Relationship over Religion

2023. 11. 26 TN

(Standing ovation and welcome back from his victorious trip to Asia) Thank you. OK, please. OK, folks, please. Don't act all crazy now, come on. You're acting like cultists here. (Laughter) That's how we always started our services in Korea and Japan; we were saying, "Look at all these cultists gathered in one place!" And how we get tougher by hearing the attacks of the enemy, and just laughing about it. That's how you get tougher. Amen. If you don't hear what the enemy is saying about you and laugh about it then you don't get tougher.

Oompaville

There's a big YouTuber with 4.8 million subscribers; we just heard about the guy. The channel's name is Oompaville. Four months ago, they did a big whole documentary on us.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=flDqfvWS68A&t=5s> (This "Cult" terrifies locals) I didn't even know about it until today. The young man, he's in his early 20s or something, and his group is probably in the 18-to-25 category of kids. Oh, he made my eyes bigger. Look at that! My eyes are normally not big. See, I got the Asian slant eye. He expanded them bigger and they still look small. That's alright now. That's okay. See, that's why people see us and they know we can make fun of ourselves; we don't give a crap.

But the guy, he's deeply into guns, he loves guns, and he goes on about, "Okay, these guys are a cult, but I don't know what a cult means anymore. And you know, I kind of like what they're saying, but I know that they're crazy and dangerous." (Laughing) He's funny and he makes fun of the music, "Oh, the raps suck, the music's terrible." But you have to be able to hear this and laugh about it. That's healthy. By covering it like that, I think it almost had 400,000 views.

We were looking at the King Bullethead Rumble channel, and the views keep going up. <https://rumble.com/user/KINGBULLETHEAD> Obviously, we're heavily shadow banned, and the number of our followers is not able to go up. Now, on YouTube obviously every time we get on there, they delete our stuff immediately. The point is: even though we are heavily shadowbanned etc., it keeps on going up, so we're thinking people are still watching and we have a lot of secret watchers. This popped out of the realm, we just heard about today, but it's quite hilarious if you watch the video. It's quite funny.

He kind of pokes at us, but at the same time, he brings out his Glock; he's got a silencer. He said, "I got guns too. I love it. I agree with this point." He kind of smacks at us, but at the same time, he's largely in agreement. He did mention he likes the United States Constitution. So, he leans obviously to the right, even though culturally probably he's a little to the left. But it shows you how this next generation of young people in the 18-25 category, these are the kids that love Andrew Tate; they love the Tate brothers. I told you many months ago when Andrew Tate became a Muslim that he was going to be witnessing to many young white kids from the West to become Muslims, and that's not good. That's not good for God's kingdom at all.

Anyway, who knows how God is moving, but God is moving. This is the kind of age bracket of young people that are watching Andrew Tate; they're into this kind of stronger persona of a figure. For example, he mentions that his generation is sick of the centrist churches; the churches that are lukewarm. They're so weak they don't stand up for anything; they just go along with society. He brings out our views on women; he brings out our views on marriage, on homosexuality, etc. A lot of the stuff on women was wrong. He brings out a quote and says that, "They teach their women to submit to your husband," and that the Family Fed and the Unification Church have always taught that men and women were equal.

Man & Woman Relationship according to the Bible

Again, the quote of submitting to your husband is from the Bible, folks. It's a 2,000-year old Christian tradition. And it's not only women submitting to their husband, the husband has to submit to the Lord, so he has to be a Christ-like priest. Since he's unknowledgeable about the Bible and anything like that, he doesn't understand that this has always been the position of the Church in Christ, Ecclesia.

We're very clear in the Principle and even the Bible is very clear too that women and men are equal in value to God, and as love partners, they are equal in value. They have different roles in the home. In the home the man is the subject and the woman is the object. That's why love and respect is so very important. That's not a radical view; that has been an orthodox Christian view for the last two thousand plus years. We have not departed from anything. It's the modern weak churches that have departed from the stability of the marriage.

Women are built by God to be more in the emotional realm, what Jordan Peterson calls the "chaos realm." Not in a bad way; Jordan Peterson is always getting in trouble, huh? But you think about it: the emotional realm is the aspect that allows the children to survive at a young age. When the moms are neurotic about the child's hygiene, their health and their feeding, without that you would die. So, you'd better have a neurotic person on that baby. You have to have it; literally you need to have that, otherwise the child will die. Survival-wise it's very important.

In marriage the husband has to raise up his wife in love and when the child gets to the teens then you cannot treat the child as if it's a baby anymore; you can't be neurotic about it. You have to discuss things, you have to explain things, you can't just say, "Eat this, do this. What are you doing? What are you doing?" This will drive the child nuts. Fortunately, many tiger moms in Asia have realized that you can't continue that behavior. It helps to provide a survival for the child when they're young, but not when they're in their teens; it drives them away.

The father has to bring in that psychological order and bring in non-emotionality, "I know you're worried about the child but let's not the worry make us act emotionally, which is going to make us screw this up." The father has to give that kind of guidance both to the mom and to the children. This is very important and that's why God has put in that order. If you'd flip that order out, there's no more order in the home. This is what has happened in the West in general and in the Western Church; basically, the woman gets on top. And as the woman has gone on top then nobody is putting any feedback into that feedback loop telling them, "Hey, hey, you got to stop the constant surveillance and the nagging. You got to stop that. It's going to drive the husband nuts and it's going to drive the children away."

This kind of thing in the West has been lost because the church has become so feminine and weak, and just in general because of the culture of feminism, the lie of feminism, which is basically Marxism in pink panties; that's what it's called. There's nothing special about it; it's classic divide and conquer and destroying the traditional order that God has created in the family. These are not radical views, but yet in the modern world they are.

You can see the younger group of kids who maybe grew up nominally as Christians, they're sick of the weak churches because they have been victims of the over-feminism and the abuse of the women over the men. They've been victims of that in the West and now because of that, they want to rebel and they're rebelling with what? Andrew Tate and Islam. That is the worst thing you want to do. Feminism has created a group of males that have been so abused by women and harangued and nagged to death that they can never do anything perfect; they are always being surveilled and always being attacked for literally just being a boy. Now, what do they say? "F- you all! I'm going to become Muslim. Allah Akbar!" That's what's happening in the European countries, where they're actually making it popular to become Muslim.

But of course, Islam has very different values than Christianity. So, it's much better that they become strong Christian men, i.e. Rod of Iron patriots, than Muslim men and jihadis. Much, much better. There's only one way that will save the world; the other way will create utter tyranny over the entire world.

Love for Christ

So, shout out to Oompaville for making fun of us, smacking us a couple of times, but agreeing with us, generally speaking. It's very funny. But he has to do this. He has 4.8 million followers; he's got to hit us a couple of times as he's covering us because if he's gushing, they're going to say, "What? Are you in this cult, bro? Why are you so unobjective about this cult, huh? What are you? Are you in there or something? Are you a secret cultist?" But actually, it's very hilarious and I highly recommend you watching it. Even if he makes fun of me, I don't give a crap. You know what I'm saying? I am not doing this for me. Okay?

This is the thing. For people who have transcended the desire to want to be famous or have billions of dollars, for us it doesn't matter what they say about us. It doesn't matter how they defame us or do hit pieces on us; it only strengthens the message. In the end that's the whole Isaac generation; you got to be willing to get up on the altar and die. If Abraham your daddy tells you to get up on the altar and die and he's going to kill you on the altar, it's okay. And it's not because I'm stupid. I actually have a high IQ; I'm quite "edumacated" and all this stuff. But it's not about that; in the end it's about love.

Because in the end, life is not about work, work, work, work, work, right? This is the transcendentalist argument basically that life is work, work, work, work, work. This is not what creates the person. We're not defined by what we do. The world tells us that what our job is, is our primary identity. "What do you do for work? What do you do? What do you do?" Well, I'm a priest and I'm a husband and I'm a father. That's number one. It's not about what you do first. It's not "I work in this factory, I work in there, I work in this shop, or whatever." That's not our primary identity. Our primary identity is priest, father, husband. Queen is evangelist, mom, wife. Why? Because these jobs are given to us by God, not by man. That's why they have to have preeminence within our life frame.

If you don't put them in your life frame, you're going to be searching for money, you're going to be searching for fame; all the stuff which will never make you happy and never fulfill the gaping hole in your heart that only Christ and his purpose can fill. Since we're made for him, only his purpose in us can fulfill our greatest desires, our deepest desires.

Trip to Korea & Japan

Anyway folks, thank you for your prayers. We were in Korea and Japan for two weeks. It was a whirlwind. It took me probably three or four days; I'm still maybe on the tail end of acclimating back to the U.S. in disbelief that it was only two weeks, because it felt like literally over a month the way we were running around. We got as much done on these rescue missions as we did on the previous ones when we spent a whole month in Asia and that wonked out our entire team. Two weeks in Korea, two weeks in Japan. And for the volunteer teams too, it's hard because they got to take time off and all the young people also want to volunteer. They're doing two weeks and they have to schedule it in, etc. So, it's more complex when we do two weeks per nation.

This time we did one week per nation; for the volunteer teams, it was a win. For the churches in Korea and Japan, it was a win because we're there a shorter time and they can pack in more events without overstressing their organizations in terms of manpower. So that was another win. On our side, it's a big win because we're back in Tennessee in two weeks. Oh my gosh, that's amazing! Unbelievable! And we can hit the ground running and just get back to the different stuff we're doing; planning the other stuff, the outreach events, the barbecues that are coming all the time. I can just get right back on it. If I'm out a month and I come back I say, "What planet are we on? What were we doing last month?" We've been so separated that it takes so much time to re-acclimate.

