Ripening of the Fig Tree

September 18, 2022- TN

Thank you, King Kyle. God bless you all in PA. Hey, we got some folks from PA here too! Welcome! We have so many people sitting back here; we're already overflowing. Our community's growing so quickly. Praise God!

Today we are in Mark chapter 11. There's a lot of stuff to cover here. We're going to cover the whole chapter, hopefully; we'll see if we get through a couple of lines. Sometimes, we go through one line and we have an eight-hour service, so we have to see. Maybe we can break that record today and have a twelve-hour service!

Mark 11: 1- 21

This is Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and the public proclamation as the King enters Jerusalem.

1 And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

- 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?
- 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.
- 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.
- 8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.
- 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:
- 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.
- 11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.
- 12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:
- 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.
- 14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.
- 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;
- 16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
- 17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.
- 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
- 19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.
- 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
- 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

The Davidic King on a donkey!

Praise God! Let's just stop here for now. Here in the beginning of the chapter we see Jesus making his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. This is supposed to be a triumphant entry? This is the Davidic Messiah; this is the Davidic King! All the prophecies of the Old Testament were talking about this Davidic Messiah who would come, and he would not only be a spiritual leader or a peace activist, etc. No! He would be king, ruler, judge; he would be a political figure as well; as Jesus WAS. He was already a political figure. He was already disrupting the entire Roman Empire. The whole area of Jerusalem was being TERRIBLY disrupted. So, he was already a very controversial political figure and they were coming after him.

Just like they're coming after us and all the patriots! 87,000 IRS agents, they're already coming after me, they're coming after the Church, they're coming after all the middle class; 87,000 new hires at the IRS, hard at work, trying to go after the patriots and of course Trump and all that.

By the way, the Queen is translating today. Let's give her a big hand of encouragement! (Applause)

So, the Israelites were waiting for the Davidic Lord, the Messiah; he would be triumphant, he would be mighty in battle, God, Yahweh. He was supposed to be the triumphant Messianic King, the powerful one that would come on the clouds and he would rule and rain over His Kingdom. The entire world would bow to Him, the entire world would fall to their knees and worship the Lord. This was how it was supposed to be.

At least he had to come in on a white horse or some nice Calvary steed; he had to be surrounded by some people! But he had come into Jerusalem on a donkey! On a donkey, folks! Oh my gosh! Now, you understand, for the Israelites who were just of the flesh and who were just looking at the externals, they were looking at him, questioning, "How can the Lord come on a donkey? How is that possible? I heard all the prophets, and all the rabbis telling us that the Messiah, the Davidic King would come and take over Jerusalem and he would rule the whole WORLD. This guy named Yeshua is from Nazareth. Can anything good come out of Nazareth?"

That's what Nathaniel asked (John 1: 46) Remember, in the beginning when Jesus called him from under the fig tree? The Gospels refer to him as Bartholomew. But he asked, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" What an evil thing to ask because that was a stone mason town, a blue-collar worker town, a carpentry town etc.

So, you understand, the expectation was power, might, the holy armies of Heaven, the Holy Host, all the Seraphim and Cherubim, all the powerful angels coming down, and the Messianic King was going to take over. He was going to rule, he was going to destroy Rome, he was going to change the entire world, he was going to establish His Kingdom on Earth. That's why during his first years of ministry what did Jesus call the Gospel? He didn't call the Gospel the "gospel of death, burial and resurrection". He said the gospel of what? The Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven. Each time Jesus mentions the Gospel, he calls it the gospel of what? Of the Kingdom of God. He's talking about KINGDOM, folks!

Now look at 1 Corinthians 2: 8:

"None of the rulers of this age understood it. For if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

They would NOT have crucified the Lord of glory! That's what the Bible says. If the rulers of the world, Pontius Pilate, Caesar, all of them had understood His message, they would not have crucified Him.

Now imagine, Jesus is rolling on a donkey. On a donkey! Oh, my goodness! Are you kidding me?

"THIS is supposed to be the Lord of Glory? THIS is supposed to be whom we've been waiting for? This man has no power." He's coming up on a donkey that has flies rolling around on it, and they're cutting palm leaves and throwing them at his feet. Now, imagine how embarrassing it must be for the twelve disciples! They have to go in front of this donkey and put the straw down and then run here and there to get more and all the people are looking, “What the heck are these twelve fools doing?” And they're shouting, “Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest!”

And here he is on a donkey!

You think about it from their perspective; how embarrassed they were, how ashamed they were! They know the Jewish expectations; they know the Israelites' expectations of the Davidic King. And here's the Messiah, God in the flesh now rolling in on a donkey! There are thousands of people watching these twelve guys, “What the heck are these people doing?” He's going through the market; they're laying down the straw and hay. Think how embarrassing that is! They WISHED that everybody in Jerusalem had come and welcomed him. They WISHED that he were the most popular one, but he was the most controversial. And of course, they crucified Christ. Why? Because of the faithlessness of the people. They crucified Christ.

Jesus the King

Now imagine if from John the Baptist everybody else came out BOLDLY and proclaimed Christ. John the Baptist, he was a social media giant, he was the big kahuna in the pond of Jerusalem; he was a big one, he was a prophet. Even in the Scripture, they said the Pharisees didn't want to condemn Jesus. Why? Because they were scared of John the Baptist; that's at the end of the chapter, we'll get into that. Especially when Jesus asked THEM:

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell

Remember, this is like America is now; this is a waning era of the epoch of the Roman Empire; it's going down. Homosexuality, pedophilia, transgenderism, effeminate men, overarching wars everywhere, empire getting too big, debt, inflation; all that. Basically, Biden is the Caesar and then it's that kind of situation where the nation is now collapsing; it is falling down.

So, it was an opportune time for Christ to be put up as king. Imagine if Christ was king; let's say he just became King of Jerusalem and not Pontius Pilate for example.

Would Jesus call out the Pharisees? Of course, because even before that he was already calling out the Pharisees. He would tell other people all about the Pharisees, the Sadducees and their ties with the Roman Empire.

Do you not think he would come against the tax collectors that were robbing the Israelites?

Do you not think he would give the people what? Sovereignty and freedom?

Do you not think he would put the millstones around the necks of the pedos and send them to the bottom of the ocean?

He would come as a JUDGE! He would come with great power. He would set up what?

Righteousness and holiness back in the Temple; set up holiness and righteousness back in the country of Israel in the waning era of the epoch of the Roman Empire. So, as the Roman Empire is going to socialism, communism and political Satanism, here would be this little bastion of righteousness and freedom.

Truth begets trust

Last week we explained how this was all connected. If a people pursue truth, then they pursue truth-telling people; if people pursue truth-telling people then there's more trust within the community because we value the principles of truth-telling people, of truthful people, of pursuing truth. We value those principles; thus, we try to abide by them as communities and thus we can better trust one another because we all value truth-telling. Whereas if Antifa and BLM get in control, they don't value truth-telling; they value power. That's all the Communists value; they just value POWER. That's all they want. They do anything for power, ANYTHING for power!

So, in that society can you trust anybody? No! If that's the overarching cultural milieu, how do you trust your neighbor? They might burn your house down if they get upset on a fit of rage, and as in Illinois, the Capones won't even arrest them; after January 1st arson is no longer a detainable crime. Oh, my gosh! Are you kidding? Secondary homicide no longer a detainable crime! KIDNAPPING no longer a detainable crime! Are you kidding me folks? This is Romper Room on steroids.

