump at some rally in Kentucky where everybody was buzzing around and was infatuated with Trump's family too. He stated that in Canada nobody knows Trudeau's wife; she's a politician's wife, and nobody needs to know her. This guy is here to do a job; he's not a family that we tie all our symbolism too. In America we're "the land of the free and the home of the brave" and we broke away from British monarchy, but as human people we have a desire for symbolism. We have a desire for our civilization to be rooted in a symbolism that is good. Amen! That's why of course God's Kingdom is a kingdom; it's actually a kingdom!

Jordan Peterson was reflecting on the British system and he was saying that actually it has more checks and balances than the American system. The British system has executive, legislative and judicial, but also has the monarchy. What does that do? It splits up the desire for the prime minister to want to be king; he can't be king. The prime minister can be elected but he CANNOT be king or queen, so he has to actually work with the royal family and get their input on things because the royal family has a strong platform.

He was talking about the royal family as being very theatrical with a lot of pomp and circumstances, and as being tied in with the symbolism of the nation. He was adding that you don't want that symbolism tied in with the politics of the nation; you want that to be separate. It's more of a cultural realm and you want that to be separate so there is more division.

One example would be: since we're on 9/11 today, let's say America had a George Washington monarchy and we had a 9/11 situation pop up. Bush is saying, "We've got to go and bomb Iraq" - as Dick Cheney started a business, Halliburton, to milk them nine billion dollars-. And, "even though sixteen of the hijackers were Saudi Arabians we're not going to attack Saudi Arabia; we're going to attack Iraq." Then of course America was in Afghanistan with the poppy seeds, getting control of the heroin trade which is about an eighty-billion-dollar drug trade; the CIA and Intelligence agencies, they want that money, they love that money to fund their unfortunately more and more nefarious activities.

The point is: imagine if we had Washington's family here as the royal family; something like Britain. Bush said, "We got to go to war; we got to hit Iraq." Let's use the parallel with Queen Elizabeth II, so let's say we have Queen Washington II, and she doesn't want to go to war in Iraq. She would say, "No! Why are we going to war in Iraq? Saudi Arabia is the one who hit us." Now she can start making a big ruckus because she's so famous; the Washington monarchy has been here for two-hundred-and-forty-something-years, and every American knows them. Now she has a huge platform to say, "NO! We're not going to this war; we're not going to go. I think the vice president here wants to make billions of dollars off those Iraqis and take the oil." Or maybe she would not even say that; she would just say, "No!" You see what kind of a problem that becomes? And then she can hold rallies with millions of people showing up before the Washington Monument with Queen Washington sitting there and leading this rally of ten-million people saying, "We're not going to Iraq!" That's going to hurt the war machine's plan. You see how that works, folks? It's another check on the power.

Whereas the American system has now unfortunately degraded into the Russians tsar-ship. You now have the president with literally all the power who can throw in whatever crazy law he wants. They have powers to disappear people with the Patriot Act or the NDAA (National Defense Authorization Act) etc., so they have too much, too much, too much power. The conservative party is always talking about the fact that the presidency has too much power but we don't know how to explain it. Peterson was breaking this down. Unbelievable!

This is reflecting obviously on the Cheon Il Guk, the Kingdom of God Constitution. Not only is Christ's monarchy there but it obviously is head of the church that produced the Constitution, so there's a liturgical element, there's a theatrical element, there are all those elements there.

He was also making the point that the British monarchy raises a lot of money. Everybody wants to go see this monarchy, wants to go see Buckingham Palace; they want to go see the Queen in a ceremony. There are all these theatrics. Tourism! People from America, Canada or Australia who don't have a queen so-to-speak want to go see that, "Oh yeah, we're going to the UK. They said the Queen is going to have some outdoor ceremony. Let's go check it out!" So, it actually attracts tourism. When you look at numbers, in that type of long-established monarchy, they produce a lot of income and they make a lot more than they spend.

In the Cheon Il Guk Constitution

If you look at the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, not only do you have executive, legislative, judicial, but you also have the Kingship line of Christ that is primarily in the judicial branch. It also serves in symbolic ceremonies; all the holy days with the "pomp and circumstance," with the guns and the robes and the crowns, etc. That symbolism is tied to physical people, a physical lineage which is very important because it's no longer a concept, an idea; these people are living and they're living descendants of the King of Kings. They can actually make the argument. If anyone is saying, "We got to get rid of this," well the Kingship line of True Father can continue to make arguments from a large platform: why it's critical, why it's important etc., why Christendom was based on God's Kingdom as Jesus himself promised.

And not only that! We not only have the fourth branch of government, but we also have the fifth branch which is the General Inspector. The General Inspector is a non-political position too; that means he's not voted in. It's also lineal; it's Kook Jin Nim's line as the True Cain, and they have the job of what? They have the job of investigating and auditing all government officials. (Laughing) There's no institution in the Kingdom of God Constitution where the government can for example spy and do surveillance on the citizenry. Why? Because the citizens are also coheirs with Christ and they are kings and priests. So, the government for example the CIA or the FBI would be illegal, especially the FBI. That is an agency that is used domestically and that is illegal under the Kingdom of God Constitution. The General Inspector cannot investigate citizens; his job is to investigate government officials. Are you with me, folks?

Also, the presidency is not directly chosen by the people but is elected by the members of the House of Representatives in a series of votes, and eventually "the candidate who receives 50% or more of the votes will be president of the United States of CIG" (CIG Constitution, Article IV, Section 1)

<https://www.sanctuary-pa.org/constitution>

So, you have all those checks and balances, plus you have the symbolic weight being held by the monarchy that is tied with the narrative of the nation and the Constitution, and of course then you have the General Inspectorship which is auditing the government. Again, it's not a political appointment; the government can't push a candidate to become the next General Inspector, because he is not selected by the people. It's lineal; their job and their sworn oath linearly is to defend True Father's Kingdom, the Kingdom of God. So, liberty and responsibility this is absolutely critical.

Truth & Trust

Sean McDowell is one of the very high-level Christian apologists. His dad is Josh McDowell; <https://www.josh.org/> We used to have his books.

On his show <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCC321oNTD2yrszfYoz3-X1w> Sean McDowell was interviewing an amazing author, a British man called Os Guinness <http://www.osguinness.com/books> who has a new book called Zero Hour America. I heard him talk about it and break it down. From the Kingdom Constitution perspective, we all know this; on the microcosm, as God's people we all understand these principles.