With this two-week period, what a win-win! It's a whirlwind, but the first day we get there, boom! We have a whole sleep system; we organize a sleep pattern so that on the plane we are destroying the jet lag. As soon as we hit the plane in Dallas Airport, boom! We force ourselves to go to sleep. Once you arrive in Korea, it's already evening time. If you slept the whole plane ride, you are not going to sleep all night long. You see how that works? You arrive in the evening. We've got to take another five hours to get to the Ocean Palace, which is five hours from Incheon. You're going to get there at 11pm and you're well rested.

Otherwise, since you're not going to be sleeping that night, then by the time morning hits and all the ceremonies are happening, you are going to be in spirit world, literally. You won't know which side of heaven you are on. You will be dizzy and you will be discombobulated; you'll be knocked out.

So, what we do is we sleep immediately when we hit Dallas, get the jet lag out, then try to stay up as long as possible so when we hit the ground, we are literally hitting the ground running and when we get back to the ocean Cheon Jeong Gung, at around 11 p.m. we are tired. You see how that works? This whole program is very effective and it works, because as soon as we drop down on Wednesday, Korea time, THURSDAY lunchtime we have an event.

Suncheon Event

It's a national event. Everybody from Korea will be gathering in the Suncheon area, which Father called his homeland. The Holy Spirit guided us to choose Suncheon, Yeosu, because Father called that literally his hometown, since obviously in North Korea he's not able to access that. Yeosu, Suncheon, Komundo, that was Father's hometown. He said, "This is my 고향 gohyang meaning my hometown, my homeland. That's why the Ocean Cheon Jeong Gung is down there in Suncheon. It's a little taxing for the whole nation to get down there, but it's not my wish, or it's not our wishes. "THY Will be done!" We wanted Father's palace to be where HE desired. And even though the takeovers have happened in Korea, Father guided us to the Suncheon area which is absolutely beautiful.

Folks came down; that was the first event. We got in Wednesday night, 11 p.m. The next morning, Thursday, 11 o'clock is when the national meeting is happening. Remember, this is in the middle of the week, so it's hard for everybody to get off work and come down. Therefore, next time we will probably do the national event on Saturday; that way everybody can come down easy. And then Sunday we'll just do a smaller Sunday service with whomever can be around.

We had to rent this venue because folks came from other countries, and there were people standing in the back; it was an overflow. And remember, this was short notice. We only told them a month or two in advance, "We're coming, and the main event is going to be in the middle of the week." So, it's really training, right?

Heavenly Army Training

Father really trained us. First-gen, you all never saw it as holy or heavenly military training but really Father trained you all like military. I mean it was like literally military training. That's why everybody's so intense. It's like we've been in a heavenly army. I mean you're talking about going and stationing at different locations, you're talking about different bases everywhere, you're talking about on the road movement and organized, coordinated. None of it has to do with firearms; you guys weren't carrying weapons. But in terms of organizing and logistics, it's like heavenly military training. It's like the culture of Cheon Il Guk training. Even activism, having our people involved in activism through the Reagan campaign.

That's one thing that the young person doesn't understand. He said, "The Unification Church has never been political, has never endorsed any side." What? What are you talking about? What are you talking about? We have something called the Washington Times It's the biggest conservative newspaper. The boy doesn't know what he's talking about for a lot of stuff, but anyway, he's bringing attention to the young generation, 18 to 25, to the Rod of Iron Ministries and to Father's Kingdom. Which he's very attracted to, by the way. Very attracted to, but has to say we're cult, cult, cult, cult, cult, probably just to appease some of the people in his audience, and to make him feel, "Yeah, I'm being objective about this. Yeah, I like them, but they're a cult, and they're dangerous. I'm objective." He's telling himself that, it seems. But, you know, young people do that all the time.

The point is: activism training is a type of organizational training. So, it's really no different from the militia training that they do in Korea, or the military training they do in the army. They're organizing, they have logistics, they have communications, and you have a clear mission, you have clear objectives. That's why Soros and these globalists pour so much into activism, because they can be easily quickly transformed into evil communist militias or militaries. They can be easily transformed because there's already a chain of command, there are already communications; there are already sergeants everywhere. You see what I'm saying? There's a whole organization which they can co-opt. You first-gen never framed it in that way, but you understand that you got like heavenly military training.

That's really, really why the left and the commies feared us so much, because not only did we have a message, but we had a whole lifestyle; we had a Kingdom culture, and we were intense. We were open about our opposition towards political Satanism and communism as the work of Satan. The Divine Principle is very clear about that and of course Father was very clear about that. But that's the kind of training that our first gen received. It wasn't just like going to Bible study and summer camps as the Christians do. NO! It was like twenty hours of MFT seven days a week or whatever the case may be. It was a serious type of training that was kind of like heavenly army training. In the Bible, Paul refers to believers as part of the army of God. "Soldiers of Christ" is what he calls them.

Clear Order in the Family

This is really what has been lost in modern day Western megachurch Christianity; what has really been lost. The Christian movement has become so weak, so pathetic, so castrated that it can't even hold families together, let alone give husband and wife guidance on how to create order in their family that is based on love and respect, that is based on Christ's love. There's order and there's mission. They were not able to do that, but now there's a new generation of young people that are strong, not weak and effeminized. They are in the image of not the mother, but the father. That is very important.

Daughters really need the love of a strong father, but we just usually think men need the father, which absolutely they do. Because sorry to tell you that women, you will not be our role models. I mean, mom, you will not be the role model of your sons. Sorry. That's how it works. You are not the role model. They will never take you on as a role model. If they do, they'll be very betas. They'll be betas, and such men are very unhappy. There are things you can learn from your mom, but she is not your role model. Men need a man role model, that's how we learn how to be a man; we're not trying to be women. There's a reason why we need men to lead us. It's because we're men, and when we grow up and we pass this age (level of boy), we start growing like that (taller & taller) and we become like that (tall).

The Western Church has become so weak because every generation has become weaker, and weaker and weaker, more and more and more childish, and more and more dominated by feminazis, who have inverted the position of males. They make males feel guilty that they are to be the head of their household. They make men feel guilty about that. They make women angry at that fact. They make women feel like that is some type of oppression or that is some type of slavery. This is the key aspect of the early feminists. They were talking about marriage as slavery and they were trying to brainwash the women that marriage and children was SLAVERY.

You can be a slave to the banks, but we won't talk about that; You may be a slave to the government, but we won't talk about that. Just don't be a slave to this "Christian crap". In the end they're slaves to those crazy women. And those women have really become slaves to the feminazis and big government. They've convinced a whole generation of these Western women that it's better to kick out God, kick out your husband, kick out traditional family and the order that respecting your man will bring to your home and actually will bless you and your children.

"Take that out and disrespect your man. Divorce him and get the welfare check from the big government. Incentivize divorce." Huh? You understand? "Nag at your husband and that is called empowerment. Abuse your husband and you are called free." No, you are a Jezebel and a demonic woman; you are wrecking God's marriage because you're buying into the evil of the Satanic culture.

This Western church and the whole Western European church have died off, and these young people have grown up in this junk, and they're like, "I am not going to be in this if I have to be cuckolded and I have to be castrated to live as a slave to these psychopathic control-freak ladies. I'd rather become Muslim. Allah Akbar!" Do you understand? That's not what you want but that's what is happening because the control freak females have dominated society and now the church.

Divorce, Worse Case Scenario

By the way, that young person is saying, "Their views are very ... because they say women have to submit to their husbands." And I'm watching this, "Oh, come on, bro! That was Timothy, OK? That was 2,000 years ago." There's a clear order in marriage. You submit to your husband in love and respect to whom? To God. You know your husband's not perfect. You know he drives you nuts sometimes, and he's not emotional like a woman so he can't talk with you as you want him to, but that doesn't matter. You submit to him because you love GOD. Just like men, our instinct is to want to have sex with all the women we will see but we submit to the order of God and control our peepee so we don't wreck our family. Even though that's what we want to do. You understand? We stop it. Why? Because we SUBMIT to God's order, not because we do whatever we want. So, it's not like men get to do whatever they want. No. Both husband and wife, you got to submit to God's proper order.

Now in the case that the husband is not doing that, obviously the only way the woman can bring him back to God IS by respecting him Do you know that? If your husband is sinning and he's a porn addict or he's a prostitute addict, and he is this and that or an adulterer addict, there's no way to change this man. The outside world just says, "kick him out; just kick him out." That's what the outside world says. And even Father has ruled that if a person has committed adultery well then, he's defiled under Father, so that person can be divorced if they decide that way. But the spouse can also choose to forgive; they can choose that. And of course, divorce is always the last, last, last, last, last, last, last option and there are only three categories when you can divorce under Father's authority. If you don't respect those three categories, you will have left Father. Father does not recognize that dissolution of the marriage. I don't care whether or not you've registered with the government. Government is not God. Amen?

If you've made the covenant and promised to Father, then it's only those three categories which he delineated that he will allow for remarriage. And still in that, it is the worst-case scenario. You will not get your next blessing done by Father's Three Kingship line. You will not be honored in that way if you divorce; that's how it is. Divorce is a bad, bad, bad, bad thing; it's the last resort. It's never, never, never on the table as option, something you throw around lightly. It is the WORST- case scenario.

The Path of Forgiveness

In that situation then, if the couple chooses forgiveness how do you change that man who is addicted to porn or who is an adulterer? How do you change that man? Well, you're not going to do it by nagging. I guarantee you that. You've tried that for the last, whatever, ten years, and how has that worked out for you? TERRIBLY! In fact, it has probably driven him into the arms of more women than not. So, if the wife chooses the path of forgiveness in this specific case, even though he's an adulterer, you have to practice agape love and respect towards him. Wow! That's HARD! That's so freakin' hard!