How can this even be real, folks? We were talking about possible things like that seven years ago, and remember the amount of vitriol we got! Every single one of you was called conspiracy theorist, right? Every single one of you. All the brilliant woke liberals were so edumacated. They were trained by their professors; they adopted the indoctrination SO well like good little sheep, and they believed the lie, so they said, "You're crazy."

But look at the country now! Look at what is happening! You have now that kind of situation erupting in a huge state with millions of people living there, folks. How many people live in Illinois? Oh, millions, millions. They're going to be raped and ravaged. You can't even detain anybody who's kidnapping your daughter or grandchildren? You won't detain them? You won't detain anybody who's burning down your HOUSE? WHAT? You won't detain anybody who will commit a second-degree homicide? That doesn't make any sense whatsoever.

What's the purpose of law enforcement then? There's no real purpose for them, other than becoming what? The jackboot thugs of the IRS and the Feds when they want to come after the Illinois people and their guns, or the fang in the lion's mouth; they want to de-fang the lion so they can do what they wish. Wicked! Wicked! But this is the state of affairs that we are now dealing with in this country, folks.

50 migrants on Martha's Vineyard

You remember how the Left were so adamant about, "Oh, we have to take care of the undocumented people. Send them to all the impoverished counties of El Paso and different places in Texas and conservative states." But oh, if you dare send them to Martha's Vineyard? Within TWO days, 48 hours, the Army will come and remove those 50 people! 50 people was a humanitarian crisis, folks! 50 people on Martha's Vineyard! An all-white, rich, liberal area! All these crazy rich liberal white moral-posturing racists saying that they love brown and black people and that they make our country strong if they come in illegally. But what are they doing to these SAME people? Pushing them out because they came in their backyard. They declared a humanitarian crisis, "We don't have the social services. We really want to help them, but we just don't have that infrastructure. We need to call the Army in now."

The Obamas own a fifteen-million-dollar waterfront property, "Get them off the lawn!" How liberal and tolerant! They're not allowing the migrants to defecate on their lawns yet? What's wrong with that? (Laughing) They're just so intolerant folks, so intolerant. They should be inviting them, putting up porta potties on their lawn. Obama should have been doing that, right. But he came out like the McCloskey couple in Missouri, so-called 'white supremacist guy' who was defending himself and his family when BLM was running through town.

They chased those 50 migrants out like there was no tomorrow, because DeSantis sent them. Now this is an incredible thing because this is a governor helping to relocate undocumented people whom these liberals desperately want to help, and he's helping them and sending them to sanctuary cities which they've set up to help them. He's only helping these folks and the liberal bastions that are calling for this type of thing. So, he is a great humanitarian trying to aid the federal government and be a helping hand for what they desire! (Laughing)

But of course, now he's being called a human trafficker, "He's trafficking people, using people, and their LIVES are at risk!" But their lives are not at risk when the Left is letting them pour into El Paso or into parts of New Mexico or relocating to Colorado and all that. You're talking about MILLIONS of people; millions! That's not a humanitarian crisis. But if 50 show up on the white liberal rich racist bastion of Martha's Vineyard who all say they love brown and black people, then they CHASE those brown and black people OUT quickly; within 48 hours they chase them brown and black people OFF that Island! Oh, Lord, have mercy! Hypocrites, hypocrites, TOTAL hypocrites! Wicked, wicked hypocrites! Moral-posturing hypocrites, like the Pharisees.

You don't think Jesus, if he was the King of Jerusalem, he would not call out those Pharisees, he would not expose their ties with the Roman Government in selling out their people? They are working as a CIA Intelligence Agency of the Roman Empire for Jerusalem; basically, they're one of the deputy directors of Jerusalem for the CIA of Rome. They're Intelligence gatherers; they're transmitting information back to Rome and to Caesar. That's why Paul eventually has to go and be tried in front of Caesar because information is being transmitted from the Pharisees to Pontius Pilate and from Pontius Pilate to Caesar, etc. They're part of the Intelligence Agency data-gathering system. You don't think Jesus would SEVER that, that he would EXPOSE that and let the people know that these people, the Pharisees and the Scribes, were against them?

Imagine if John the Baptist used his power and his influence and his popularity and his FAME to uplift Jesus when he came out. He was going to get his head chopped off anyway, he might as well do it and make the kingdom bigger. But he shied away and people shied away, scared.

And Jesus here he is, rolling in on a donkey; on a donkey, smelly flies, twelve guys, red faces, putting down palm leaves.

This is the MESSIANIC DAVIDIC KING! This is GOD on EARTH, Emmanuel, and He's rolling into Jerusalem on a donkey! Oh my gosh!

Imagine how much the Pharisees would laugh and scoff at this! They would laugh. And imagine how PETRIFIED those twelve would feel because they know every single one of them is on a list; every single one of them is on a CIA, FBI watch list so-to-speak of the Roman Empire. EVERY single one of them! And they're attempting to try him for capital punishment as somebody who's disrupting the public and creating a VIOLENT revolution; they're trying to KILL him and of course kill his disciples as well and that's why they betray him. Peter three times etc. You understand the type of political milieu and atmosphere that he's in folks; this is INTENSE, intense!

Here he is on a colt, riding in. It's not a beautiful majestic steed, it's a little colt; this little ugly old donkey, old tattered garments on it and this is the Lord of Glory! Imagine if you were there! How unbelievable that would be!

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple:

That would be like Jesus in the modern days entering the Vatican on a donkey, rolling into Saint Peter's Basilica with twelve guys putting palms down. Into the Vatican! And not only does he roll up in there, and not only does he start rebuking the place, but he starts acting up. He starts throwing people around! Can you imagine if Jesus walked into the current Vatican right now on a donkey. He would come out, and say, "You've made my Father's house into a den of thieves," and he would go and start TEARING down those statues that they put up; all those sculptures of Michelangelo, etc. He would throw red paint on the ceiling or black paint or white paint, or whatever color. Imagine what Rome would do. That is a national treasure in terms of Rome and Italy.

In Jerusalem you can't just walk up into the Temple! That's the NATIONAL treasure of Jerusalem, that's the national treasure of Israel. You can't just walk up to Solomon's Temple and start throwing stuff around; you will be arrested, detained. In that ancient time, you'd probably be killed.

Imagine what would happen to you if you did that in the Vatican in this current age. You would definitely be detained; you'd definitely be thrown in prison, probably given a lifetime sentence- whatever the case may be- especially if you were vandalizing and throwing stuff around and breaking stuff. Oh Lord! You're going to be in trouble for that! You would make international news etc.; which we're used to, and we don't even try.

Vice

These people are so crazy! Vice wants to do a documentary, "Oh, we want to do a documentary with Pastor Sean. He's going to be on Netflix and millions of people will see it." I said, "No! Not interested." We're not interested in trying to become famous; we are interested in building the KINGDOM of God. We're not interested in getting on Netflix and all these kinds of places. We said, "Look Vice, if you guys want to do an interview, that's fine. Come to the Freedom Festival; we'll have an interview with you. But I'm not going to do any show." I know how these shows work.

Anybody who's done these shows have had their families torn up; they go on purposely trying to lie and create drama between people. They don't come in saying, "We won't lie; we won't cheat." They PURPOSELY tell lies, that this person said that about Neil, said that about Paul, and make them fight so they can shoot them having a drama and then put it on their next commercial break. That's how they play it in these reality TV shows. They want to make me the next Tiger King or whatever. I said, "Forget it; not interested." If I was craving for fame, I'd be, "Oh! Wow! I'm going to be on Netflix! Wow! Millions of people see it!" Give me a break! Give me a break! "Come to the festival if you want to do interviews. We got other international news there, so, fine; we can schedule you in and do interviews. No problem." But I'm not interested in making charade.