But he broke it down really simple, so even if someone was hearing this for the first time, they could understand what he said. He broke it down like this: if you pursue truth, you're going to listen to and follow people who tell you the truth. Is that true?

Truth then leads to what? Trust! Through trust we're in a culture where we listen to people that tell us the truth; not swindlers, not burglars, not liars or deceivers etc. We're then in a culture where it's good to seek out people who tell you truth and are honest etc. Thus, when we interact with one another, we can trust each other. So, if we have to make contracts, make promises, or make covenants, we can trust one another a lot better. Is that true? Especially remember in the olden days "your word is your bond." Handshake! That's a contract. Bam! You don't go against your word because it's not a culture where lying and deceiving people is okay and where you don't get in trouble for it.

A society without truth

Not like in Chicago Illinois. In Illinois, by January 1st they're going to pass a law folks, which now makes burglary, kidnapping -"kid-napping"- and secondary homicide among a list of other things, non-detainable offenses. The police cannot detain anybody who freaking kidnaps somebody! Are you crazy? Or arson: if someone sets a freaking house on fire, the police will not detain that person. Or secondary homicides: someone who KILLS somebody! This is the whole state of Illinois! I mean this is beyond Romper Room crazy! Can you imagine this? What are the police doing then? They won't detain anybody who burns people's houses or buildings down? They won't detain people who burglarize people? They won't detain people who kidnap people? They kidnap people and you won't detain them? And of course, again, second-degree homicide; that's MURDER! You won't detain anybody who killed somebody? I mean folks, this is just beyond crazy!

I'm always digressing when I hit that kind of stuff okay; that is so frustrating! You see how FAST society can dwindle and be destroyed and be desecrated. Why? Because we're no longer a society that is pursuing TRUTH! "You got your truth; I got my truth; we can make up truth." This is all Uebermensch this is all Hitler; Nietzsche was talking about the Uebermensch. "I determine my own truth." Hitler believed that too, "My truth is I want to kill the Jews." You see what I'm saying? That's what happens.

If we are in a society where there's no more truth- in the postmodernist notion there's no more truth or it's relative- now what happens? Trust starts breaking down. Why? Because, "The end justifies the means. Now, I want a certain goal, I want something; whatever I got to do to get that goal that's what it's going to be. I'm an animal; I need to do what I need to do to survive." This is the philosophy that starts taking over. "I got to do whatever. So, I can lie, deceive; I can maim, I can kill. I can do whatever I want." Then what happens? You don't have any more truth; trust between neighbors die. The neighbor is somebody that is not in your inner-circle tribe, your family, but he's living right next to you. And because trust is breaking down, now there's really no more freedom; there's only tyranny.

Why is that? Let's say I live near my neighbor and we're in a society of mistrust. Then I just decide "Hey, I'm going to build a big shed; half of it on my property, half on my neighbor's property. That's the way it's going to be." Now all of a sudden, I can say, "I use my freedom. I'm a free person; I can do whatever I want." But I use my freedom and I hurt HIS freedom, HIS human rights. Freedom is not doing what you want; freedom comes with what? Responsibility. Freedom comes with responsibility to what? Defend your neighbor's freedom too; that's part of freedom. I can make a shed but it's got to stay on my line. Obviously, that makes sense because you people are normal; you're not crazy woke, crazy, crazy, crazy, crazy, lunatics. That makes sense. But if I want to say, "No, I'm free; I can do whatever I want. I don't have to have any truth; I don't have to have any trust. I can do whatever I want. That's freedom. I'm in a free society; I can do whatever I want, so I'll build half my shed on your property." There's going to be a gun fight; there's going to be a battle.

So, freedom does not come as 'do-what-you-want' freedom. That's not real freedom; that's hedonism. That destroys society, that destroys morals and ethics and the trust factor. Of course, if you don't have truth, you don't have trust, you don't have ethics anymore so then you don't have freedom. You have what? You got tyranny; that's what you got. The powerful rule and "might equals right."

A Covenantal people

But when you're in a society and a culture that pursues truth, for example the Judeo-Christian worldview... Remember folks, the Bible is the first globally-printed book in the world. In the world! The printing press and the Protestant Reformation were about THIS book folks! THIS book! Literally every book in all of the modern studies, Shakespeare and all that, come from this! This is the first best-selling worldwide book. First!

This is what the Protestants were printing, and for what? For liberty. Why? Liberty from whom? The Catholic Church who was the Rome Church. They had become one of the harlot churches because they modeled their church structure after what? The CAESARS! They modeled it after the Caesars because one of the emperors, Constantine, decided to become quasi-Christian - yet allowed his mom to worship Baal.

Then, since it got absorbed into an imperial totalitarian structure, what did the Catholic Church become? It became an imperial totalitarian hierarchical structure with popes, cardinals, archbishops; things that don't exist in the biblical world. They don't exist, they're not real. So, the Protestants were saying, "No, to hell with that! Stop saying we got to read it in Latin; we're going to print it in EVERY language. We're going to give it for FREE to people; we're going to just hand them out for free." This was literally the first book; the modern world that you study comes from here. This is it! This is the first book! This is the first time our civilization said, "We're going to center ourselves on the written Word. It has an ethical framework and it has a story about a Creator and it has a great story about redemption and love, restoration and forgiveness but repentance, etc. It's all there. These are the founding principles we're going to base our civilization on."

So, for example when Benjamin Franklin was offering the Seal of America, what was his suggestion? The term for the Seal of America was "Rebellion to Tyrants is Obedience to God." That was his suggestion for the seal of America and of course what do you have in its picture? In the picture he hearkened back to what? The BIBLE! In the picture what is it? It is the Sinai Revolution. It is Moses; it is freedom from the pharaoh. That's what the Founding Fathers define the American Revolution as. We are like the Covenant people; we are like the CHOSEN people of God and we established a COVENANTAL nation. You see there's the pillar of fire, the cloud of smoke; they're crossing the Red Sea and pharaoh's getting swallowed up by the ocean. That's literally on the Seal; this is how the Founding Framers saw themselves. We were talking about that symbolism. What was that symbolism of the founding Revolutionary War people? That symbolism was tied with what? It was tied with the Scripture. That symbolism was tied with what? A Covenantal people!

Not like in the French Revolution, "Let's just go kill the French monarchy and then we will take power!" It wasn't about a covenant, it wasn't about a relationship with God; it was just about, "Let's kill those people; let's take over and take power so that we can eat the cake!" (Laughing) And that's what happened. The queen said, "Let them eat cake!"
- "We kill you and then we eat the cake."