Now, let's flip it. If the woman is an adulterous and the man chooses to forgive her, then he has to practice what? Agape love, forgiveness and patience when he deals with her too. You see what I'm saying? The Western world has no problem with me saying that the man has to practice forgiveness if the woman has been adulterous; that he has to practice kindness and patience and deal with her and love her back that way. The Western world has got no problem with that. But as soon as you say, "Flip it and now the man is the adulterer the woman wants to forgive, so now she has to practice RESPECT." Oh, now all of sudden the Western world has a problem with that.

See how that works? It's ridiculous! BOTH are terrible situations. Both are hard, hard training, very hard training. But it is what it is. There's only one way out of that, which is the agape love of God. That's it. And there's no guarantee. See, this is the thing. There's no guarantee, but there's higher probability. I guess the higher probability, that's the guarantee; that is the guarantee, right? If the person honestly invests in the agape love and the respect, depending on what side they stand, there is a guarantee as long as you invest in there and are not pharisaic about it, that is to say, "LOOK how hard I'm TRYING!" If you're like a Pharisee and you do that kind of stuff, it's going to sabotage it.

But if you don't do that, if you are not egoist about it and actually practice the spiritual principle or the virtue of forgiveness, or love and respect, whatever it is, and you just practice it out of spiritual training and not to get credit from other people, then your chances will go up higher. Because you're not doing it to get a trophy, or you're not doing it to get praise from other people. It's hard, it hurts BAD; it pisses you off all the time, but you're training.

Mind-Body Training

And that's what training is. Training is HARD; it sucks. Training is at times torturous. I was training for my fights and we were training two times a day, every freakin' day. Torturous, getting beat up, thrown around, brought to the point of exhaustion, it's torture; it's literally torture. But you're doing it for the higher purpose. In my case, I want to make Father happy and bring him joy.

Training is so important. That's why a training lifestyle is so wonderful and so hopeful. When I was in my teens and doing a lot of martial arts training, Father wrote for my outdoor place where I trained a lot on a tree. On my 간판 kampan, it's like a piece of wood, he wrote 심신훈련 shimshin hunlyeon, mind-body training. 훈련 hunlyeon means training. It doesn't mean mind-body unity. Unity is so WEAK! What the heck is that? They always translate "mind-body training" into "mind-body unity".

But Father wrote “mind-body TRAINING.” And I love that. I love that. I love that. I've been watching that Chinese character from my dojo for decades now. Mind-body TRAINING! The training aspect is what's so important. The training aspect is what's so hopeful. You may suck now because if you start, you're always going to suck. When you start, you always suck. You're not going to be good. You are going to stink. You are going to be bad. And that's OK; everybody is bad when they start. Even though you have giftings, you're still bad and gifted. OK? The great thing about training is you learn that, and you physically experience that.

Religious Rituals vs Faith

That's why the mind-BODY training is so important. A lot of the young kids who do fake religion, who say, “I am religious, I love True Father,” in a fake way to impress people, they don't like doing the BODY training because it exposes their fakeness. I warned the parents in Japan and Korea about this, too; in the West, I've talked about it many times. But you have to understand. Your kids for example at ten years old they WILL memorize the Family Pledge, they WILL memorize all the religious rituals, but that may have nothing to do with their faithfulness. Do you understand? Because at that age they're not doing it because of faith; they're doing it because they're going to get more attention than their brothers with whom they have siblings' rivalry, usually. They're doing it to stand out and get your attention.

But if the parents are so brain-dead that they think, “Oh, look at this child who's doing all our religious rituals so well. He's memorizing the Family Pledge and doing Hoon Dok Hae religiously. Wow, wow! He's gifted in faith.” NO! This could be a total show. And it's not that the child is bad; it's just that child has figured out that if they do that, they get more attention than Sammy or Robert. The parents cannot be so dense and brain-dead that they are bamboozled, “Oh! Look at ...” No, because those children many times burn out. They end up going nuts and they end up going whacked out. The parents are like, “What happened to you, honey?” Well, YOU parents are what happened to them. The parents were so brain-dead, they mistook the child doing religious RITUAL as faith. That's not what faith is.

Faith is about relationship. The religious rituals only make sense if you have a relationship with True Father and Christ, otherwise you're doing movements; that's all you're doing. You're moving your lips; “clanging cymbals” as the Bible says, because you've got no love for Christ. You have no love; it's all emptiness. But parents are so brain-dead that they actually fall for this. It's so sad. It's so sad. DO NOT be that person, okay? I'm warning the next generation. You all are hearing this early before you have children. Don't be those parents. Do not be those types of bum-bums.

Never, ever mistake the child's action of religious ritual as faith; it has nothing to do with faith. At that age, the parent's job is to cultivate what? A relationship with True

Father as Christ. That's the key. It's all about love. Paul talks about it that if you have not love, or in this case, agape love towards Christ, all the words, all your speech is as clanging cymbals. All the singing of songs of praise means nothing. And young people see this. They see people that go up there and they're praising God singing in Christian megachurches and then they become atheists publicly or something like that. It has nothing to do with faith. As priest and evangelist, you have to be serious when you're witnessing about the state of the HEART of that person; not how well he or she obeys religious rituals.

That's not the litmus test; the test is how much do you love Christ. Now if you love Christ then his rituals mean something deep to you; then his ceremonies mean something deep to you. But “if ye hath not love then all thy words are as clanging cymbals.” You see how that works? So young parents you have to remember that when you raise your children. When we are now witnessing them, we are not just concerned about, “Will they obey religious ritual?” Because I mean if you have enough money and you pay the kids and you pay for their schooling and you subsidize them, they may hang around for religious ritual; they may show up to them, but they will have no faith. See how that works?

Evangelize Their Heart

Look at Father's family; among all the True Children, none of them have faith. Me and Kook Jin Nim are the only ones that have faith. Everybody else was forced to go to the rituals. Everybody else had to be there on the public schedules. But none of them have faith. They have anger and resentment because of the Han mother and her culture towards Father. We're the only ones that didn't get absorbed into that and we have faith in Father.

Now, when we were young, were we grateful sometimes that we had to go out and do the ritual? Sure, yeah. It doesn't mean that when the children are from one year old to ten-year-old, when they're younger, that you can't train them in discipline, going to church, listening to service, sitting quietly and observing the ceremony.

But when they get in their teens, you don't want to be a neurotic tightwad about it. Don't be a tightwad about it. When they become teens and they start having troubles in their faith don't put rituals over the relationship; that's what we got to be careful about. Generally, when they're younger you can train them to attend the rituals and train them more as discipline and an awareness of God, but as they get into the teens especially early teens like thirteen-fourteen, you got to be more and more aware that at this point in this unstable time in their life you've got to put the relationship over the ritual.

So, if you're wise, sometimes you'll say, “All right. Why don't you take a break from HDH today? Why don't you take a break from today's ceremony? You can rest. I think you need a break.” Don't be ridiculous. Don't be freakin’ robots about it. Be a person! You know what I'm saying? Parents are like nuts sometimes. Be aware of it. If they need a break and you sense that, give them a freakin’ BREAK! It's that simple. But explain to them too, “You got a break. Next time, Daddy wants you to go.” Whatever. But don't be such tightwads especially when it comes to the teens.

You're trying to now witness. You try to witness somebody new. They're now starting to wrestle with: Is Father the Messiah? Is the Divine Principle true? and all that stuff.

-“Oh! We have children's day; you have to come!”

-But I don't know so much about Divine Principle.

-Yeah, but you know it's really important. You have to come; you HAVE to come otherwise ...”

You would never do that to anybody you're witnessing to, never, but you will do it to your children. That's the problem. Especially when they get into their teens and now, they want to feel like they're autonomous. Their brains have developed, so now they want to feel like the choice they make is theirs.

We have to now evangelize as if we were dealing with a new person. Take your hat for ten years old off, “I command and you follow.” Take that hat off and now put your counseling hat on. Because at this stage in life you have to now be a counselor. You can't just be “I command it, you do it.” That phase is DONE. Now you can threaten them with money and threaten them with this but that won't last. Trust me, it won't last. They'll be fakers until they're thirty and forty or however long you subsidize them. Okay, I'll tell you. See, this is the problem.

That's why ministry is very important because it teaches you to be concerned about people's hearts whether their heart is with God, not just judge them on ritual. For example, some of these families don't come out to do all the rituals. Do I as 2nd King, say, “You FAITHLESS young people? You put your work before Children's Day!” Do I do that? No, of course not? If I did that, everybody would be condemned including my own children. Do you see that? I don't make that kind of culture. I am the father of my house and as Father’s heir and representative, I am the representative of True Father on the church and in the world. So, I make a certain culture that Father creates too.

Now Father didn't like it if you didn't attend a festival, the different rituals, and stuff like that, but at the same time, let me tell it this way, he wouldn't micromanage it; he wouldn't micromanage it. It was the onnis and all these crazy lunatic elders that were trying to go and try to micromanage it with whom? With whom were they doing that to try to create division in the family? With Han Hakja. Oh God!

So, in the same way when our children become teenagers then you have to be ready to counsel; you have to be ready to coach more like an evangelist, instead of, “I order the command, you follow.” That works until seven, eight, nine. From ten, their brain is developed enough that now even though they will obey the commands until twelve, thirteen-ish, fourteen-ish, they will be building up resentment for those four, five years. They will be making a backlog of all the reasons why their parents are stupid and why they should leave you. You see how that works?

For four years from ten to fourteen or so, they may follow you to the religious ceremonies. However, if you give no explanation, no counseling, no guidance, no concern about evangelizing their HEART, heart, heart, heart, heart - everybody, say "heart" (Heart) - then you have trouble. That has to be our focus; we have to be trying to evangelize their heart. It sometimes means push; it sometimes means pull; it means knowing when to do either one. Or stay still; sometimes you have to just stay still.