What if they recognized Him?

The point is:

Imagine if Jerusalem was flipped over that way.

Imagine if instead of crucifying the Lord of Glory, the princes of the world could recognize Him.

Imagine if John the Baptist could help the princes of the world recognize who Jesus was. Then Imagine how Jerusalem would be the microcosm; it would be the starting point.

Imagine the Kingdom Constitution to start dropping there!

Imagine the preservation of human rights to start dropping there! Whoo!

You don't think Jesus looking at that whole scenario with Pontius Pilate selling out Jerusalem and using it as tax cow for Rome, you don't think he would cut that tax stream off?

You don't think Jesus would go in and start saying, "My people, gather unto me," and start training them up?

You don't think he would keep the land to be protected by its own people namely the Israelites?

You don't think he would defend Solomon's Temple and keep that place holy?

You don't think he would go after what God calls "abominations," like transgenderism and LGBT?

That try to sell what? Legal rights for children, which means what? LEGALISATION of pedophilia!

That's what they want.

You don't think he would go after the Roman practice of raping young boys?

You don't think he would go after that?

Oh yeah, he would go after that! Jesus would go after that! Do you understand?

So, that PLACE would become the righteous center of the world, and that PLACE would become the center of the Constitution of the Kingdom of God, Cheon Il Guk. Bam! Right there. It would start exploding, growing. Those human rights delineated and given to us by God, those natural rights would be expounded.

People would be able to have sovereignty; God promised them that land, the Promised Land for themselves.

They would be able to hold sovereignty.

They would be able to what? Defend that sovereignty.

They would become what? Kings and priests, co-heirs with Christ.

Oh, my Lord, have mercy! That would be the beginning of the Kingdom of God.

In the midst of worldwide tyranny, in the midst of worldwide Roman hegemony, in the midst of authoritarianism WORLDWIDE, not one place with freedom, not one. But that would be it, folks. Evil would be punished, the pedos would be punished; good people would be protected, their human rights would be protected. And the very GOVERNMENT which was raping and RAVAGING them, you don't think that Christ would start overturning and taking away their POWER?

So, they could rule with what? Conscience, "love God, love your neighbor"; protecting one another, having a sense of responsibility for one another. See, these are all the principles of the Kingdom Constitution; that's why it was given to us by God. Imagine how much that landscape would be different! Whoo! That would be incredible! EVERYBODY would be flocking to get there. Why? Because pursuing TRUTH, truth tellers, truth telling etc., this produces then TRUST in the society between neighbors; then that produces what? Better contracts, better promises, better win-win interactions through business and enterprises; that creates economic wealth. Bam! It creates a wealthy prosperous place.

A culture of distrust

When you take that away, you have a place running on POWER, no trust, "The end justifies the means," you can't trust anybody, and you just got to kill, kill, kill for power. You got to do whatever it takes to get power. How can you trust anybody? That's why these people in authoritarian regimes, they're killing off their siblings, they're killing off their wives, you see, because they can't trust anybody. It's a culture of DISTRUST. It's what Alexander Solzhenitsyn wrote about in The Gulag Archipelago under Stalin. He said, "OUR RELIGION is distrust. You take AWAY GOD and now you have a new religion; it's called distrust. Distrusting your fellow men, stepping on them to get the POWER! That's the name of the game; that's the religion." Oh Lord, have mercy! Are you with me folks?

In THAT society how can you have economic flourishing? You can have economic what? COLLAPSE! You're going to have an ever-growing state, you're going to have an incredible debt; you're going to have payoffs and bribery, which of course the welfare state is. It's to pay out the voting block to keep it voting for socialism, communism, leftism, political Satanism. You're going to CONTINUE to have that until the very end when you run out of ALL money, and inflation is so high and what? Foreclosure has to come and genocide is going to be done; genocide after foreclosure, kill off the enemies that you've polarized and stigmatized and separated from the normal population that is compliant. And once you stigmatize, polarize and "exorcize" them away, then you KILL them and you take their assets. As Hitler did with the Jews to pay off the banks! People don't know that. He killed the Jewish community, took all their assets, millions of dollars and paid off the banks that had funded his war campaigns. Hello! Whoo! Foreclosure.

That's how it WORKS! That's why socialism, communism, political satanism in the end ALWAYS lead to economic RUIN because all those things are connected: truth, trust, win-win enterprise, economic flourishing. Opposite: pursuit of power, "the end justifies the means," do whatever you can to get power. "Survival of the fittest" is their excuse; we just act like animals.

That creates a system of distrust. You can't trust your neighbor; you got to rat your neighbor out. You got to TELL on him! "He has more than five people in his home. Get him, get him, get him, get him! No masks; more than five people in his home!" You got to rat your neighbor out. It's a religion of DISTRUST! It's a culture of TELLING on one another; not protecting one another, but TELLING on one another to get the "authorities" to come in. It's a culture of moral posturing. It's a culture of BRIBES, economic ruin, collapse. The government will have to only increase to give out more bribes to the people so they can keep winning their votes, giving them free stuff. Economic collapse 100% always ensues. And that's the path we are on; that's the path that America is on right now.

He manufactured a weapon

Now, can you imagine Jesus walking into the Temple? That's the national treasure of Israel. It's the national treasure, it's nationally the most protected place and he's walking into the Temple.

John 2:15 said, "And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;"

Jesus made a scourge which is a whip with cords that has blades on it; then he started whipping the money changers. He MANUFACTURED a weapon for the purpose of assault; that would be an assault weapon. He manufactured a weapon. God made the Flaming Sword in the Garden so he manufactured a weapon and JESUS who is God in the flesh, he also manufactured a scourge to WHIP the money changers out of the Temple!

"Oh, my gosh! Oh, my gosh! How dare you say God is a weapon manufacturer?"

Well, He punishes EVIL! He punishes evil, and He WILL create the tools to punish evil. We saw that in the Garden; we saw it in Jerusalem. Amen! That's why the Rod of Iron Kingdom is connected with that; God creates the tools and the modern technology for that era so that people can stand up against tyranny.

11 --- "and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, ..."

So, he hung around the Temple all day long until evening, throwing people out, chasing animals out, overturning tables, acting violent; not acting like the California Jesus, not acting like the Hollywood Jesus, "I came to bring peace, peace, peace, peace." Even though he said in Matthew 10," 34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother-in-law." He came to separate people from evil. Amen!

--- "he went out unto Bethany with the twelve."

So, he's in there wreaking havoc until the evening time, and then they go to Bethany with the twelve. Bethany means "the house of poverty"; the end of the word meaning "poverty."

The fig tree

12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

There is a fig tree in the land of the house of poverty and the fig tree is what? Impoverished; it's not producing fruit.

Now, it's interesting! People don't realize that the fig was a symbol for what? God's chosen people; the symbol for Israel, the symbol for the chosen people. Many times, throughout Scripture God will relate Israel with the success of the fig tree. When the people flourish, when they take in the land, then the fig will grow. God gives us this kind of prophecy throughout Scripture. We see the fig tree; that's the only tree named in what? In the Garden of Eden. After Adam and Eve fell, they covered their lower parts with the fig leaf; the fig leaf is way at the beginning in the Garden. It also pops up in Revelation chapter 6, so it's way at the end too. The fig tree pops up all throughout Scripture and it's a symbol of the people of God, the children of God, the chosen people, and in this case a symbol of Israel. And the fig tree is not bearing fruit!