That's what it was about; it wasn't about a covenant; it was about cake. It wasn't about the Sinai Revolution it was about donuts and frappes and custards. You see there's a big difference, big difference.

The American Revolution was different. They saw this fight, this battle against the EVIL British kingship as that which Moses fought. For example, he went to pharaoh so they framed King George of Britain as pharaoh; he was Pharaoh of Egypt and he was enslaving the people of God even though they weren't Jews. But of course, in the New Testament we see that we are the inheritors of God's Kingdom, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." (Galatians 3:28) We see it right there in Scripture.

The Protestants said, "No, we are a Covenantal people." That's why they had the Covenant, the Mayflower Compact on Plymouth Road; all these things were about covenants. George Washington when he first was inaugurated president, he PRAYED in a chapel. Where was that? That was at 9/11 Ground Zero! That's where George Washington prayed and he CONSECRATED this country. He declared, "This is a COVENANT country TIED with God," and he beseeched, "God, consecrate this land!" You see what I'm saying? That's very different from the French, "Let's them eat cake!" "We shall eat your cake!"

For a Covenantal people, the Covenant means the relationship with God, the promise with God; it's a big deal. That's why we are in Jeremiah 34 today. Let's read it together!

Jeremiah 34: 8- 15

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant Do you see that? We were talking about Covenant; he made a Covenant. with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

What's this book, the Bible, about? This book literally was liberty from the Catholic Church; the American land was literally liberty from the royal family of Britain. That's what it was. And here we're talking about "a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them" What was it about?

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother

A little context: King Zedekiah is put there by Nebuchadnezzar who is taking over Jerusalem. Babylon is taking over everything; they're the empire coming in. Now remember, the little Red Sea that looks like a crab claw right there, and to the left of it is Egypt; a little North is Jerusalem; to the right of it is the Arabian Desert and beyond that is Babylon. Beyond that up North is Assyria. And if you go way out left past all the Mediterranean waters, you hit Italy, you hit Rome and you hit Greece.

So, now Babylon has crossed the Arabian Desert and they're coming in to destroy Jerusalem; THEY put in King Zedekiah whom the Bible refers to as a bad king. HE displeases the Lord; he really makes God angry. Not only of course because he accepts the tentative rule of Babylon, but also because he then goes and breaks his deal with Babylon and tries to ally with Egypt and with the pharaoh down there. Babylon's angry now and they threaten, "You guys, you got your chance; now we're going to come in and DESTROY you because now you try to sell us out to the Egyptians." See how he's a player? He's trying to play sides.

This is this kind of person; this is the kind of deceitful person that is now the king of Southern Judah. He's the king of Judah and he is a deceiver, he's a liar, and he breaks covenant. What does he do? He not only breaks promise with Babylon and sides with the Egyptians, because remember they're right across the Red Sea, but he also does something else, and that's what we're reading now.

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother

Everyone is a Hebrew and they should be free.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

They obeyed and they let them go. Why? Because the number one in the Ten Commandments dictates that you have to keep the Sabbath day holy; that means you can't work. One day a week you have to rest on the day of rest, therefore you can't make your people work on that day. That is a Jewish crime; you cannot let people work on the Sabbath. If people want to make more money, they're going to just work seven days a week, but literally there's wisdom. God said, "Nope! I'm not going to allow you to work people seven days a week. They have to take one day of rest." Now there's bigger wisdom in that. Amen! You're going to have more long-term stamina with that type of rest as you decompress, study the Word of God and just be with God's people; just basically hang out, barbecue and enjoy fellowship, get recharged a little bit. Very important.

Every seven years you'd have to let your servants or slaves rest one year; they could take a Sabbath year after six years of labor if they were slaves or bondservants.

Seven times seven was 49; so, the year after the 49th year would be the Jubilee year. On the Jubilee year you had to set them free. All the debts got canceled, and even the bond servants got set free after they put in 49 years of labor; that was the max. But of course, during those 49 years of labor, they got to take one day off every week, and every seven years a year off. Isn't that interesting? That's interesting.

Just hearkening back to that whole period, God is commanding King Zedekiah through Jeremiah to "Get back to this. Get back to my Covenant, start taking my commands seriously." God is the Creator of the universe; He kind of knows. He's the architect mathematician; He's the mathematician of all the causes and conditions of the universe. "All the Heavens seeing His glory," meaning that this planet earth is tiny compared to the sun. Then you're trying to compare the biggest sun in our galaxy to Arcturus; compared to that, then our sun is a little dot. Then you compare Arcturus to the next galaxy over and their sun is even bigger, so Arcturus is a tiny pea; it's a dot.

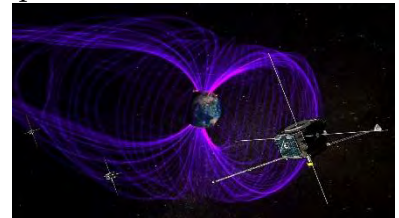

That's why when you look at the heavens you get what psychologists call the "awe moment," because you're literally looking into infinity. You're looking to the closest thing that you can actually sense of infinity; it keeps on going and going so you're gazing into eternity. That's why when you look up at the heavens not only are you breathing in so your lungs are filling up and you're getting oxygenated and all of that, but you're looking at the MAJESTY of this universe that you are part of. You're here on this tiny little rock and it's positioned perfectly so you don't melt or you don't freeze. It's right there in the right sweet zone and if you had one more moon rotating around, this planet would not exist.

If you didn't have Jupiter which is the big trash compactor sucking in all those debris, we would be bombarded by atom bombs every day; we wouldn't exist. All those systems and all those things have to be there and every single thing in the universe is holding each other together etc., for us to exist.

Some years ago, NASA sent out three different spaceships into space and did the background radiation check; they looked at the background radiation waves. It creates a big X through the known universe and guess what's right in the middle. The EARTH! Oh my gosh! Are you kidding me? Are you kidding me? There's no way! Three spaceships have gone up and produced the same data; it's called the cosmic background radiation. Every scientist looking at that data says "This is incredible! There has to be some type of designer; there has to be. There's no way this is random!" In this vast infinitude of the universe with stars that are GIGANTIC, our sun is like a dot compared to Arcturus which is a dot compared to other stars! I mean it's ridiculous!

All that and all the background radiation, the big X and right where they intersect is tiny earth!

Are you kidding me? Are you kidding me? Oh my gosh! That's more improbable than all the monkeys in the world on typewriters forever just typing randomly and producing Shakespeare, the Bible and everything else; it's more improbable than ALL of that!