That's why ministry is important. All the young kings, you have to understand, when you have children, you have a ten-year window before these issues start really popping up in your family; if you don't prepare now, you will be hit, you will be hit; you will be hit. Get ready to get kicked in the balls with a shinbone. Boom! Get ready; prepare now, prepare now, prepare now, prepare now, prepare now.

That's why you need to train, evangelize, get out there, talk to people. As you evangelize and talk to outside people, you're learning how to have a heart of love towards somebody who's an unbeliever. You're learning with an outside person who's resistant; it's a good practice. That's why evangelism is good; doing the different outreach that we do is good training because it teaches you. Even though this person is resistant, I'm trying to exercise God's love and I'm trying to share the Gospel with them. I'm concerned about what? Their heart, NOT about how they feel; that's different

Wonderful Thing about Training

Girls, don't confuse that! I'm not talking about how they feel; that's different from the heart. I'm talking about the heartistic relationship with the Father, not about how you feel; sometimes you'll feel bad about it because he will whoop your "ashtray." He's a good father so he'll whoop your ashtray sometimes. He will NOT give you what you want.

- "Father, please give me a Lamborghini!"

"No dummy; for your sake, no."

You see how that works? A good father will tell you, "no" sometimes.

- "Why don't you give me an answer?"

"Because you know the answer; that's why I'm not giving it to you, dumb-dumb."

- "Father I've been praying so much about this. How come You don't answer me?"

"Because my non-answer is the answer, you bum!" (Laughing)

It means NO!

That's the nature of it with a good Father; He will not just pleasure us. His JOB is not to pleasure us. His job is to train and raise us up to stop being such sinful egoists and to be focused on His desires. Amen! Whoo! That's the Holy Spirit! Holy Spirit, have Your way! Holy Spirit, have Your way! Thank you, Father!

The training aspect is so wonderful and it's so important. One thing good about training is no matter how bad you are, as long as you keep training the right things - if you train the wrong things, you're going to get better at the wrong things- but, if you're training the good habits, then those habits will get better. Even though you're not gifted in them, they'll still get better. You'll be better than if you never trained at all. You see how that works? That's the wonderful thing about training.

Sometimes the young queens are sad that their husband is not a Casanova and he can't romance them so well. Why? Because he never LEARNED it. He wasn't PLAYING around; he wasn't banging on the chicks. That's WHY he doesn't know how to do it, because he stayed away from women. Do you understand? That's why you have a loyal man who doesn't throw you in a trash can; impregnate you and trash you. Most times you can't have both. You're going to have a person that kept his purity by staying away from females and not interacting with them, so they're going to be dunces about it in the beginning, but as they train, they're going to get better. They're going to get better.

You're not going to be with some guy who has had a thousand women because those men can romance you up but they will throw you in the McDonald's trash can as soon as they are done with their happy meal. You see how that works? You're going to be in the trash. So, CAREFUL for what you wish for, okay? And that's why we practice, (Singing) "Amazing Grace, how sweet..." We practice praise and thanksgiving. We're grateful even though our husband is not perfect, even though our wife is not perfect. But God's Will is perfect and we are moving closer to His Will. That's what's wonderful.

His desire, His Will

The other day Kook J-Hyung was talking about statistics and advanced mathematics and the movement  $1/x$ ; as the  $1/x$  and as the  $x$  number grows then that fraction gets smaller. It reduces closer and closer to zero for infinity but never touches zero. Isn't that incredible? It goes endlessly towards zero and gets closer.  $1/x$  gets closer every time but it never becomes zero.

In that way, as we're training, we get closer to God, but we never become God. Nevertheless, we get closer, closer, closer, until there's almost no visible difference in terms of what God would decide morally and how we would decide morally. I'm not talking about the future or something like that. But isn't that interesting? We can infinitely approach God's perfection. Even though we are imperfect and even though we don't become 100% perfect, we can get closer and closer and closer to it to the point that we are almost at the stage of advanced completion.

Now, you wouldn't think about going and committing adultery or pursuing money as your aim. You know what I'm saying? You've done so much training to get closer to God and His desire, His will, that those things no longer attract you at all. At that point, is there no possibility of the fall? No, but there's an infinitely regressing possibility of the fall. Isn't that interesting?

Father's Kingdom vs. False Kingdoms

Anyway, let me get back to the tour. We had a wonderful time with the Korean brothers and sisters. At this speech, we mentioned the micro and the macro predictions. Look at all of Hakja Han Babylonian harlot's predictions after Father passed and ascended, they have been UTTERLY debunked.

Because he had to. Why? So that she would have the free will decision to either honor him or not; to serve herself, worship herself, or Christ. That was the first time she had to do it; first time that she had that test. Remember? When Father was alive, he scheduled a completion-level Blessing with Han Hakja. But then what happened? On that day he canceled it; it was canceled. Our whole organization had to prep the stage, we had to get the stadium ready. That was in the big stadium with 40,000 plus people there and Father says, "NO! Not today. Next year!"

Then he went to Heaven. And now is the test. Now is the test: will she decide to choose herself and worship herself or will she decide to follow Christ and honor him and his bloodline, his Kingship line? She did NOT, unfortunately, even though WE are the ONES who begged and begged and begged and pleaded, "Please don't go this way, Mom."

I am the ONE who called her every freakin' week, trying to talk sense into her. Every time she was in Vegas or anywhere in this area, I was the ONE who was going to her, begging her, "Don't go this way." Every year I would be going back to Korea and trying to talk sense into her, "Mommy, you're going to get judged if you go this way."

SHE is the ONE who stopped answering my phone calls. Do you understand? SHE is the ONE that cut off my phone conversations with her. She doesn't know how to use the phone, she has secretaries that do it, and she commanded them not to take my phone calls anymore. I am NOT the ONE that cut the relationship. SHE is the ONE that cut my phone calls. SHE is the ONE that told the security, "Don't let him anywhere near the properties." SHE is the ONE, when I was at the Cheon Jeong Gung in Korea, trying to talk sense into her, who kicked me out with forty security guards. Do you understand, folks? So, these people are crazy; they're insane. And this was YEAR after YEAR after YEAR until she did that final thing with security. When was that? 2015 probably?

-“Why didn't you try with your mom?”

“Why don't YOU try? I TRIED, FOOL! Don't tell me I didn't try.” I freakin' tried everything humanly possible, but people have free will and if they're a complete narcissist wanting to worship themselves as God, I'm sorry but what their baby boy has to say doesn't really have much effect, especially after they've stolen the billions of dollars.

Anyway, after that she issued prophecies, and she issued a demonic constitution which is a worldwide totalitarianism. You can just look at the document yourself; it's worldwide totalitarianism, North Korea over the world. So, the fruits are going to be about what? Well, we kind of know. The fruit is going to be Satanism.

By the way, out of all the groups, yes, I am lifting Father up; out of all the groups none of them lifts Father up. There's only one person that Father himself made wear his crown. I did not choose that position nor did I tell Father to do that. Do you understand? I had no say in that; I had zero say in that. Father is the one who made me wear his crown and royal robes on those three occasions. In the whole world of all the providential history there's only one person he put that crown on and it's not Han Hakja. His crown did not go on her head. It's not Preston who is claiming he's True Parents now- which is just a joke. It's a joke. You rob your parents and you're True Parents? Okay, that's great; that makes sense!

But you understand none of those false kingdoms will survive because they're based on robbery and deceit. The reason why Father's Three Kingship will continue is because we didn't CHOOSE money power or fame; we CHOSE the way of the cross. They all hated us; all condemned us to die. The entire world, all those people who “loved Father” damned us to hell, and we ate it; we just ate it. We have had to absorb that level of hate EVEN THOUGH I was the actual inheritor and Father actually put his crown on my head, and of course he made me the world president of every world organization, and that had never been done in the church, never. It's not like I am here trying to prop myself up. I did not CHOOSE myself. This is what people always forget. I have to remind them, “Hello, I did not choose myself. This is not a choice that I had.”

But look at the prophecy that she has made that the entire world will come and bow before her and that God is on her side, and that everything she does will be GREATER than what Father did because he had a dirty tail; she calls it an “embarrassing tale”.

On the Six Marys

When Father was alive, we were already doing lectures on the Six Marys and showing why Father had to walk the course of the BRIDEGROOM. Hello! And restore all fallen women back into one. Do you understand? We were already giving lectures on that; we already had the top professors going out and starting to do those lectures. And all the thirty-six couples and all the leadership were like, "Oh, that's Heaven's secret." NO! It's not. Father was openly talking about it in the time of Hakja Han. He was telling her that he had to walk the path of the Bridegroom and fulfill this with all the different women of history. That would be done through six representative figures. They all had backups by the way in case a woman failed, and we see that many of the women have failed. The position is so HARD; it's not an easy one, and they quit. So, he had the back-up brides

Father was openly talking about this at the time of Hakja Han. The mother-in-law of Emo, the Queen's sister, and Andy's mom, she was there at the time when Hakja Han got blessed to Father in 1960. She was one of the early members there; she was in the freakin' house on the kitchen staff. And in her own testimony, she says Father was always preaching about it. Why? Because Christ comes to restore the sexual fall. It has to now be restored sexually; the seed and the womb have to be restored. All the women that have expanded from Eve were then three billion, which was not possible, so, all three billion had to be condensed into six representative women.

Father was teaching on this at the time and we were also open to teach about it, but all those crazy lunatics were, "Oh it's Father's ..." See, this is how they controlled Father; they tried to threaten him. This is how they put fear into Han Hakja as if she was doing such an amazing thing. NO! It was open; everybody knew including her, how Father had to restore all the brides to the Bridegroom.

The Queen is now preparing a lecture for the young people because a lot of young people see all this stuff on the internet. The title will be, "Was Father a pervert, a sex addict or Lord?" You like that? I like that; I like the title because we're not hiding about it. "Was Jesus lunatic, liar or Lord?" That's how the Christians go open with it. She's doing a wonderful Six Marys' lecture. It is still in the development phase but it'll be out and the young people can also listen to that when it comes out.