I did a little study on fig trees. I know it's not as exciting as overturning tables and making whips and whipping money changers and calling out the Pharisees as the CIA of the Roman Empire. I know that but the fig tree is very interesting. A fig fruit is actually not a fruit, it's a flower; it's a flower that's inside, internal. It's a flower that grows within a fleshy stem and that is what you see in the fig. You see that little thing on the top of the fig? Let's call it fruit for now; at the top that's called the eye of the fig.

Now there's a male and there's a female fig. Did you know that? There's a male and a female fig, and there's something called a fig wasp. I'm not making this up! There's a thing called a fig wasp; it's the size of a gnat. It can pass through the eye of a needle. It's a wasp that is so small it goes through the fig eye; that's where it lays babies. So, it lays the babies inside the male fig fruit. The babies come out. The males mix with the females in there and then the males and the females get out.

Now while they were rummaging around inside that male fig, all that pollen got onto their bodies. You understand how that works folks? There are flowers inside the fig; they're flowers and all that pollen got up on those small little wasps coming out of there. Now all those little fig wasps start going into the eyes of different fig fruit -what we traditionally call the fig fruits. Some of them go into the male ones and some of them go into the female ones. Ah! See? Some of the fig wasps go into the female figs. They bring the pollen from where? The male fig, and now they take it into the female fig. Isn't that crazy? Then once the pollen starts fertilizing the female fig, then the flowers bear fruit. Are you with me folks?

When you open a fig, you see all those little seeds, those little tadpole things connected to it, that's the fruit. But those were flowers. Isn't that interesting? Those were flowers but once fertilized by the fig wasp they became fruit, so there are actually hundreds of fruits inside one fig. Each one of those little things with the seed and the fleshy tadpole kind of thing that is one fruit, so there are like a hundred fruits in one fig. Isn't that incredible folks? Are you with me? That's pretty crazy, isn't it? God is amazing; God is incredible!

But Jesus used that as a metaphor because he needs to bring the pollen or the seed from the male fruit, the Father, to the bride which is Israel, and he needs to fertilize it. Then through it, there would be a lineage; there would be a Davidic line, and through that Davidic line who's from the blessed Abraham lineage, the Messiah would come.

But it's interesting because now he CURSED that fig tree because it wasn't what? He was here, the time was nigh; it's now and it doesn't produce fruit. It's barren; in the land of poverty, it is impoverished. So, he CURSES that fig tree and that fig tree ends up withering and dying. They had not produced fruit in the time of the fertilization of the fig tree. They did not produce and now they were going to kill him; they're going to destroy him.

So, what happened to that fig tree? As Christ said: the Temple would be torn down; it would be destroyed. In 70 A.D after they killed him, the prophecy came true. Israel WAS destroyed. People were displaced in the Diaspora all around the world etc., even to the Far East, to Africa, everywhere. Barren landscape now! Interesting folks, isn't it?

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

They're now plotting to kill him to destroy him who brings the fertilization of the fig, of Israel. He will bring the seed, he will bring the pollen, he will bring the fertilization and the fruit will start bearing if they unite with him. So, the fig tree becomes a metaphor for what? The faithlessness of the people, the faithlessness of Israel, and it is cursed. At the time of course it's under Roman rule, there are mostly Romans then, even though they are hereditarily Jewish.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

So, he said to the twelve disciples, "Now you chosen people, this fig tree is withered, this fig tree is not going to be united with me; this fig tree is going to be barren but YOU, you my twelve, YOU will have fruit. That is, when you pray, it will come to pass." Now, after the Returning Lord, the body of Christ becomes the inheritors of that fruit through faith.

Lord, remove that mountain!

But the point is: folks, people see this prayer and they say, "Well, I can move mountains. I can move mountains." Let's bring it down to the microcosm. Let's say they have a squabble between husband and wife in the blessed family realm. Husband and wife have squabble and you have the wife praying for God to "REMOVE that mountain from my husband's heart" or you have the husband praying, "Dear Lord, REMOVE that mountain from my wife's heart, from her hardened heart!" (Laughing)

Many times, folks, especially in this relationship that God has blessed and ordained and covenantly connected, WE point out the mountain in our spouse, or if we're parents, we point out the mountain in our children. But many times, where's the mountain? You all know what I'm talking about. Where's the mountain? Many times, it's right here (in our heart); that mountain is right here. So, we may be praying fervently for our husband; he's not doing this or he's not serving the Lord or whatever the case may be. And every time we try to talk to him about the socks or the toothpaste or the baking soda or whatever it is, he wants to run away, he wants to disassociate, he wants to take a walk; he's always avoiding, "I'm just trying to talk to him but he's always avoiding me. So, I'm going to pray." The faithful queens are going to PRAY for their king, “Lord, have that terrible hardened mountain removed from his heart; remove that mountain from his heart! Lord, remove that mountain from his heart!”

Oh God! See, it's interesting because it said a couple of verses down that you got to forgive.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. 26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

You got to forgive him; you can't have the animosity. Forgiving doesn't mean he won't change; it means that you can't have any hang up, you cannot have any anger or bitterness against him. Now, you can approach him wisely like the wise Queen.

Words from the wise Queen

The Queen always gives good advice to the young queens, “When you try to talk to your husband, you got to set an appointment with your king. Then make sure you do not cry.” Don't make any emotional leverage, don't cry. Act like an adult, speak to him like an adult; he's an adult. Don't try to guilt-shame him like an emotional wreck. DON'T do that! You'll fail! NO emotional leverage! Be honest, be truthful; no emotional leverage.

“*So, don't cry. Write down your thoughts in advance.” It's a very good tip, a very good practice. Write down your thoughts in advance. God told the folks who wrote the Gospel, “write it down.” Write down what you want to talk to your husband about. Don't get all jumbled up, all spaghettied out into freaking “the mother-in-law and the grandchild, etc.” It has nothing to do with it. Stay on topic; just stay on target. Don't cry, don't use emotional leverage; treat him like an adult. That shows respect. If you're using emotional leverage just to win an argument you are now cheating; in his view you're cheating. “Stop cheating! You're using that to make me feel guilty and give up.” So, don't do that. Godly women shouldn't do it.

So, don't cry, write down your thoughts, stay on topic and keep your promise of the allotted time. If you promise twenty minutes you've got to keep it under twenty minutes. Are you with me queens? If you promise twenty minutes you cannot go on for two or three hours. If you do that, that man will never trust you again when you promise twenty minutes, never; he won't trust it.

Because that's not how men sort out their issues; that's not how they confront their issues. In the women's landscape, okay yes you have to talk out your feelings, you have to cry together. You know what I'm saying? You have to talk, many times a couple of hours, it's fine, and then hug at the end, “Thank you. I'm so sorry. I love you.” That kind of stuff.

THAT'S not happening with an alpha male! I'm sorry. God didn't make him like that. He's not your girlfriend. He's a KING and a priest; he's not your girlfriend. Are you with me? He's not your girlfriend. So, you got to deal with him properly in the way that God made him; that is, you got to respect him when you're dealing with him. THAT's the quickest way to change a man!

You know the slowest way to change a man? Break those promises on time limit, talk about everything else under the sun when you want to talk about a certain topic, and what? Cry, cry, cry, cry, cry; emotional leverage and make him feel guilty. That is the WORST way! That's below white-belt level of trying to change him! Are you with me folks? Below white-belt level! You haven't even started playing the game yet.

Love & respect

So, we got to be wiser. Amen! Of course, pray for him. Let me tell you this little secret: men are actually quite sensitive; when we have to change something it's quite painful. So, even if we have to change for example with the socks issue or the toothpaste issue or whatever the issue is, that is a tremendous amount of ego shift we got to do, "WOAH! I got to change the toothpaste! This is MY house, dang-on-it!" Right, we want to do that, but we have to remember, "Okay, in Ephesians chapter 5 the Lord commanded us to unconditionally love our wife." Just as the Lord commanded her to unconditionally respect her husband.