Anyway, the Bible says "the heavens declare the glory of God" (Psalm 19: 8)

II But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

What happened? Jeremiah told him, "Set them free." He said, "fine" and he set them free. Then, what did he do? Did he keep the covenant or break it? He said, "I changed my mind." And then he said, "No, you're all slaves again. I'm going to send out the SWAT teams to get everybody. All the men and women that were set free; no, you are slaves again. Bring them back in; they're going to be my slaves again."

See, this is why you need to have a philosophical starting point. Truth matters. The words in the Scripture represent the God of the universe who is a just God. In the young kings' training that the Queen is leading and I am supervising from above so-to-speak, we teach them that when we are parenting in the king's and priest's role, our parenting is not what Stefan Molyneux promotes. He is one of the biggest philosophers, now censored completely from YouTube and all the different platforms, and he's on his own website <https://freedomain.com/>

He's probably the most brilliant philosopher on the internet, brilliant; he's agnostic but he's super positive about Christianity. He loves Christianity; he thinks it produced the modern world, but he considers himself agnostic, even though he's always getting closer and closer to finally admitting God. Just like Jordan Peterson; the same. But at least these guys are positive towards Christian values and the Christian worldview from which freedom comes.

Freedom in Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam

You can't get freedom from Hinduism, Buddhism because the general starting point for their notions of that reality is what? The universe is Maya; it's illusion. In Buddhism the universe is what? Suffering; it's suffering. And they depict it with the snake biting the rooster, and the rooster biting the pig; they're biting each other's tail. They're constantly in the cycles of suffering created by lust, greed and hatred. The whole world is suffering and the six realms of Buddhism are about suffering and freeing yourself from suffering.

In Hinduism for liberation, you need Moksha. You need to meditate, you need to become a Hindu holy man etc., and you have to be FREE from this world because it's all illusions. Therefore from that world view you can't get freedom because it says, "No, the truth is illusion." So, if the truth is illusion how can you trust somebody? How are you going to create a culture where you trust your neighbor if everything's illusion? Illusion means deception. Your eyes are DECEIVING you; you're being deceived. You have a culture based on the idea that the cosmology of that system is ILLUSION. Well then, how are you going to trust? Why do you think we got the caste system from India? If you don't trust people you got to put them in the casts: the Brahmins, the Kshatriyas, the Vaishyas, the Shudras and the Untouchables. You got to put them into their cast, you got to put them into their places because it's deceit, it's illusion; your eyes are deceiving you. Your reality is deceiving you constantly; it's a world of deception. Are you with me, folks? You don't produce freedom from that cosmology.

With Islam obviously we know, that doesn't produce freedom; it's an authoritarian system. The Hadith etc., brings an authoritarian system that obviously does not produce freedom.

Freedom & Judeo-Christian worldview

Why does the Judeo-Christian worldview produce freedom? Well, look at this Scripture. They're all fighting what? Centralized governments: Moses was fighting centralized governments; Daniel was fighting Nebuchadnezzar and King Darius. They were making laws saying, "you can't pray"; they were making laws saying, "you can't worship." You had to bow down to the graven image that they created. And what did Daniel and Meshach, Shadrach and Abednego say? What did they say to him? They said, "No!" They got sent into the fire and remember, it got pumped up seven times but they still remained in the fire and we SAW the ONE! Whoo! Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! We saw the FOURTH MAN in the fire! Amen! That's Father, right? Jesus and Father are one!

So, we saw the FOURTH MAN but what was Daniel doing? What were Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego doing? They were saying, "NO!" to centralized government. That's where you get freedom of religion; freedom of religion is from the Hebrew Bible. "No! We have our religion and you may be Nebuchadnezzar, you may be King Darius, you may be very high, mighty and powerful but you are low-level bureaucrats compared to the King, the Judge and the Lawmaker who is Yahweh, God. The earthly kings, no, we don't listen to you all; we got to listen to the Highest King who is Yahweh."

That's where you get freedom of RELIGION! It comes from the Hebrew Bible.

That's where you get freedom of SPEECH! They spoke out. Even under the threat of death they spoke out and said "No! We will not bow down to that graven image; we will not do that. Our God COMMANDS us not to do that!"

It's from the Scriptures that we get it.

Centralized government is bad. Everybody here has heard about the Tower of Babel, right? What was that? The Tower of Babel, that means all the nations of the world become what? Centralized into one. They become a one-world-government, the one that Klaus Schwab and Bill Gates and all these fools and these demonic Satanists are trying to make. They're trying to make what? They're trying to make one-world-government, meaning the Tower of Babel. They try to centralize ALL power so they can control it, they can manage it and they can profit from it. That's what they're doing right now.

This is all of course in Scripture. In the Old Testament, one of the biggest abominations is one-world-government; it's one of the things that God HATED! He HATED one-world-government; He HATED it!

- "Oh, but I thought Jesus was a hippie and a Commie; that he loved socialism."

- NO! Jesus HATED one-world-government; he HATED the Tower of Babel!

So, in terms of globalism and the New World Order, the Great Reset or whatever they call it, all those stupid labels that they put on it, it means the Tower of Babel. That's basically what it is. It's the Tower of Babel, it's Satan, it's Satanism; that's what it is. The Scriptures show a very clear image that the world should not be centralized on a government; it should not be. That's the abomination; that's the thing that God hates the most.

God CHOSE to create something from nothing

The world should be people of every race, creed and color pursuing truth and being truthful. This is what's amazing with what science has done in the modern age. It has created all the fine-tuned arguments, ALL the incredible scientific arguments like the Mandelbrot set.

All these new arguments, the mathematical arguments, the scientific arguments that are coming out, all the fine-tunings of the universe et cetera. Mandelbrot set! Unbelievable! This is one of the NEW mathematical apologetics arguments for God's existence which atheists cannot dispute. It shows clear, clear, clear mathematical design. You zoom in on one part and it zooms in and it keeps reproducing, and zooms in and it keeps reproducing; it's just endless, it's an infinitude of mathematical equation. It's crazy! It's incredible!

You have the Fibonacci spiral throughout all of nature; you have the golden mean throughout all of creation etc. You've got all these incredible constant conditions throughout the universe. You have all those things that the young people are studying especially in apologetic studies. All those things are showing what? There's an intelligent design, there's a mind that has created all the material world; which means He's greater than all the material world; which means what? If you transcend all the material in the whole universe, what are you? If you transcend all the material in the whole universe, you made all the universe material, then what are you? Are you beyond the material? Are you less than the material?