The point is there are providential reasons why any king has to establish purity in the kingship line and have a pure womb and pure woman. And that responsibility of the woman is not easy. Of course, it's going to be hard and Father talked about the fact that it's going to be hard, and sin will invade you and try to tempt you and try to make you jealous, etc. And that's what happened to all those women.

I didn't talk about this stuff in the lecture but the point is it's not about what she calls the "embarrassing tail." No, that's Father's providential course; he has to walk the path of the Bridegroom. Even in the parable of the virgins, Jesus accepts five of the brides into his house. Ten of them come with the lamps; Jesus takes five brides. So, you already see the issue of the Six Marys starting in the parables of Jesus Christ in the Bible; that some of the brides will be rescued, some of them will not.

This is a long-time fulfillment of those prophecies being realized through Christ and then of course at the Second Advent; the transferring of God's lineage to the seed of God. This is not an easy task.

And since there's victory there, now from the second generation, we can invest in those relationships; we can pour fully into those relationships. There's no more barrier in trying to establish God's lineage. There's no more difficulty of dealing with all these crazy bloodlines that are fighting for that lineage, and all this kind of stuff. There's no more of that crap. It's now established. It's DONE. And now, second generation, we can focus on INVESTING in the fruit of that lineage which is the blessed central family. Are you with me folks?

That's why the training is so important. And that's why when you get blessed, we are doing the training for both husband and wife; both do the training. And then of course doing the marriage and then parenting training as well, because that is now going to arm you for the issues you will be encountering with your children as they grow.

The Korean Gathering

We talked about those kinds of stuff, but I think the main point in the Korean gathering was: look at the prophecies that Han Mother made; they've all failed. And look at the prophecies that Cain and Abel and True Father's bloodline and True Father's Kingship made; they've come to reality. We see a macrocosmic collapse, macrocosmic judgment with the corona. King John was praying about that. Fascism; worldwide fascism, we saw within seven years of Father's ascension. That's pretty fast; that's extremely fast. Jesus' prophecy that the Temple in Jerusalem would be destroyed took forty years to be realized. From 33 to 70 AD; about forty years. That's a long time.

That's two generations of people; each generation is about twenty to thirty years. It doesn't matter your age when you die. That's not how you count generations; it's your fertility years. So even though you live to one hundred, it doesn't matter. Women are only fertile between twenty and forty, basically from teens to forty. That's how you count generations; you count the average years when women are birthing, and that's about twenty years.

In the Western world, maybe it's now up to the late thirties, which is terrible; a generation should be about twenty years. In the Western world, you've extended a generation to be two generations, and you've collapsed your economies and you've destroyed the family structure, because now the children can't relate with their parents who are forty years above them. You're living two generations above; your children simply cannot relate with you. You don't know what language they're speaking. You don't know any of the music bands that they're talking about. You don't know any of the technology they're using. They're too far from you. At least if you're twenty years out, you can understand some of the stuff they're talking about.

Forty years it's about two generations. So about two generations have to pass, two new sets of children and grandchildren are passing before Jerusalem is taken. Isn't that incredible? When Jesus gave the prophecy, the people who heard that, they had children twenty years later, and now those kids are all grown up; now they're running around Jerusalem and they're having babies, and then those babies grow up, and now those grandchildren twenty years later are running around, and then Rome comes and kills them all. You see how that works? That's a LONG TIME!

Now in the Returning Jesus' case, well we see Father as he ascended, and within seven years - seven years - the prophecies came true; that's not even one generation, that's not even half a generation. The people who were living at the time of True Father, we saw it happen before the time we even had our children grow up; it has already happened. See how fast that is? That's so fast. So fast. In the time of history, it's extremely fast; it's like literally the next day.

So, seven years out, then - boom! We started seeing worldwide fascism through the bio-plague and all the economic resources being sent to whom? Who made money during the COVID crisis? There was only one country whose economy got stronger and bigger. Who was that? (Imitating President Trump) "China. China. Why do you call it ethnocentric? Because they're China. Because it came from China C.H.I.N.A. China." We see the bio-plague coming from China and China is the one that gets rich.

What does China represent? It represents the Red Dragon, it represents political Satanism, it represents the model of what the political Satanists want to do worldwide. Do you see? Why? You see that from 2012. The Davos group, that's the globalists, that's the top-level elites, billionaires; all those evil bastards are there. It's the top global elite, and they're propping up Xi Jinping as the award-winning leader. He is the future of the Davos group. That's the Red Dragon.

9/23/2017 True Parents' Cosmic Blessing.

We see the Red Dragon in Revelation 12. Remember Revelation 12? We talked about this with the Japanese group. It is the miracles we saw in heaven on 9/23/17, with the woman clothed in the sun, moon under her feet, pregnant, so about to give birth. Then she gives birth to the Rod of Iron King. She is also in the wilderness in hiding, and then there's a red dragon that comes tries to devour her and her what? Her seed and her children. On 9/23, we saw those things actually happening in the heavens. It starts with, "And there appeared a great wonder in heaven."

We saw actual signs in heaven with NASA: the Virgo constellation, with the actual moon at her feet, and the sun and the twelve-star garland in her crown, which we saw with the constellation of Leo above her. Remember this? And Leo had what? Nine stars, and Mercury, Mars, Venus were in it on that day. Boom! Twelve stars, so she has a twelve-garland crown. Plus, she is clothed with the sun at her shoulder and the moon at her feet. And she has what? Jupiter, the king planet, the biggest planet, was in her stomach for nine and a half months doing retrograde motion, that is, doing a type of rolling motion within her belly. Then 9/23 is the day that it's birthed out, it comes out. That's the sign in the heaven. The sign is actually happening in heaven, in the actual star universe constellation; that crap is happening.

And on the earth, what's happening? All the prophetic Christian teachers are talking about it. Nothing happens for them. But what's happening in Newfoundland Pennsylvania in a small...? You see the Google Maps? Moses was on Mount Sinai. It's a tiny little hill. It's not even a mountain; it's a little hill in the middle of a dot on the entire Google Maps. It's kind of like that. In a tiny little dot on the Google maps in Newfoundland, Pennsylvania, on that day all of this is happening in the constellation above, and - boom! - on that day what's happening? True Parents' perfection level Blessing! (Applause) HALLELUJAH! The birth of the Rod of Iron King. That's when the Rod of Iron Ministries are born.

That's when everybody got reborn. Since True Mother is now on the perfection level, we're all reborn. Clothed in the sun, the moon on her feet with a twelve-garland crown, that's the day True Parents' Blessing actually happened on earth. Father in Heaven, son on earth appointed, given the authority to do the Blessing now has to do it for the Father in Heaven and the woman on the earth who is now hiding in the wilderness that also is talked about in Revelation chapter 12. You all know about this.

"I'm not a widow, I am a queen".

Now in that whole story there's a red dragon that casts about a third of the stars into the ocean. The red dragon is Satan and of course, on the macrocosm the red dragon symbolized what? It symbolized the empowerment of the Satanic dragon, and look what happened? China became the superpower. Now China is the superpower. And then on the microcosm, the red dragon symbolizes what? The harlot of Babylon who wore the purple and scarlet robes. In Revelation chapter 18, what does she say? Literally in the Scripture, in the Bible, the harlot of Babylon says what? "I'm not a widow, I am a queen".

In the Korean Bible, it says, “나는 과부가 아니다, 나는 여왕이다 I am not a widow, I am a queen.” 여왕 means I am a woman queen. Usually, you say 왕비, wangbi. Koreans call a queen 왕비님 wangbi-nim. What does that mean? It means the wife of the king. 왕비. 비 means wife. It means royal wife. There's a royal character for the royal wife; 왕비 wangbi means the wife of the king. Yeowang 여왕 means female king; that's what it means. You understand? In the Korean Bible in Revelation chapter 18, what the harlot of Babylon says? I am NOT a widow not 과부; I am the queen. I am a female king; I am the yeowang 여왕.

Oh my gosh, what did that crazy woman say from Revelation 18? You heard it. What did the crazy woman Han Hakja say on that ceremony when she came out with the crazy decked out robes, bedecked jewels exactly how Revelation 17: 18 says? She literally uttered those words prophesied 2,000 years ago. She said, “I am not a widow; I am a queen,” yeowang 여왕. She said those freakin’ cursed words! Can you believe it? She literally said those cursed words. How crazy is that? While she's bedecked in jewels dressed in purple and red? Oh my gosh! Give me a break!

And then the Bible says she was riding on a beast. We know that she was riding on a beast. On the microcosm, what Beast is she riding on? Seven heads, ten horns. Look at the Family Fraud symbol. If you look at it, you pull your eyes away, it has seven heads. The arms are like horns because the hands are pointy. There are ten horns; seven heads and ten horns in that symbol. Holy crash. Oh Lord, have mercy!

She's RIDING on the BEAST; she's literally riding on that Beast. She stole it. She took that organization. She's riding on the Beast; that's her main foundation. You see how the arms are like horns? So, if you count the horns, there are ten: one, two, three, four, five six, seven, eight, nine, ten. The ones up there are kind of hidden behind the other ones. There are ten. And then there are one, two, three, four, five, six heads. And then look at the one up top. The sun is also another head, but that's not God. That becomes who? The angel of light, who is who? Lucifer. Holy crap, seven heads, ten horns. Holy shmita! How do you make that up? It's supposed to be centered on God, right? It's supposed to be centered on God, but what happened? Under her, it became what? The cursed, the Beast. This is the Beast that she's riding.