You got it both ways; both of us got a commandment. Men, we got to unconditionally love our wife, which is not easy. Women, you got to unconditionally respect your husband even though that's not easy. But they are commandments; they're not suggestions. They're commandments, so we got to do it. It's not easy but we do it; we try, okay we try. So, on the microcosmic realm, in the relationship realm, no, no, no, it's not always about, "God remove that mountain from her heart." Maybe that mountain is right here (in my heart), maybe I have to address her with more love; maybe before I bring out those other stuff, I got to first go through a meditation with her basically and remind her of the many different ways I'm grateful for her.

That's a good one for the sisters too when you bring up those points about your husband, "You know honey, you're a wonderful husband, you're a godly man. I'm really grateful that True Father found you and I'm so thankful to be your wife. Our children are so wonderful and our grandchildren are so beautiful. They're not perfect but I'm really grateful for all the blessings that God has given me." Hey, that's a great way to start both ways, for men and women. Amen! Isn't that a good way to start; to remind the spouse where you're at, the context? This is not all about changing you, "you got to change." No! "I am grateful for having you, husband; I'm grateful for having, you wife. I am really grateful." Amen! Is that a good thing? That's a good thing, right? That's "love and respect," right? That's the beginning.

"I am really grateful to have you as my husband, etc.... BUT you know I want you to change these things." Don't say "but"; please don't say "but." It is not good. Don't say "but." In a man's mind, you just canceled every good thing you said about him; you just literally erased everything. You might as well have written it on a chalkboard and then erased it! He won't remember whatever good you said about him! Don't say "but." As soon as you say "but", that means "everything up to now is gone and now I'm going to start hitting you." Please don't say "but" okay?

"I'm grateful to have you as my husband. You're wonderful; you're patient with me and I'm very blessed with our children and our grandchildren. In today's conversation we want to talk about this point; I don't know why but sometimes this kind of gets on me, and I'd like to address this thing." And you ADDRESS it! But not canceling out what you just thanked him for and thank God for. Don't CANCEL that out! Are you with me folks? Don't cancel that out! Keep that in the context and then give the points. Now, you're talking about higher probability. Amen! No guarantees but higher probability; like in real fighting. No guarantees but higher probability.

We have to be wise. Amen! Wise because Satan can get into small fissures and fractures even in the microcosmic realm of family and husband and wife, these critical covenantal relationships. Now usually husband and wife are not fighting about things that are catastrophic like the Han mother. She's doing CATASTROPHIC things, things that actually you can lose salvation over and you can go to hell for. About those kinds of things obviously you got to say, "No, I can't go with you if you do this."

But usually between husband and wife we're not dealing with that if we're both following God. Usually, we're dealing with the socks and the hamper and the freaking toothpaste and the mirror or whatever it is; that's what we're dealing with. This is how the Devil gets between us and start ramping up, aggregating the frustration, escalating the tension so that every time it's about the toothpaste or the shoes or the shoelaces or the mirror or whatever it is, then all that previous tension is escalated with now another slice of pie on top of that. You have all these old rotting slices of pie and you got another slice of pie on top of that too, now making that nasty, nasty. And you keep that up for one year, two years, three years, eight years, ten years, twenty years!

Do you understand, folks? That's a big, big problem. Is that true? The only way you can even start solving that issue is not to put all the blame on your spouse and say, "If she didn't have such a hardened heart God, she wouldn't bother me about them socks, about them shoelaces, about them boots, about the toothpaste, about the mirror, about whatever." No, no, no, no! It should be, "Hey, maybe I need to approach this differently. Maybe I got too upset because we have twenty years of escalating tension. Maybe I have to do stuff that de-escalates tension. Maybe I'm not talking well, so maybe I have to write my thoughts. Maybe before I write her, I have to do what we were talking about; maybe I remind her why I'm grateful for her FIRST. AND 'these are things that sometimes hurt me'."

Because a woman is after your what? Is a woman after your seed or is a woman after your heart? (After your heart) Okay! Is the man after the heart or the egg? (After the heart) Okay, but many times it's the egg. But for the woman, it's the heart, so sometimes we got to show, "Honey, baby, all these great things about you, okay AND sometimes, this kind of thing that's hurtful; sometimes that hurt, that hurts Daddy. I'm being honest with you. I'm not perfect. I do it wrong too but let's stay on this topic."

Of course, the wife always wants to say, "Wait, you hurt me here; you hurt me there!"

- "No, no. I'm not talking about that; let's stay on topic. I was talking about this issue of us fighting about the socks or whatever; let's stay on THIS issue. First, let's sort this out and then we'll go to that. But let's stay on this issue with the socks. Sometimes you called me a 'pig', calling me this and that. That hurt my feelings." And then wisely sorting it out; slowly sorting it out. It's going to continue in the same way if we just keep on saying, "Oh, it's her fault, her fault. She's always ratting on me."

Or not de-escalating tension but avoiding tension. That means, "Alright, fine! I'm out of here. You're doing this again, I'm out." Now, that's better than getting upset and throwing a fit and flipping the house over upside down. with the children seeing it. It's better than that, but it's not the best. Amen! Better to show that Mommy and Daddy sometimes have conflicts, but we're adults so we can sort out these conflicts. And the more we do that, guess what? The skill gets higher, your belt level goes up and you can sort them out quicker, faster, EASIER. The many attempts fail; they only start working after a year or two of constant effort and practice.

Same thing in our marriage on the microcosmic level. It's noticing, "Oh, God, remove this mountain," but sometimes that mountain is right here in the heart. Imagine if the husband says, "Okay God, I want to remove this mountain. I want to be more patient. I'm going to stop doing the same cycles of failure." And the wife does too, "God I want to be patient. I want to move this mountain from my heart. I want to stop doing the same cycles of failure. I'm going to try to approach my husband respectfully like a king. I'm going to try to keep an appointment. I'm not going to cry. I'm going to be respectful and I'm going to be patient."

It doesn't happen after one draw. You had twenty years of hurting each other; it's not going to happen after one meeting, "Oh, we tried what Pastor said but it didn't work." Well, you got TWENTY YEARS of escalation; it's not going to go AWAY in one day. It's going to go away as you continue over the next year, two, three years CONSISTENTLY, then it will start de-escalating. But it's got to be habitual, it's got to be trained and it's got to be worked on. Amen! It's not going away in ONE day! It's twenty years of escalation. The de-escalation process takes time and effort, and in the end that's the only way a couple can overcome that. If they don't do that it's going to fissure, it's going to escalate and at some point, it's going to explode. Are you with me, folks?

Absolute sex and romance

Very important! That's why our young kings and queens, you got to be learning about how to love and respect in the beginning; before you get married, before you get into the game, before you get into the covenant of marriage you got to understand the landscape, understand the dynamics. You got to understand what you're called to do as a man, i.e., to love; you got to understand what you're called to do as a woman, i.e., to respect. That's how you make God happy. Through that process of respecting your husband and loving your wife that's how you make God happy, and as you do that to each other, as you really love and respect each other, then God can feel joy. He can feel great joy from seeing His covenant flourishing, and the fruit of the loins FLOURISHING. Amen!

That then creates the great powerful environment for what? For the children to grow up in. They see parents who are loving and respecting each other, who know how to sort out issues if there's conflict AND the father can lead, the mother can support and protect the father's authority. Oh, Lord! So, the kids grow up in that kind of powerful environment; they also see Dad as not just a holy man all the time, but he's also crazy about Mommy; he loves Mommy. He's always romancing Mommy, always doing that.