Obviously, you're beyond it, so you are IMMATERIAL; you are in a different dimension. You created all the material but you're not the material; you didn't create yourself. You are beyond that material so you're IMMATERIAL. You created all of time and that would mean you're beyond time; which means what? You are eternal. SPACE! You created all time and space. Whoa! You created all space which means what? You're spaceless; you're beyond all space, time, all material.

And actually

You CHOSE to create something from nothing. Let me say it again:

You CHOSE to create something from nothing. Let me say it again.

You CHOSE to make SOMETHING from NOTHING. What did you do?

You CHOSE to make something from nothing. Everybody heard that? What did you do?

You CHOSE! And if you CHOSE to make something from nothing well that means you are what?

You are a person. You have the identifying factors of personhood, you can choose to make something from nothing, you can choose. You have the faculties to do so. You're personal, you're immaterial, you're spaceless, you're timeless, you're eternal and you have GREAT, magnificent knowledge and power because you created the whole freaking universe; all the mathematics, all the constant conditions that hold it together. If there was even a slight variation in the constant conditions, the speed of the universe expanding or any of that, the universe would implode; it would not exist. If the initial blast from the Big Bang was even altered, even the speed at which the universe expanded from the singularity, even if that was modified a little bit, the whole universe would not be life-sustaining.

We have those sets in the apologetics courses; we have actually the numbers as well. You can't modify it; it's so unbelievably fine-tuned. So, even hardcore atheists like Richard Dawkins are saying, "Well, you all are getting closer. Yes, I would have to say that that is a quite powerful argument, yet I do not concede; I remain skeptical." But he's now conceding; he's changing his position greatly. He's realizing that science is pointing to a designer. Amen!

So, the heavens declare the glory of God"; creation declares the glory to God. I uploaded a scripture from Job (Job 12: 7-9) that says,"

7 "But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;

And the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;

*And the fish of the sea will explain to you.
 9 Who among all these does not know
 That the hand of the LORD has done this?"
 Beautiful!*

God reminds Israel of its Covenant.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

What did He say? "I made a COVENANT with your fathers." Whom is He talking about here? What is He talking about? When Moses fled from Egypt, they were slaves, so He made a Covenant. Which means the Creator of the universe, the great Designer, the great Architect of it all MADE a PROMISE with the people of Israel, and that's what started their NATION. Their nation wasn't for, "Hey, let's go conquer that tribe over there! Let's go get them girls! Let's go get that money!" That wasn't the starting point. Are you with me folks? That is usually the starting point of every civilization, "Oh, let's get that money! Let's get them girls!" because 40% of the males throughout history have not been able to reproduce and their gene set died.

I was on the Alan Keyes Show with Ambassador Allen Keyes who's coming to the Rod of Iron Freedom Festival.

6/3/2022 Let's Talk America with Dr. Alan Keyes ft. Sean Moon

We had an incredible talk. He's an amazing philosopher and Christian apologist; unbelievable, beautiful. He worked under Reagan so he knows how much Reagan praised True Father. Shinman designed the calendar last year and you see the quote from Reagan on it, "We had the desire but without Rev. Moon we would never have stopped communism." President Reagan whom the Republicans laud and praise as a true conservative, HE PRAISED True Father giving him CREDIT for taking DOWN COMMUNISM and that quote is on our calendar.

So, we were talking with Ambassador Keyes. He was under the Reagan administration, that's why he really appreciates Father; he just appreciates him SO MUCH! He knows what CENTRAL role the Washington Times played in fighting communism, and especially Soviet communism.

On his podcast we were talking about abortion; that is a big deal, right. You never knew this but every single person, you all literally did an incredible feat when you were conceived. When you were conceived your mother's egg released a perfume that attracted your father. Then in the moment of conception he sent the entire population of the United States to go get that egg; the entire US went after that egg, that perfume. The entire population of the US, 300 MILLION soldiers were swimming to get that egg. Are you with me folks? Isn't that crazy? You don't even know but you literally beat out 300 MILLION soldiers and you got the egg; you won a huge race! That's incredible; it's a miracle!

Each child, even one in the womb has gone through that and it's literally a miracle. The only difference between an unborn baby in the womb and a two-year-old, three-year-old child is what? It's just time, food and water; that's about the difference. They're both on the way towards their unique self. You have a 3.2-BILLION-letter gene set; that is your DNA. 3.2 BILLION letters long! Your unique 3.2-BILLION-letter gene set is unique from the moment of conception. We saw the chemical flash created when the sperm and egg hit; there's a chemical flash and it literally illuminates.

<https://faithit.com/flash-light-moment-conception-discovered-scientists/>

There's actually a chemical flash and then all of the 3.2-billion-letter gene set is set. That human is a unique human. The only difference between that baby at conception and as a two-year-old child is time, food and water. That's it; but it's already a unique set.

Objective vs. subjective reality

Let's get back to Scripture!

Hebrews are supposed to take care of their brothers and let them rest on the Sabbath; they're supposed to let them take a year off, they're supposed to let them take a season off, and they're supposed to free their slaves on the 50th year. If they have huge debts, they have to do that. As a Hebrew people they're taught to what? Ethically care for their people, care for the people that have a Covenant with God.

So, they're pursuing truth. When we look objectively at the universe, we see that it is expansive; we have all these incredible constant conditions that are sustaining this life here. That's true and we have a designer who has created us, who is immaterial, who is spaceless, who is timeless, who is incredibly knowledgeable, which means omniscient. He knows everything, He's omnipotent; He's super-powerful because He made everything. He's omnipotent as well, and of course he is personal because He chose to make something from nothing.

He chose to make something from nothing.

He chose to make something from nothing!

If we look at the objective universe, not in our subjective mind state, we can find these constant conditions. We can see the actual movement of the heavens and the stars; we can actually see the Mandelbrot set and the different mathematical sets; we can actually see them in the OBJECTIVE UNIVERSE. Not in our subjective delusions like the transgender ideology, "What is a woman," that show; subjective, in your mind! You may feel like a woman but your objective reality is you got a male set, and you got to use the male room if you got a male set. Are you with me, folks?

In America they used to call it 'male junk' or something like that but we don't want to demonize what God has created. I mean that's a holy place; Father called it 'palace.' That's not our junk, that's our PALACE, dang-on-it; you got to protect that palace. And of course, God blesses what? The fruit of our loins. He said to Jacob, "kings shall come out of thy loins" (Gen 35:11); which is what? Our seed. It means what? Our children; it means our grandchildren and great-grandchildren. It means all the children from our seed. So why do we call it the junk? That's Satan's language. That's what Father called the 'palace.' If you got a female set, you're going to the female room; you're not going to the male room. That's simple, right?