The Red Dragon

On the macro, the Beast that is growing and the red dragon that is growing is what? China. So, we see both of them. We see the red dragon growing on the macro. That's the plague; that's the corona crap that we had to endure for three years of fascism. Then of course the economic collapse, the whole worldwide economic collapse with prices jacked up. And of course, now we see world wars exploding. Not only in Ukraine which we lost and now we're at war with Russia which is a nuclear superpower by the way, but we are also at war now in the Middle East. More entrenched. They want us to go deeper and deeper and deeper and go wage war with all the Middle Eastern countries including Iran. Which then leaves China so happy, so delighted. They're going to be eating Taiwan, and when they eat Taiwan, America has already vowed to go to war.

We are now at war in three different places, which we cannot sustain because we're $33 trillion in debt, and with all the stuff from Medicaid and all that, it's probably $70 trillion. That's what estimates say; we are about $70 trillion in debt. So, give me a break! With that much debt, you cannot be waging wars.

And our economy has not even shifted to wartime economy. Russia has, by the way; Russia is producing their own artillery, their own dang tanks, and their own dang drones and microchips. They're doing it internal. Their economy has already transformed to wartime economy. We have not. We are still outsourcing all the microchips, all the drones, even our munitions, we are importing from where? Russia. We're importing from other places. Are you kidding me? And we've depleted our strategic reserves of both ammunition AND oil.

How wonderful is our situation in America! This is what you get when you get taken over by commies. You get purposeful implosion, purposeful destruction, so that their bosses, which is the Chicom... Did you see Xi Jinping coming in, rolling into town as they pleased the king? He rolled into town. Gavin Newsom, what happened to those homeless people? Within five minutes, the police used the strong arm. They kicked out all of them; every heroin needle was gone. It's like North Korea; along the route of the dignitary, everything gets cleaned up. That's what happened to California. Did he not come when we were in Korea? He was in California.

Gavin Newsom, the governor there, allowed that city to become completely dilapidated under fentanyl open-use, people defecating on the street everywhere; he left it like that, tortured the people of San Francisco, let them be abused that way, and then Xi Jinping the god of Gavin Newsom is coming to town so BOOM! Cleaned up in one minute; within a week everything is clean. It's like Pyongyang. This is LITERALLY how Pyongyang behaves. Gavin Newsom is Kim Jong-un in California; LITERALLY, that's how they behave.

<https://www.thegatewaypundit.com/2023/11/california-governor-newsom-admits-he-only-cleaned-up/> Xi Jinping the king of Gavin Newsom, the god of Gavin Newsom, he comes in town, little pooh bear comes in, and Gavin Newsom says, "CLEAN UP them streets, you slaves!" And Xi Jinping just rolled in town like God. Then he said, "Take me to the capital, which is now Beijing's." And Xi Jinping rolled into DC and he got all the bows; and Biden and all of them lunatics, that puppet administration was just groveling at Xi Jinping's feet. This is clearly showing that the Davos group and the Satanists are moving China to be the superpower.

Micro & Macro

All these things in the macro happened, and then in the micro, what happens? In the macro, we have economic collapse, we have the stupid plague, we have three years of fascism, we have everybody now recognizing that the world government is real, and recognizing that big pharma and big government are colluding. The monopolies collude with one another to make profit and they don't give a crap about whether they kill you or not; they have no qualms about it. And at the same time, all the economies of the world crushed. China is the only one that rises. And now we have World War III.

All in a matter of about ten years, which by the way is not even half a generation. Did you ever think about it in terms of generations? It's not even one generation yet; it's about a half. So in about half a generation the world has utterly collapsed.

And then not only that; look at the micro. At the microcosm, the Beast that the harlot of Babylon was riding, that Han Hakja was riding, the Family Fraud, that has been targeted directly by the laser beam literally of True Father's finger in Heaven. He now decided that the laser beam would fall down, and the laser beam literally fell down and exploded that Beast. Literally exploded that Beast, the Family Fraud, cut off its blood, cut it at the neck, at the jugular, and now the blood can't flow to the brain. That is literally a freefall being exploded at the microcosm.

Tim gave this testimony when he was in Korea. They were bragging to him when he left the Chaedon 채돈 in Korea. They said, "Tim, don't leave. We have 200 years of money and assets to live well." 200 years! They said we have 200 years. They stole billions of dollars. They said, "Tim, we have 200 years of living lavishly. Don't leave. You're making a big mistake." They thought 200 years was their survival time; 200 years to live off the money that they stole. 200 years!

Within ten years, it's been eradicated, exploded, blown up. It takes a certain talent to evaporate that many billions of dollars. You have to be quite talented. You have to be totally gifted in utter incompetence to lose that much money in ten years. I mean, that's a gift! I guess Father knew in his infinite wisdom at the end, that it would be pretty quick. And the laser beam falls and explodes that Beast. Boom!

True Children's Day in Korea

So now every time we go to Japan and Korea, it's a rescue mission, and the Holy Spirit only knows how many thousands will come back. Remember, in Japan, we have tens of thousands of members. We can see the Holy Spirit moving. In Korea, we did an event, and then we had Sunday service there. We had also the 개회식 kaehoesik of the palace, the sign revealing ceremony.

And we also had Children's Day. It was the first time that we did it in Korea. It was wonderful, it was so great. It really felt like when we were doing it in the fallen Cheongpyeong when Father was here. At that time, it was not fallen, and it really had the same spirit. You could feel God's presence there in the ceremony in the Children's Day, with the love; you could feel the love of the people towards True Father. And I was surprised. Children's Day was during the week, that was on a Monday after Sunday service, so I was thinking that probably just the local people would come; so that would probably be like fifty people or so.

Two hundred people came. Mrs. Cho, who is down there has a good business foundation. She made a little farm area, made a big building for two hundred people, and now, she's making a new building, which will house five hundred people. So, every time we go down there now, we won't have to rent buildings; we'll be able to go right to that building and hold all the services right there on our properties, which is awesome. God is moving in such a way that now the Korean Church is being blessed.

You did those events and you could feel the powerful spirit of God during the ceremonies of True Children's Day; you could feel Father's presence in that place. You could feel the LOVE in that place. The love. The love in that place. When we were singing and during anything we were doing, there was so much love in that place. So much love in that place!

The Japan Tour

We were so moved on the Korean tour, and then we headed to Japan on Tuesday morning; Tuesday night actually because we had to drive hours to get to the airport. But we got to Japan and we hit the ground. In Japan we had a 1,200-people service. I saw King Neil and his queen, Haruko-san there too. They were sitting right in the front. I said, "Who are those crazy hillbillies over there?" I saw you. They came from Tennessee. Oh my gosh, that made me so happy. I was so happy to see some Tennessee mud on their boots; they had a little mud on their suit pants and I said, "Dang! Some of my hillbillies coming all the way see us in Japan!" Oh Lord! I was so happy! They call us the Korean hillbillies. We shoot off our deck, we hunt; we are so hillbilly, man!

It was so wonderful. 1,200 people! This is actually a photo taken I guess in the middle of it, before the different buses were leaving because they had to get back.

<https://www.facebook.com/666174885/videos/pcb.10161219586304886/859212352369654> This one was already at the end of the service where half the buses had to take people home because they had plane flights, they had train rides, etc. This is the middle of the week, by the way; it's Thursday, so they got to get back that night.

This was the wonderful thing about Japan this time. Whenever groups were leaving, I would say, "Where are you going?" It was so much fun. (Laughing) Everybody had a great time. It was so much fun. It was really like being with Father. It was so wonderful. When we went to Japan before, we could only spend a short time with them in this big group setting, because the Cheon Jeong Gung Palace there is so small, we can only fit about forty people in. Basically, the leaders are in that room when we are in the Sunday service. So just spending time with all the brothers and sisters together is very hard, and when we do it, it's in a hotel in a big auditorium.

This time it was near the Tokyo City Hall. I don't know what happened, but inside the Japanese government, I guess there are people that say, "this group is okay." I don't know how we got that building, honestly speaking, for a thousand people to rally there WHILE the government is after and destroying the Family Fraud. That can't be done unless somebody on the inside is saying, "Those guys got the green light." Anyway, Father's moving from the inside. I don't know the details of that, but I think the spirit is moving.

The point is: before, when we were renting those buildings, we got a time limit; we got like three hours in them. And these people travel hours and hours. They got to take five-hour plane rides; it's all-day travel just to come to see us and be with True Father's Kingship. So, I always felt so TERRIBLE that we could only spend an hour or two depending on what the venue was. They are in wedding halls, or in this and that townhall places, so there are all these time limits; the next group's coming in, and you got to have done the cleanup and all this. You may have it for three hours, but then you got to do the cleanup, so you can really only do it for about two hours. And then some other thing, so you get it for about an hour and a half, something like that.

Then, it was a very short period of time that I had with all the brothers and sisters. They're Father's children and I can only spend like an hour with them maybe two hours

max. It was so painful. Every time I was there, I felt, 'Oh, man!' This time we got this auditorium. The service began at 11 am and it ended at 8: 30 p.m. and then they had to quickly clean up by 9. So, we had ALL DAY with the folks. It was SO WONDERFUL! We were laughing, we were crying, we were dancing, just being in the presence of Father's spirit. (Applause) It was so wonderful!

The LOVE in that room! You're talking about the LOVE of God! The LOVE in that room being reciprocated with Heaven in a give and receive action. You could see all these little arrows over everybody's head with the give and receive action. The LOVE in that place was UNBELIEVABLE! It was so amazing. It was so wonderful to be with all the brothers and sisters, all the kingships there. Oh my gosh!

It was the first time we could actually spend a good short service with them. In terms of Father's standard, it's short; just seven, eight hours that's short. We had to be in a twenty-three-and-a-half-hour service. Whoo! Oh Lord! People were passing out. I'm not joking, not joking; people literally were passing out. But that's the love of God, that's the love; He just pours out; just pours out to His children. But this time we could really spend time with them. It began at 11 am, and I ended at 8:30 pm. At 9 o'clock they had to be out of there, so they had no time to clean that place up. I hope we didn't get extra penalties and fines on that. But it was SO wonderful to be with our brothers and sisters in Japan.