So, they feel what? They feel, "I want to get blessed too. I want to have that love and romance in my life too." While Hollywood, while LGBT sells them sex and all these other debaucheries? NO! The real romance is in marriage, the real joy and the fun is in marriage, and dating your spouse and husband and wife staying as lovers. We talk about this all the time, that even though you're married twenty or thirty years, you got to still be DATING. Amen! You got to still be interested in each other, you got to still be putting that effort. The point is that we got to be putting the effort in to keep that romance, to keep attracted to each other. When husband and wife lose sexual attraction to each other, then energy starts dissipating. Of course, as you get older it changes and matures.

But having that energy is so important because our young children see that. They see Mom and Dad's very strong beautiful absolute sex and romance marriage; that their covenant is strong, they're in love with each other; they have romance between each other. That is attractive, that's beautiful; that's what God desires for marriage. He doesn't just want cohabitating people and dorm roommates. Amen! That's not what husband and wife are supposed to be; they're not supposed to be dorm roommates. They're supposed to be LOVERS, expressing the heart of God; manifesting that in their marriage. Amen! Praise God!

That's why Father talked so clearly about absolute sex and romance, because it becomes a barometer. Healthy sexual life in marriage becomes the barometer of the health of the marriage in general; if both spouses are happy about their sex life in marriage. Which can't be talked about in churches or can't be talked about in conservative circle. It's ridiculous! The Left is always talking about debauchery sex and evangelizes the children away from God and the healthy sex life that He provided in marriage. Amen! That's where it's supposed to burgeon and prosper, and not only to be productive and have children but also to BIND the husband and wife, "the two will be made one flesh." To BIND them together, to create intimacy, to be LOVERS, to reap the fruits of the Kingdom and of that relationship that we have, and bring joy to God at the same time. Oh, my goodness! Are you kidding me? Unbelievable!

All these things could have been manifested in the Kingdom.

-You don't think Jesus would be promoting strong healthy marriages? That he would be promoting strong families as the root of society?

-You don't think he would be going after the people that try to destroy the families, destroy marriage, push debauchery; saying that male is not male and female is not female and you can choose and you can just become God? Oh, my goodness! Give me a break!

-You don't think he'd go after this and stand up against it? Of course, he would.

But as 1 Corinthians 2: 8 said, "None of the rulers of this age understood it. For if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

So, incredible!

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

He just told people, "If you pray, it will be done. You've got to forgive." Forgiving others releases you from the emotional, spiritual bondage. If they've done any personal harm to you, forgiving them releases you from that emotional power they have on your life and the constant cycles of victimization you may do to yourself, "Oh, I'm so poor because this person did that; oh, I am" That DESTROYS our lives. Amen! Forgiving those people, separating from that, what does it do? It releases us; it frees us for what? To do what God is calling us to do. Amen!

He's not going to call you into adultery, He's not going to call you into debauchery, He's not going to call you into "a male is not a male, a female is not a female"; He's not going to call you into pedoism; He's not going to call you into any of those things. Because His Word is going to convict us. It's usually going to tell us, "Oh, dang! Bad! I've got to change; I've got to repent." That's what the Word is going to teach us. Amen!

Some people say, "I had a dream where God told me that I got to do this with that girl over there." Uh-huh! That's Satan telling you that; it's not God. Are you with me folks? God doesn't just validate your desires. It has to be in line with His desires, then He will remove that mountain; if it's not in line and it is antithesis to His desires, He will not remove that mountain. That mountain there is to protect you, is to stop you from going off the cliff. Amen!

Jesus Authority is questioned

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

A deprived and collapsing society

We are in a tribulation period here in America, and even in the Pacific East. Putin is now saying that they will escalate by December, and we have China and Russia escalating in joint exercises in the Pacific Rim which is making it more dangerous, preparing the way for Taiwan. Putin and China are now calling out the U.S.

Escalation worldwide, crashing currency and we're kind of in death throes in terms of the supply chain, because people are still selling goods with prices on the bottom of the curve before the inflation hit. But once those products sell out that's where prices are shooting up and that's where all the farmers will be going online saying, "Hey, I can't even afford feed, I can't even afford these things." Beef prices are going to go up, etc. Right now, you don't feel it because they're still selling what they bought six months ago, but once they sell out of those things it's going to go up because "we can't produce this; we have sold out all the crops."

And on top of that, the Department of Agriculture is getting more guns to come after the Amish. These people are crazy; they're going after Amish farmers for making raw milk! They're insane; they're absolutely crazy, folks! We're seeing over-the-top kind of control grid, and it's only escalating. But again, in terms of their planning, America must fall. Who is the target for genocide? Generally white conservative Christian gun owners MAGA patriots – as you call them. Remember Joe Biden's 'blood red' speech where he said, "The Republicans are the MAGA extremists?" Now one Democrat congressman is saying, "We've got to KILL MAGA!" He's using the word 'kill.'

This type of escalation is happening and of course different parts of society are in decline. Moral depravity: oh gosh! You understand how hard they're pushing the transgenderism issue; making you feel like you're a hero if you are dressing up as a woman with a full-on beard? You're a hero. You have a beard this long, longer than Robert's here, and you wear a pink dress with high heels and you're a hero. My gosh! If you want to do it as an adult that's one thing and society should be able to say, "Okay, you want to act like that? Fine! You do your own thing." But not when you start going after the KIDS, and that's what they do at the Department of Education.

Project Veritas released a whole new group of videos that show they hire only people that are supportive of LGBTQ issues in Connecticut, in New York; all those different undercover videos are coming out. There is an agenda to what? Indoctrinate. Not only to do that activity but to take the children from you; take the children away from Judeo-Christian values. Well, that's wrong!

No, you can't do that because you don't get to choose your SEX! You're not God; God gives you your first calling either to be male or to be female. That's your CALLING; God has given you that gender. He's given you that CALLING to be the best male you can be, the best female you can be and, in the end, do it for His glory. He's given you that calling; you don't get to choose. You're not God. You can't choose to just imagine yourself as a female, even though every single chromosome, every single cell in your body screams, "male, male, male, male, male, male, male" with the chromosomes. Every single cell in your body is male, male, male, male, male if you're a male. So, you can't chop off your genitalia and you can't put on synthetic breasts and become a female. You can't do it; you are a male. That was your calling.

You may not like that; you may not FEEL like that in your skin but they've done studies that show that people have so much regret if they've done those massive catastrophic surgeries at an early age; a very high percentage of "trans people" REGRET those surgeries that they've done, especially at impressionable ages. Now California's saying, "Parents don't even give CONSENT! A child who is five years old can DECIDE on his own," to do CATASTROPHIC surgery to his or her body. Oh my gosh! Oh my gosh! Folks, we're living in Romper Room! This is RIDICULOUS! But these are the signs of a depraved and collapsing society.

Two options for the world

So, of course it either goes to a convention of states, or it goes to civil war, or it goes to genocide or it goes to a thermonuclear war; there are many different options on the table. They want to push a thermonuclear war. Why? Because the globalists, the leaders like Klaus Schwab, they will become richer through global warfare, and in every country, they will centralize power more strongly to themselves including in the US. They will send our children to go to die in the wars that they created. WE got to pay the blood; we got to send our kids. None of their kids will go; none of their kids will go to those wars that they've created. ALL our kids and our grandchildren, they're going to steal them and call them traitors if they don't go to the wars that they created. That's one scenario and they get more powerful in a thermonuclear war. MILLIONS die; they become more powerful. Totalitarianism. China is the new superpower; America dying like Latin America. Everybody under the hegemony of China. China will be the new model.