So, it doesn't matter what your subjective minds say inside; that has no connection to reality. Objective reality, we can measure, we can see and we can observe like the Mandelbrot set, like the Fibonacci spiral, like the different mathematical equations, etc. All these things are objective to us. It doesn't matter how I feel about it; it doesn't matter if you like it or not, they exist. Gravity, the weak force, all that exists; it doesn't matter if you like the speed at which things are cooling, the universal thermodynamics. It doesn't matter. They're objective to you.

So, when we observe the objective reality, we're observing and trying to find TRUTH. When we search for truth, we want to be what? OURSELVES, we want to be truthful; we VALUE ethics like "Don't lie! Be truthful! Don't lie, don't cheat, don't steal." Because you're not being truthful; you're stealing somebody else's work etc. "Don't cheat that way!" Because we value what? Truth. We value what? Truthfulness. We value those things and the Ten Commandments, "Don't steal, don't cheat, don't covet another man's wife! Don't do that! That's not true, that's not good; she is not a possession of your lust!" Amen! You got to respect that old lady - in the bikers' world, that's how you call a man's wife; his old lady- You got to respect that old lady; she's the queen of that kingdom; you don't just lust after her.

We value truth; thus, we value the values and ethics that produce what? Trust; we can trust our neighbor, "Hey brother, can you watch my house? I got to run down the shop really quick?" Or whatever the case may be. You can literally ask your neighbor to watch your property sitting on his porch; you trust him. You know you got that same value system; you know you both are seeking truth, you BOTH value being truthful. Amen! And that leads to what? Trust in society which then allows us to what? It allows us to have a higher standard of making promises, so when we make that promise we shake that hand - boom! - that's a covenant deal; that is done and done! If we promised it, we got to do it.

The end justifies the means

Unfortunately, the world we live in now is not any longer like that, but it used to be like that, "Your word is your bond," etcetera. Nowadays you got Antifa; do you think those fools are talking about "Your word is your bond"? No! "The end justifies the means!" Deceive, lie, burn things down, attack people, punch Trump's supporters in the face; sideswipe elderly Asian ladies in that freaking elevator. What the heck are you people doing? What are you doing?" It has nothing to do with truth; it has nothing to do with seeking truth or valuing the ethics of truth. It is what? It's just domination; it's revenge. It is, "You did something and I'm the victim so I'm going to punch this old grandma who's Asian." What was their explanation for that? That China sent the coronavirus. That part may be true but you don't just go punch a random Asian. She didn't send the dang virus; it was Fauci working with the Chicoms at the Wuhan lab that sent the dang virus. That lady in Brooklyn didn't do anything; she was trying to get her spring rolls from the Chinese restaurant. You come up and sideswipe her on the head! I mean what the heck is wrong with you people? This is crazy! Are you kidding me?

When you have a society like that you don't value truth, you don't value the ethics of truth, you don't value being truthful; all you value is getting power. That's why Marxism, communism and socialism never work because their fundamental substructure, their fundamental philosophy is not based on truth, not based on truthfulness; it's not based on being just and moral and earning the trust of people. No, none of that! It's about "might equals right." It's about "the end justifies the means." "Take up the valiant revolution against the bourgeoisie!"

In the modern set up, that means "get rid of the middle class!" That's the bourgeoisie? The middle class who has to work two, three jobs to be taxed at almost a forty to fifty percent tax rate? What are you talking about? That's not the bourgeoisie! The bourgeoisie is freaking Bill Gates; it's Jeff Bezos! How come you don't want to go after them?

Oh! They fund you!!

And now you want to hire 87,000 new IRS agents. If we look at the IRS track record, last year 51% of the people they went after were making under $70,000 as a couple; under 70k as a couple! THESE are the people the IRS is worried about! They promised nobody making under $400,000 a year is going to get audited. Didn't they promise that? Did they promise that or not? They did promise that. But you look at their 2021 set, and see that 50-plus percent of the people targeted make under 70k as a family. So, they completely brazenly lied to us. Obviously, we knew they're liars, and it's the first time in law-enforcement history that they put up on the sign-up sheet that you have to be willing to use DEADLY force. You're a freaking TAX collector; you're an accountant. Why do you need to have five million rounds of ammunition and why do you have to be willing and ready to use deadly force against the bad "bourgeoisie" who is making less than 70k as a family? That means mom and dad working MINIMUM wage! Hello! THAT'S whom we got to worry about! What's why we need the 87,000!

No, but you see, those people voted for Trump. Ah, okay! I see, I see. That's why you need that army to come after them, harass them, make them poorer, make them get lawsuits and make them even poorer, because then when you say, "NOW, you must accept the government handout," they are in a much more bendable position. They've become totally impoverished in lawsuits with IRS coming after them, auditing them, threatening them with jail time, threatening them with guns; men with guns coming to their property because they didn't pay their 364 dollars and 28 cents. Are you with me folks?

This is the type: 87,000 new crazies, people that are SALIVATING for governmental power to harass people. You got people with small-man syndrome wanting to HARASS hard-working people, come after them. Why? Because everybody who disagrees with Biden is a domestic TERRORIST; which means all of you and which means all of the MAGA Republicans which is 70 million plus, probably 80 million people. But they don't care. Hitler killed up to 12 million people; Mao killed up to 100 MILLION people. See folks, they don't care.

And remember, Kook Jin Nim was talking about this years ago. This is the way the big banks foreclose on a nation; that's how they put the red letters meaning "you're done, you're foreclosed; your house is going to be taken." That's how they do that. They're foreclosing on a country that's gone so much in debt and they target the population that is against the regime; that population is killed; their assets are stolen and the banks are REPLENISHED and repaid.

Do we have a little debt problem in America? Okay! You'll see why they're getting close to foreclosure now, especially as they got the regime in. They got the whole regime in now: executive, legislative, judicial, PLUS they got the entire educational apparatus, PLUS they got the whole media apparatus in their pocket. They got ALL power folks, and that's why the Left is absolutely the most dangerous party because it has control. In sociology it's called "social location"; they have the power of social location. Which means they control ALL the branches of power, they control media, education, the next generation etc., AND they're radical on top of that.