What is Hell?

Of course, the harvest is great because in the Family Fraud, the Beast that people are riding and which is leading them to hell, what is happening? They're being led to hell. What is hell? Hell is utter separation from God. And you did it by your own choice. You may have been misled, but you followed the wrong people and you now are in a place where you are separated from God, and you don't have access to Him. But there's a problem because in the spirit world, if you want to breathe, what is the air in the spirit world? It's God's love.

So, if you cannot be near God, you cannot access God, it's like you have no air, and with no air, you get suffocated. But you cannot die. You are utterly suffocating, and you cannot die. You are in a burning hell. You are in a lake of fire. Not a literal one, because the spirit body is not material so there's not a material spirit body being burned by a material fiery lake. The Bible uses different metaphors to describe hell like "utter outer darkness", like "the place of weeping and gnashing of teeth", "a lake of fire", "the furnace where the wood will be burned" in Matthew 7 and "a place of scorpions". It references all these things but it shows what? That it is a place of SEPARATION from God.

In the parable of Lazarus with the rich man, when he's calling on father Abraham, we saw that they're negotiating with each other even though the rich man is in hell. He's NEGOTIATING. He's calling out, "Lazarus, help me." He's negotiating. We know that if you're in the fire of hell, you can't talk. You cannot talk. You're being burned. You're burned to crisp; you can't talk. But he's negotiating. So, we know it's a place of burning and of psychological and spiritual separation from God.

By the way, most modern Christian apologists also grew with that view. Inspiring philosophy did a whole video presentation on hell, which we could literally use for the purpose of explaining Father's view on the spirit world because it's literally, LITERALLY, the same conclusions.

So, even Christianity has come to that realization. It's not an actual lake of fire because actually a fire would not have any effect on a spirit body. You see what I mean? It wouldn't have an effect on a spirit body because a spirit body is not material. But it is a place of psychological and spiritual torment. Why? Because of separation from God, which you have chosen, so that's what it is.

Rescue Missions

That's why those people are going to hell. They're separated from the Father, so they have no air, and that's why these rescue missions. We care for them and want them to come back under Father's authority, where there will be not only the blood of life through them, but also God's true love. Air will be filling their hearts, their lungs and their bodies, along with the bread of life and the water of life. Whoo! Hallelujah. (Applause) Praise God.

But every time we go on these rescue missions, what do we do? It's amazing. It's like a heavenly hippie love fest for God. You know what I'm saying? There's no crazy hippie activity with mushrooms and all this crap, but we're getting HIGH on the Holy Ghost; we get a better high than any alcohol, outed drug, DMT or any hallucinogenic mushroom high. We get HIGH on the love of God. Hallelujah! You see how that works?

It is a gathering with so much love. There's so much love for the Father and you notice when there's so much love for Father, you think about True Mother in Heaven, how happy she is to be the wangbi 왕비, the wife of the Father. Why? Because she is the greatest disciple; she's the one that sacrificed everything to be with Father's heir and successorship. Why? Because she LOVES the Father.

She doesn't want us to pray to her. That's why I tell the sisters, "Don't be worshiping her as a goddess, that's the thing she hates the MOST. Don't be worshiping her as goddess. She wants you to always love and honor and worship the Father, and through that she is applauding you by the side and sending her praise to True Father." You see how that works? She is the NUMBER ONE fan of True Father. So don't do the blasphemy of trying to worship her as a goddess. This is a very dangerous thing. Don't do that. And by the way, it's the thing that she hated the most So you have to actually think of her heart too and she hated that the most. She wanted ALL the glory to go to Father

In that place was total and utter love and just unbelievable. Six-and-a-half-hour service, it was wonderful. The buses had to leave and they were shouting from the back

"We are so sorry, we have to go." I'd say:

- "Where are you going?"

We had this fun interaction and they could feel the love of Father. Ah, they could feel the spontaneity of Father.

Think about this in terms of all these people who are in these fallen churches like the Han Hakja church or the Kwak church. Look at what they do. Hakja Han comes in and she's just angry "Send more money. I spent my thirty minutes with you peasants, so HURRY up and send all your money." And the Kwak group is the same.

WE go in there. We don't pay any of those people; none of those people are paid by us to be there. EVERYBODY is there because they love Father. They're traveling over oceans and rivers and streams and mountains just to get to the place where Father's successor is. Do you see? And we are not there to give a thirty-minute speech and tell them, "Send me your money." We are there to be with the people and to love our Father, because these are people who love our Father too, and we are there just to share that glory and that honor and that love and that PRAISE to Him in Heaven. (Applause)

And when you see all those beautiful give-and-receive action arrows going all throughout the room, you just feel the fragrance being given and received, love given, love received, love given, love received. You feel the actual movement of the give-and-receive cycle that we learn about in the Principle; it comes to LIFE in the room of love when we're in that place with the Father. Oh my gosh! It was so wonderful.

And literally during the service the phone calls are coming in, emails are coming in, "I'm coming back to Sanctuary." I don't know how many people, only Father knows because there are others that will not contact us whose hearts have already turned. So only the Father knows. The service was pretty long, six hours, so even during that time, people are getting touched by the spirit, and they're realizing, "Wow! This is alive; Father is here." The Japanese church is getting phone calls, emails.

One of them was striking. An eighty-year-old grandma said she no longer can pray. Even when she looks at Han Hakja, she literally cannot pray to that photo. She was wondering, "Why can I not pray to this anymore? There's something which is preventing me from praying to this picture." Then she was watching the service and the Holy Ghost hit her like a ton of bricks. The thunder of God just struck her dead in herself, struck her dead and her spirit came alive. And she said, "I want you to send us a photo of the Three Kingship because I'm coming back." The daughter's coming home. (Applause)

These kinds of stories are coming in and they don't stop. The numbers on those videos on that service just keep going up. I mean who's going to watch a six-hour service? Well apparently, over 5,000 people and it just keeps going up. So, there are people that now can see. Obviously, they had the spell cast on them. The apparatus of the beast was telling them, "No, no, no, don't look there; look here, look here, look here." They had that, but that's been blown up, and now that it's blown up, people can start saying, "What is going on? What is happening? Why is Heaven's fortune not with Han Hakja? How come I can't pray to this photo anymore?"

Huge Chunks of the Death Star Coming Out

Do you see? All of Heaven's blessing is being removed. And now they see it with their own eyes, because the whole organization itself is becoming illegal. It's become a criminal organization, and it's now becoming eradicated by the ENTIRE government of Japan. Oh my gosh! How do you make that up, folks? Oh, how do you make that up? Huh? Come on. I mean even for the most hardened skeptic, that's pretty powerful evidence that Father is on the throne and that the prophecies that we uttered came true in such dramatic fashion within such a short period of time. I mean, how the heck can you explain that?

The Temple of Jerusalem, that Temple being exploded after forty years was quite dramatic. This is even MORE dramatic because you have the entire world blowing up at the same time, and then you have the laser-guided missile coming from Heaven, Father's finger - beep -boom! - and blowing up this entire Family Fraud Beast with seven-head and ten-horns. And at the same time what happened? An entire nation is mobilized to destroy it. What? Are you kidding? Come on! What? That is not POSSIBLE but by the power of God.

I didn't make that happen; none of us made that happen. Only the Spirit of God can do something so dramatic on such a massive public scale that it is impossible to explain. But it lines up with all the things we have said; all the prophecies we have laid out have now come to pass. So now it's just a matter of returning. Smoke and mirrors have been exploded. And now, of course, every time we go there, huge chunks of that death star are coming out. So even though people don't JOIN Sanctuary... We don't have a membership, by the way; you've got to remember that, folks. So, we don't care if people don't join an organization. We care about what? The HEART! The HEART! Is the heart turning? That's the key.

Chunks of that death star are being blown off, and whether they contact us or not, the Spirit is penetrating their hearts and exploding, thundering, and killing them in the Spirit, slaying them in the spirit to repentance. And when they come to repentance, they come to the reality of the catastrophic decision of their fall and that now it's time to come back; now it's time to come back.

We talked about this before but I'll show you some scriptures real fast because it is a Bible study as well; our Sunday services are also Bible studies.

Matthew 10

We got to jump to Matthew 10 really quick. I covered this with all the folks here in America and I also reiterated this to the Japanese folks.

1 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples,

Remember we did this? Twelve disciples. How many? Not ten, not nine. How many? Twelve. That means what? It included whom? Judas Iscariot. Remember this one? So, the twelve were there including Judas. Look at that: you can even see in verse 4 it says:

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him

That's verse 4. You see that? You see, Judas Iscariot's name right there? So, he was there; he was amongst the twelve. And jump down to verse 8. Jesus said:

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

So, Judas was empowered to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the DEAD and cast out devils This is greater than any normal believer. He had the powers of all the Apostles; he had such a spirit. He wasn't just normally saved as just believing in Christ; he was given superpower which was what? To heal the sick, cleanse the leper, raise the DEAD and cast out devils. In the last chapter of Mark, they extend this out to the disciples as well. But we know clearly that Judas is already saved; he's already saved and he's given all these superpowers like cleansing the lepers, healing the sick, raising the DEAD, etc.

Matthew 19 28

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

We know that in this whole chapter he is talking to whom? To the twelve disciples that were there, including whom? Judas. He also says Judas not only heals the sick, cleanses lepers, raises the dead, casts out devils, but he also has a throne in Heaven. Whoo! He's got a throne in Heaven, which is the judge's throne who judges the twelve tribes of Israel. So, Judas has massive heavenly authority that even angels don't have, right? Massive authority; massive, massive authority.