You see why that's a problem folks. That is an atheistic, "might equals right", Communist political Satanist hell on earth! THAT'S their desire, that's their plan; that's called the Great Reset; that's called the New World Order or whatever stupid, evil, wicked name they want to call it. THAT'S WHAT THEY WANT!

But there's another option and that is: PEOPLE in every country RESIST them and do whatever they can to stop them. First, politically at least speak out against it. People are going to be persecuted, people are going to be mocked, people are going to be killed for standing up against it. But if you don't do anything and the Communist world regime takes over, you're going to die anyway; people are going to die, so your life is at risk either way.

No, that doesn't mean people got to do kinetic physical things. No! Because we're still in the phase of political battling; we're still in the phase of letting your voice be heard. The patriots can't be the ones that go kinetic first; it's always the EVIL that has to attack first. EVIL has to strike first, then you have the moral high ground; if the good people strike first then they don't have the moral high ground. That's how it is. It has to be CLEAR to EVERYBODY that it's the evil side that's going kinetic, that's first killing. But that requires people to resist them even at the risk of death, just as our Founding Fathers did.

Transcend death

The American Founding Fathers they all did it; they were all going to die. If they lost, every single one of them would be tortured, have their guts removed, and be quartered by horses; they would have terrible, terrible punishments, terrible tortures and punishments all waiting, from King George who would be laughing as George Washington would be ripped up to shreds, Thomas Jefferson would have his head cut off or would be burned at a stake, or whatever they would do to them. EVERY single one of them knew that if they lost to the Brits they were going to die. Is that true? 100% they knew they were going to die.

That's why they say, "We risk our lives, our fortune and our sacred honor." We risk it all. That's the founding, that kind of spirit! That kind of spirit against tyranny, against evil, that comes from the Father, that comes from Jesus, that comes from the love of Christ; loving something that is greater than government, greater than the administration of men, greater than the principalities and powers that they've erected. What goes beyond them that started it all? The architect of the universe, God, Yahweh Himself, Father God Himself.

That's the only power that can make people transcend death, because death is used to what? Threaten, "You don't do this? You're going to go to prison. Your life is going to be catastrophically changed," and if you resist any further you will die; they will kill you and shoot you with armed men. That's why they want you disarmed by the way. Notice how they always want you disarmed, folks; like the stupid congressman talking about the stabilizing brace, which is essentially a bump stock. What a total lunatic, total IMBECILE, just hell-bent on disarming the American people, trying to make owning legal guns federal crimes and federal felonies; making forty plus million Americans felons overnight! They are trying to push this in, folks.

So, we've got to pray for these things to be overturned by the Supreme Court and use all the mechanism we STILL have in order to fight. We've got to keep up the praying, keep up the pressure and keep up the preparation. Amen! Praise God! Three Ps: Prayer, Pressure and Preparation.

But it's an intense time because we are at a fork in the road now, where the globalists, the global power, Klaus Schwab, Bill Gates will become more centralized, more powerful OR we have citizens of all nations rising up even at the threat of the governments killing them; rising up and resisting, resisting, resisting. That means there are going to be a lot of martyrs; a lot of people are going to die. And the whole world's going to see it, like in Tiananmen Square where people were run over by tanks. It will get to that point where people say, "Oh my gosh! This is bad! Maybe the governments are the bad ones."

It's the only power that can overcome them. In the end it's the Holy Spirit that has to empower and strengthen the people so they don't fear death. Of course, if you have tactics and techniques and procedures and all those kinds of things that's great, but everybody doesn't have that and that's not the thing that's going to change this GLOBAL takeover. What is going to change this around? Hearts and minds of men transcending death because the only thing they can wave in front of you is, "I'm going to kill you! I'm going to kill you! You'd better do this or I'm going to kill you. You'd better pay this or that new tax or I'm going to kill you. You'd better give up your guns or I'm going to kill you." You see what I'm saying? The threat is DEATH. That's it; that's all they got.

Jesus conquered the grave; he transcended death, so if the body of Christ really starts believing and starts transcending that, not fearing death, THEN they have a supernatural power, THEN they have the power to start changing the tide. That doesn't mean people are not going to die. There are going to be a lot of martyrs, a lot of martyrs, but that's going to change the tide. Are you with me folks?

Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God

Which one is preferable? Of course, where people stand up or resist. Because either way: if we go the thermonuclear war millions die, millions die; SO many millions will die. And of course, all the patriots that are already targeted that are on the FBI watch list, people who voted for Trump, you're all going to die too. They will come after you; they will genocide you. That's what Hitler did, Stalin did, Mao Zedong did; that's what they all do. When they need to foreclose on the population because they're too much in debt, they target the white Christian conservative gun-owning MAGA Republicans, and even though you're not white, you're still on the list; you're targeted. And they would do every manner of thing to say, "You committed a federal crime; you cheated on your tax records and you didn't pay 300 dollars and 19 cents, so you're going to jail for twenty years." And if you don't want to give them all your guns, you're going to have federal felonies against you. If you don't do this, like the Amish farmers selling raw milk, you're going to be shut down and we're going to put you in jail for 20, 30, 40 years, meaning lifetime sentences. Are you really folks? It only escalates.

Hence, the spirit of resistance. Remember last week we talked about the seal that Benjamin Franklin proposed, "Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God." He put Moses in because he hearkened back to the covenantal relationship with God. This is a covenant that GOD has given us, not princes of Egypt or pharaoh which he related to King George. Well, Klaus Schwab is pharaoh, Bill Gates is pharaoh. But that was the covenantal Seal of the United States; that was the recommendation that we tie our identity to covenantal people, the CHOSEN people of God. Not a nation where we just kicked out a one-power regime to be the next power regime.

We're not here for the power.

We're here for setting up God's Covenant.

We're here to be righteous and holy.

We're here to set up good community, judge evil and protect the good.

And we are covenantal people. Covenantal people are always under threat by Satan's power, always under threat by "principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, spiritual wickedness in high places". (Ephesians 6:12) They are always after covenantal people.

That's why if we fear death -and that's the critical thing- if we fear death then they have power over us. They use fear to control, fear to acquiesce, fear to comply, fear to give in, fear to submit. But when that fear is removed by the power of the Holy Ghost, since God "hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7), then we have power, we have love and a sound mind.

And with God's power, God's love and God's sound mind, then

We're fighting for the truth,

We're fighting to bring His Kingdom,

We're fighting to 'love God, love our neighbor.'

We're fighting to protect human rights.

We're fighting for the right things; we're standing up for the right things, not just to save our ashtray.

Look, we're all humans, so there are moments when we all may feel, "Oh my gosh!" But it's important to remember the larger context. Staying in on the field, staying facing the enemy and doing what we can to resist. Critical! It's not only for our community, it's not only for the body of Christ, it's not only for America; it's worldwide, and ABSOLUTELY America is now the lynch pin. How America goes, the world will go. As Putin and Xi Jinping are ramping up the power, cold winter for Europe is what they're predicting; massive cold, massive power outages, massive gas prices and all those kinds of things. And Putin is saying he's going to escalate in Ukraine, with the prediction that it would be taken over by December. They have more and more exercises with China so China is now ramping up, taking control of Taiwan waters, etc. Four billion dollars now sent to Taiwan! More escalation, more escalation, more escalation!

So, it is a critical and desperate time, but at this time we have to be clinging not to fear. Amen! We're going to be clinging to God.