Some of the ideas on the right also are stupid and they're so dumb; they like warmongering. In fact, Father was against the Iraqi war; he was against it because he didn't like the fact that we were going after the Iraqis while eighteen of the hijackers were Saudi Arabians. But they didn't want to go bomb Saudi Arabia; they wanted to bomb Iraq. Then they wanted to go to Afghanistan who has the poppy seeds and an 80-billion heroin trade. Father said, "NO!" to those wars, "Those are not righteous wars. The people are being swindled and our young men will be sent over there being told lies." I mean the young men who were sent over there, the soldiers, they were not the ones making these decisions; they were not creating these wars. They were not deciding to do that; they were just being sent over there because they decided to serve their country. So, they were moral and they were honorable people but exploited by an apparatus that was totally corrupt and that profited BILLIONS of dollars off of the Iraqi oil; of course, CIA operations worldwide, Intelligence Agencies operations, that have now created an 80-billion-dollar heroin drug trade which they run.

That's so crazy; it's so ridiculous. That's why they call us conspiracy theorists because it's so ridiculous. The reality is so ABSURD. That's what the war mongers in DC love and that's what the socialist mongers in DC love as well: centralized powers!

14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

See, he made a covenant with the people of God in their own HOUSE as a Jew in the name of Yahweh, in the name of God the Father, YHWH. He made a covenant with his own people in the name of Yahweh and he broke it. Fast forward, God then said, "You will now be judged." He allowed Babylon to come through and Israel and the Temple were all destroyed; all of it was gone. This shows you that God is a God of Covenant; He's a God of truth. He values truth, He values the ethics of pursuing truth, He values the ethics of truth telling, of trying to be a truthful person, of living a truthful life. That means also an honorable life. Amen! That means choosing not just fame or fortune but choosing the right thing to do.

I mean you remember when we had to split from the Han mother, EVERYBODY was telling us, "You're stupid! You evil, wicked; you bad boy, you're stupid!" They were just hitting us with vitriol but we had to do it. We could not disgrace, dishonor and help DESECRATE True Father. No! Are you kidding me? NO! We had to choose right and honor. They said, "Oh, you're doing it for the money". I didn't take even one cent; we left it all there. You understand? That's eight to twelve billion dollars folks; there are not a lot of people in this world that will do that, throw away eight to twelve billion dollars. BILLIONS, not millions, you understand? Not millions; BILLIONS! It's like a whole freaking kingdom. I said, "Fine, we're not going to care about that. We're going to care about Father's legacy, his heritage; we're going to protect his lineage."

Father's Cain and Abel, that's what we did; Kook J-hyung and I, we had to make that DECISION, "No, Father's foundation is not about the money." And you can see how quickly that evaporates when the hammer of judgment falls as it's happening to the Family Fraud right now; it evaporates. Because God's real blessing is what? True Father's love, life, lineage. It's here; he established it. He established that Kingdom. The Constitution has been released, the Kingdom of God has been established and one day it will be on this earth. On this earth!

And guess what! Hey! Just give us some land, give us the freedom to operate the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, and you'll see; that will be one of the most prosperous places in the world, prosperous, flourishing. But power to the local, not to the federal or to the central power; to the local, which means the greatest BARRIERS towards what? Totalitarianism, authoritarianism, socialism, communism, political Satanism that will ever have existed. AND of course, more branches of power, more distribution of power not only through judicial, legislative, executive, but you have the Kingship line and you have the General Inspector; they're not chosen by masses of people, they're chosen by heritage and tradition and being Father's sons Cain and Abel. So, the politicians can't try to get a new one in; this is done by a hereditary line.

Then if we're against a war that the politicians are trying to start, guess what? We're going to use the platforms and all the people who know about the Kingship or General Inspector-ship; all those platforms will be used to go AGAINST your war if you were trying to make an evil war. You see what I'm saying? You see how much power that balance has? And the president doesn't become both king AND president; he only is in the realm of the executive branch, and he has to work with the Kingship, and work with the General Inspector-ship to do what he wants to do. Why? Because as Jordan Peterson said, every president wants to be king as well! Aah! That's why they have to be separated. Amen!

And whether people realize it or not, as a human being we desire symbolism; we desire to pursue those things which remind us of the good. That's why those symbolic traditions are important. That's why even though sometimes it feels like the holy days that Father established those art pieces that he established and all the 'pomp and circumstance', all the robes and the crowns and the gold, etc.; all that stuff seems repetitive but think about it over tradition. We've been doing that for fifty plus years.

Think about hundreds of years down the road; this tradition will be holding for hundreds of years. Why?

To REMEMBER who our King of Kings is,

To REMEMBER that Jesus and Father are one,

To REMEMBER who God is,

To REMEMBER the Covenant all the way stemming from the Sinai, through the Old, New and the Completed Testament. All those things. Do you understand? We're coming in contact with Father in those ceremonies. They are symbolic, representative of the process of restoration, salvation etc., so they're actually critical.

We read about Zedekiah in the Scripture today. God hated him; he kept on trying to create a society of deceit, but eventually that society led to what? Collapse, destruction. Babylon that was even a bigger society of deceit came in strong. "Might equals right," strong men win. They came in and they destroyed all of Israel, destroyed the Temple and brought decades and decades of captivity under slavery. That's where America must not go. Amen!

Getting back to that original symbolism of America and beyond that, we have to remember that the Founding Fathers, they didn't go as far as creating a monarch but they created the "castle doctrine". Every man has to be respected; his land must be respected as a king's kingdom. In the American legal code, we call it the "castle doctrine"; we don't have that anywhere else in the world. In America you have private property of land, you have a home; you are the king of that land.

Parenting with justice

That's why when we're training the young kings up, it's important not to do peaceful parenting. Peaceful parenting is fine, it sounds great and it's better than abusive parenting. But the best type of parenting is what? Just parenting. Just! That's why we're training the young kings in just parenting, being an honorable king, being a good priest, ruling with justice in your kingdom. When your kids grow and they try to address their grievances with the king and the queen, you are dealing with them judiciously. Even when they're having temper tantrums when they're young and they're having all sorts of stupid behavior because they're kids and kids act stupid; that's normal. I acted stupid when I was a kid; you did too. Everybody's stupid when they're kids.

But if you have that just parenting then, as they grow, they're going to want to live in that kingdom. They're going to really believe in the Kingdom of God because Mommy and Daddy were a just king and queen; they were a good priest and evangelist. Are you with me folks? So, learning about "just" parenting. Notice, I don't say "peaceful" parenting, because sometimes you have to use force. I'm not talking about like, "you're not eating your baby formula; let me beat you up!" No, that's an excessive use of force, isn't it, "how dare you not eat your guacamole? I'm going to beat you up." "You didn't eat your baby squash formula; you're bad!" That is unjust; that is WAY too much excess use of force! We have to be judicious with it.