Clinging to God,

The One who has the AUTHORITY to move those mountains,

The One who has the AUTHORITY the curse the fig tree,

The One who has the AUTHORITY to beat down the money changers and clear out the Temple to "make it a house a prayer and not a den of thieves." Amen!

This fig tree has NOT YET DRIED UP

This is what's happening in America right now; it's that battle. By the way it's not as easy to take over America as the globalists and the global cartel believe. NOT as EASY! Because once the people get in touch with their actual roots, they realize that this fig tree is NOT dried up yet. Amen! It didn't get down to the roots yet; we STILL got roots. We can STILL remember who we are even though they're trying to make us forget with the transgenderism and the pedophilia that they're trying to push on us and make us all LGBT. They're trying to make us forget WHO we are but we STILL got ROOTS in here. That's why we are called MAGA Republicans because we still REMEMBER who we are. Many of us fled Communist hell countries to experience this fruit. Amen! So, we STILL have ROOTS! This fig tree has not DRIED UP yet! It's not cursed; it's not cursed, folks. I'm here to encourage you.

It's not cursed! NOT YET! The fig tree has NOT YET DRIED UP to the root.

It STILL got power in it.

It STILL has life in it.

It STILL can get the Holy Ghost.

It STILL can get love, life, lineage.

It STILL can have power if we come back to it. Amen!

Come on, give glory to God! (Applause) Praise the Lord! We can still get back to it.

Keep that prayer, keep that good pressure, keep that good preparation going. Don't live with fear. When you're preparing, do your chores; do what you got to do to prepare and then the rest of the day have FUN with your family, have FUN with your wife; have FUN! Even though you're preparing you've got to balance it with FUN, folks. You've got to still be a young man playing around with your girlfriend. You know what I'm saying? And it is your WIFE! You still got to be having fun keeping her happy, because you can get stressed out with all the stuff that's happening in the world, with the collapse and the tribulation. But God has given you each other, so you've got to be helping each other; she's your help mate. Amen! So, you got to keep it fun. You do your preps, you do your chores, you do what you got to do but when you're done with that you forget about it and you have fun the rest of the day. You have fun at home, you make jokes and have laughs and enjoy your children and raise them up with your values and your grandchildren, and all that. You've got to pay attention to these things while we're heading towards the Kingdom.

I almost wanted to say 'catastrophe' because that's one possible part of it, but that CATASTROPHE has to come so Satan's kingdoms fall down and God's Kingdom can be erected, be substantiated, be realized and the fruit of the faith may germinate, swell and become the beautiful chosen fig that can bring what? Delight, enjoyment to the Lord, to God. That's the type of fruit we've got to create. Even in this time of craziness do not be people of fear. Amen! Be people of "power, love and a sound mind." Hope! God is on our side and His Kingdom is coming. Let's pray!

Pastor HJ Sean Moon

Father God, we thank You for this day. We thank You for this beautiful day that You blessed us with. We are not living in the spirit of fear, God.

All the Commies, all the Klaus Schwab, all the Bill Gates, all those pharaohs are trying to fill us with fear. They're flexing their muscles saying, "How can you win against us? We have the armies of the world, we have tanks, we got Blackhawk helicopters, we got trained tier-one operators that will kill you and blow your head up and destroy you and we have Claymores mines that can blow your house up. How can you EVER DEFEAT us?"

Pharaohs! All those wicked Satanic pharaohs are laughing at us, and trying to instill fear so that we comply and submit. But God, You parted the Red Sea and swallowed up pharaoh. You are the God that did all the miracles. You are the God that brought down the powerful and the arrogant and the tyrants and the Tower of Babel; You brought it all down. In the end those pharaohs cannot succeed; only but for a short time does their fear spells WORK.

But when people have the HOLY GHOST and are INSPIRED and TRANSFORMED through conviction of the heart and repentance and then transformed into new creatures, we no longer live in FEAR. Even though we're weak at times You make us strong through those times and in our weakness Your strength is GLORIFIED. Even in our doubts and even in the times when we stumble, Your strength is GLORIFIED and You REBUILD us into BRAVE soldiers of God, children of God, people who are willing to defend their Father's KINGDOM as filial children of God.

Dear God, we know that this world is at a time of tremendous crisis, economic collapse, warfare now spreading, cold brutal winters that are coming as gas is shut off by Russia. And China is now escalating military activity around Taiwan and the Pacific Rim etc. So many things we can be scared and have fear about, and we must know about these things and we must be realistic about these things and we must know that a time of great tribulation is at hand. We must not hide like the ostrich, put our head in the sand and try to avoid these issues. Avoiding will not allow us to be persevering against them. We must face them, know what we are facing, know the severity of the situation but yet still STAND stoic and full of faith and hope and joy, because we know that all of Satan's kingdoms are flexing now.

And when they fall,

Your Kingdom is coming.

Your Kingdom of righteousness, holiness,

Your Kingdom of human rights,

Your Kingdom of "love God, love your neighbor,"

Your Kingdom of punishing evil and protecting the good. That is coming.

Your Rod of Iron Kingdom is coming where the people become the coheirs and the kings and priests that protect one another and protect Your Constitution and Your KINGDOM from enemies foreign and domestic

Your Kingdom is coming that will rule and reign over the earth and provide and protect the entire world with the gifts of natural law that every human created in Your image is endowed with.

We pray Father, that we would recognize these things and even though we are preparing and even though we are praying and we are standing up in the gap, standing against the wicked and evil cultural systems that are trying to be forced upon us, may we always remember when we get tired, when we get fatigued, when we get scared, when we feel we want to give up, that YOU ARE leading the charge, YOU ARE parting the Red Sea, YOU ARE forging the path in the wilderness. And it is US who through FAITH and through SUBSTANCE become Your hands and feet and enact Your WILL upon this earth. Even though we as individuals may be small, but collectively as Your body in CHRIST, we can do ALL things through CHRIST because we work with You.

Dear God,

*Let us have that spirit, have that power because that is the only thing that can go against this wicked apparatus that is engulfing the world.

*Let us always remember that when wickedness seems at its strongest, it is actually at its weakest. That if wickedness seems at its strongest that means there are more heads that want to kill one another, that want to backstab one another like the Caesars, and that they are all striving for power ready to kill their own friends, thus they're at their weakest.

*Let us always remember that they SEEM to be stronger than they actually appear as the curtain is being pulled back and these people are being exposed as pedophiles and Satanists and weak depraved low-lives that have nothing compared to even the normal person.

*Let us remember that we are fighting and standing up against incompetent evil selfish wicked individuals that sold their souls out to Satan, and that WE have the moral high ground. We have the patience, we have the power, we have the peace, we have the moral high ground and we have a God that is holy and just and that is true and thus we pursue truth and truth-telling, and then a society of trust and loving our neighbor which then flourishes.

We know that that Kingdom is coming but it must be faced and it must be sought for by Your people at this critical time.

Give us the strength at this time; give us the strength in our families and our marital relationships.

*Let us have joy there, so we can bring joy to You even at this sad time.

*Let us not be overwhelmed by the sadness and the fear, but

*Let us TRANSCEND it knowing that when the fruits of the fig that has ripened at the harvest time are collected, there will be joy, and there will be banquets and there will be CELEBRATION of the victory that is the Kingdom to come.

Dear God, we are thanking You this day and we are praying that You BUILD us and strengthen us with Your Holy Spirit so that we can fight this most HEROIC and EPIC battle with fortitude, with strength, courage and with HONOR.

Dear God, we want to give You the praise, glory and honor with ALL the kingship lines gathered here with the Three Generation Kingship. We pray in your precious name. Amen! Amen! Aju!

All right folks, let's all rise and give Him the praise. Amen!