I shared many times that when I was raising our kids, I didn't have to beat them up. I know how to beat people up. I mean I'm black belt Jiu-Jitsu so I know how to beat people; I know how to strangulate people and break people's arms and legs. But I knew with my kids I didn't need to beat them up; I can beat up adults but I don't need to beat up children. So, we work judicially with those kids; whenever there are issues, we don't use force. Now, that doesn't mean I'll never use force. If they do something stupid, for example they're physically attacking mom, then they're going to get freaking hurt. Daddy's going to come and hurt you and they know that. So, I'm not opposed to the use of force but we have to use that justly; it can't be excessive. That's why with my children we didn't have to whip them, we didn't have to do that kind of stuff because we could raise them with justice and of course building that one-on-one relationship and talking with them through a lot of the issues, negotiating and then earning their trust.

Because parents have to earn their trust too. They don't just come out trusting you. Especially when they hit their teens, you got to start earning that trust. They're going to realize, "Oh you know Daddy and Mommy they're truthful; they actually are on my side." Because the whole world is telling them, "No, they're not; your dad and mom are against you; WE are on your side!" The psychologists in the schools they're on your side; all those liberals they're on your side! They're trying to tell you that your parents are the ones who are traditional, they're the ones that are trying to oppress you; they're the ones that are trying to control you and make you conservative slaves to be married and chained to a wedding bed.

This is the hatred of children; your children are a slave chain. We got young Queen Christine here; she had a baby, "Oh, that's her slave chain, tied now to the bed." Do you understand? This is the Satanist view of children. That's why they want to kill them, that's when they want to sacrifice them in blood rituals, that's why they want to EAT them; because they see them as nothing more than clumps of FLESH and energy which they can consume for their own power. That's wicked!

The Four Great Realms of heart

We see children as what? As the Bible says,
THEY are a blessing from God.

THEY are the ones that are going to hold the Covenant alive,

THEY are the ones that continue the relationship with God; when we're gone, we're going to live through them.

THEY are the ones that are going to be the protectors and the UPHOLDERS of honor and virtue and truth. You see, they're going to be the next generation heroes, BUT they have to be VALUED first.

You can't think they're just compounds of cells; a piece of trash and you can use them in Satanic rituals and kill them. NO! You have to see them as valuable; they're precious, they're BLESSINGS and those children make Mommy and Daddy grow; those children make us become better kings and priests, queens and evangelists. Nothing is guaranteed but we have to train there; it's absolutely critical.

That's how we live a full life; we hit the four realms of heart. That's what Father talked about, developing the four realms of heart: the parental realm, the spousal realm, the brothers' and sisters' realm, the children's realm. We experience ALL those levels of heart. That's why Kingdom building is also training in all those elements: being better husband and wife, being better parents, being better brother and sister, bring better children. Amen!

We're training there because that is building the Kingdom ethics, the Kingdom virtue, the pursuit of truth and truthfulness, and then it creates brotherly and neighborly TRUST which then produces what? Freedom and responsibility, protecting another person's rights, your neighbor's rights; freedom and responsibility which then produces economic flourishing. But it comes from the internal dispositions of pursuing truth. Amen! Whoo! God is good! Come on, give GOD some GLORY today folks!
(Applause) Praise the Lord Almighty!
Let's pray.

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this beautiful day today. You blessed us with a beautiful healing rain this season, nourishing the earth.

The heavens declare the glory of God,
The fish of the sea sing the glory of God,
The birds in the air sing the glory of God!

Job 12 and 7 says they are shouting and telling Your name.

So let us listen to those things. Let us hear, and see the beautiful expanse of the nighttime sky and the billions of stars that surround us, and looking into the infinitude realize that You are the God that created the truth from which all is judged, from which all is differentiated.

Let us pursue that truth!

Let us pursue the ethics of truth!

Let us pursue being truthful, and even though we're not perfect,

Let's pursue that and get better every day.

So that we then produce the culture of ethics, the truth ethics, the pursuit of truth and ethics and the pursuit of honor and virtue, which then expands to trust in neighborhoods with neighbors and contractual bonds and meanings and covenants and shaking the hands and giving your word as your bond, etc. This builds up a stronger culture and through that freedom is expanded. At the same time with freedom comes responsibility to also pursue the protection of the rights of your fellow men, the rights of your neighbors; to not impede them but allow and celebrate that freedom together with them and protecting each other which then leads to tremendous blessing and prosperity.
But God, this doesn't come from the opposite way; it always stems from pursuing You.

Father, we thank You so much for this beautiful day that You blessed us with. We thank You for these words from Jeremiah, the warnings that You gave King Zedekiah of the eventual fall and the consuming of the Jewish people into Babylon; of the utter destruction, the terrible destruction of the Temple and all that ensued to a people who had sought to pursue deception and had fallen away from You.

Dear God, you're calling America at this time because America was not just another nation that was seeking for cake or seeking power or a regime change. America was a nation that said, "Let the British monarchy live over there across the pond, but we here have a COVENANTAL relationship with the GOD of Israel and the GOD of the Hebrews and the GOD of the Bible, YHWH, and we have a COVENANTAL bond and we will CONSECRATE this America on Ground Zero of 9/11 to the Almighty God of the Bible and Jesus Christ who will rule with us in these United States of America."

Father, let us RETURN to those founding PRINCIPLES and UPHOLD them as not only "Make America Great Again" but "Make America Godly Again," so that we can return to those fundamental precepts which led to economic flourishing.

We are now going the opposite way, dear God, we're losing the value of truth. We're saying now that "might equals right." We're saying that if you have the power of government, you can just force people to do this and that, indoctrinate the kids and force Drag Queen Story Hour on everybody and doing more and more unbelievable travesty, raiding Mar-a-Lago, and all these terrible things that are happening. But we see we're going in the OPPOSITE direction, in reverse towards the other realm which is Satan.

Let us turn that tide by AWAKENING here, returning back to You, PRAYING and asking YOUR counsel, to be led by You and also to become better Rod of Iron kings and queens, priests and evangelists that will raise our children with JUST parenting. Even though we're not perfect we are improving every day and giving You the glory with each living breath.

We want to thank You for all these things that You blessed us with today with all the fellowship and the folks that are here listening to this Word. We want to give praise, glory and honor with all the kingship lines gathered here today. In Your precious name we pray. Amen! Amen! Aju!
All right folks, let's all rise and give Him the glory. Amen!