Matthew 26: 24

Jump to Matthew 26 and verse 24. Jesus is speaking; he says:

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but WOE unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

This is a man who was saved; Judas has been saved. He's been given power to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers; he's been empowered to raise the dead, he's been given a throne of judgment in Heaven, and Jesus said, "It would have been better for you not to have been born, because you betrayed me." Which means what? He's lost it all. It would have been better if he'd never been born. You see? He lost it all.

Matthew chapter 27: 3

And then at the same time, we see of course that Satan enters Judas.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

That's the death of Judas; we see the death of Judas right there.

Luke 22:3

3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

We see who entered Judas. Who entered into Judas? Was that God that entered him? Who entered Judas? It said: "Then entered? Satan". But I thought this was a man who could not lose his salvation. This is what this modern Christian doctrine says, "Once saved, always saved." This is what the Family Frauders believe: once you're blessed, you're always blessed. But look at what the Bible says very clearly: Judas was not only saved, he was given the power to heal the sick, cleanse lepers, raise the dead; he was given a judgment throne with freakin' power, and what happened? Satan entered him and of course it would have been better if he had not been born. That's what Jesus said to his face. Why? Because he had lost it; he had betrayed the Lord. See how that works? He went to Satan's service; Satan became his father.

Luke 22: 14 and 19-22

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

How many we know were there? Twelve. We know twelve were there, so we know Judas was there. Then jump down to verse 19.

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

He's also given the blood and the body of Christ in the spiritual realm through the Eucharist. Did you see that? Not only was he saved; not only was he given power to heal the sick, to cleanse lepers, to raise the dead, but he was given a throne in Heaven and a throne of judgment to judge the twelve tribes. And he was also given the Eucharist. But still Satan entered him and it would have been better that he had never been born. By his own actions he separated himself from God. Do you see how this happens?

Family Frauders did the same as Judas; they followed a big Judas but they became little Judas. They thought they were just being neutral or just being nice, but they followed the big Judas and they became little Judas. Then they became children of whom the big Judas serves, which is who? Satan. They became children of Satan and they took the poison wine. Even worse. They did a blood ritual with Satan. Oh my God! Now you're in big trouble because if you do a Luciferian blood ritual you are now Lucifer. You see how that works? Bad, bad, bad problem.

When they come back, they always say:

-“Oh but how come I lost my second-generation status?” We ask them:

“Child, what is more important to you if we think about it? Is status the most important or is a relationship with God in Christ the most important?” And, what do they say all the time?

“Relationship”. They know. They know, but what do they want? They want status. Why? Because they serve status and Mammon; they served Moloch.

Owls on Offering Tables

Oh, about these people that are coming back, we got another email saying, “I'm coming back. I cannot handle all these ceremonies with owls in them.” One person said that, who wrote they're now coming back; they said they can't handle it. They're now putting owl statues on the offering TABLE! Oh my God! I mean, how dense do you have to be? We've given you warnings for ten years and everything we said has come true. It's actually been WORSE than what we told you about Han Hakja because we didn't know about this owl crap. Let me be honest; I didn't know about the owl fetish or that she secretly worshiped Moloch. That hit me with a side kick too; that's an unseen blow. So, it was worse than we even knew.

But the one person that was coming back to Father's authority, he said, "I cannot handle these owls everywhere. It freaks me out." Basically, that's what he said. He knows in his spirit there's something wrong with putting all these owls and worshipping this classic occult Illuminati Satanist symbol which is associated with Moloch who hunts the children at night. That's why the occult like the owl because it can see at night. In the ancient world you cannot see at night; when it's pitch black, it's done. You can't see anything. But the owl has the power to see through the night.

So, in the symbology of the occult, they love this owl, and they see that as divine enlightenment. It's usually associated with enlightenment or gnosis; it's one of the big symbols of the Gnostics and the Illuminati - who are the illuminated ones, right? It's one of the big symbols in their symbology, and of course it's the symbol of Moloch who eventually asks for what? The nice little owl with this cute little beak, he tells you, "I eat babies," and then all the sudden they're burning babies at a freakin' altar so Mr. Owl can have a little snack. I wouldn't be surprised if the Family Fraud at their offering tables start sacrificing children. Freakin' lunatics, they're serving that same demon god.

Anyway, that is one of the reasons why some people are coming back. It's showing that even people on the inside now are starting to realize, "They're going nuts; that is crazy."

Love Fest about True Father

They've said I'm a 패륜자 paeryoonjah, an immoral son and that I have been the angry one. But then I come to Japan and I'm spending six hours with the brothers and sisters. We are singing, we are dancing, we are crying. We are just talking about Father and they can see I'm not angry at all; I'm not an angry person at all. Actually, I'm a funny person; I like joking around. They see I'm not angry; I'm not an angry person. They've been painting me as some kind of irate guy with guns and a crown of bullets that is shouting and yelling all the time, but then they see me sitting there, and we're spending six hours with brothers and sisters. We're not like "You peasants, etc." You know what I mean? There's none of that; we're just being with the people. Then they're like, "Wow! That's different from what we see all the time. I thought he was an angry, angry... You cannot say his name."

It's the same with social media. Nobody can say my name otherwise... Black Rambo said, "Bro, since I put your tag in there, my post went down." Black Rambo told me, "My post is not getting any traction because your name, the Rod of Iron Ministries gets in there, and it gets tagged immediately by the algorithm." It's micro and macro.

So, people see this; they see, he comes and they just have a love fest about True Father for six hours. And they're just like sitting there, like reminiscing and praising the Father, and the Spirit is coming down and there's give and receive action, there's LOVE and the people don't feel that anger. They say I've been angry. I've not been angry. I've just been trying to shout at them saying, "Get out of the dang burning building, you bums!" If that's being angry...uh... okay, I mean... if that's anger, shouting at you saying, "GET OUT of the DANG BUILDING! It's BURNING!" I'm not doing that because I'm angry; I'm trying to get your ashtray out of the burning building.

Coming Back is Having a Turn of Your Heart.

The point is: it was amazing. The two weeks were truly fruitful, and Lord only knows. See, I don't know. If you ask me, "How many came back?" I don't know, because coming back is not signing a membership card; coming back is having a turn of your heart. (Applause) The rescue could have been THOUSANDS of people. Next time you ask me that, I may say a hundred thousand. Just don't ask me that question because it's not about a membership card. It's about a TURN OF THE HEART, a hardened heart being penetrated by the Father. Bringing you to repentance, seeing that you are a sinner. You separated yourself from Father, "Oh, Father, I'm so sorry. I'm so sorry. I truly mean it. I'm truly sorry." And then coming back into that relationship. That's the start, right?

So, how many people were rescued and saved? We don't know. That's the start and then after that now they have to do what Father has appointed for them to do. They have to come back, receive the Blessing under Father's authority; they have to go through the forty-day separation, the three-day ceremony. They have to reestablish their Blessing under Father's authority, not Satan. Those are MINOR things! "See, child, what's more important, status or relationship with the Father?" This is what we have to deal with all the time.

So please pray for us, because we have to deal with this stuff all the time. But the most important thing is not the status, what status I have. It would have been GREAT if you kept your status but you had greater love. It would've been great but you didn't; you chose status over God. So, you got to repent about that. You repent about it, tell Father you're sorry. That turn of heart will draw you to his Kingship which is the only place that holds his tradition and holds his Blessing power.

As they come back, then they realize, "Oh, status is what got me to FALL, so maybe I should not hold on to my status as the main thing." That would be a natural thing, hopefully; we pray people would understand, but they don't. So, they want to come in and they want to confirm it with the King. DON'T confirm it with the King; you already know the answer. You know what I'm going to ask:

"What's more important? Status or relationship?" They go:

"Relationship." Okay, so there's your answer. But the hang-up about that, that desire for status, you've got to kill it. That's not what's important. What's important is to be with the Father. That's what's important.

So, we praise God. These rescue missions are very important. This time for two weeks, was great; it was a great success. Win-win on every level, so we're going to be back in Japan and Korea in the spring for another rescue mission; many more thousands will be saved. By the glory of God. Not by us, not by anybody, but by Father penetrating the hardened heart, TURNING the heart and bringing his sheep back to his fold. Amen!

(Applause)

Worldwide miracles

Please pray for us; pray for the brothers and sisters in Japan. Many miracles worldwide happened during everybody's prayers. Everybody was doing that two-week condition. Everybody on stateside was praying; everybody was doing condition here as well as in Japan and Korea. And miracles were happening all over the planet, including the Jan-6 tapes being released. That's great. That's huge.

Now they're going to have a much harder time persecuting the patriots and the patriots have so many grounds for what? Suing the Beast- which is great. Did you see the new one that came out where they pushed an old woman off the stairs; the Capitol Police pushed her down probably about eight to ten stairs. She was just standing there talking to them and BOOM! They pushed her off; she must have broken some bones going down those stairs. Old lady! So, who were the thugs there? You see what I'm saying? All these new videos are coming out about the abuse and the police BRUTALITY that was happening on the patriots.

Remember when the black community was saying "police brutality," and everybody on the patriot side laughed at it? Well NOW the patriots' side is getting it. Now they believe that story because the black community, they lived under totalitarian leftist REGIMES, folks. So, they DID get police brutality because under leftist regimes you get POLICE BRUTALITY. The police are now not serving people; they are serving Gavin Newsome and the political elite. It becomes the establishment army to quash the people.

When the black folks and all the rappers were complaining about that, it was REAL because they lived in these leftist areas. But all the patriots who live in the suburban areas, they didn't want to believe that; in their areas the cops are not acting like that because they're more Republican areas. So, there was a misunderstanding. They didn't show empathy, but NOW they're on the receiving end of it. NOW the white man in the suburban area is under it. Oh my gosh!

The majority of the "patriots" are in those suburban environments, mostly Caucasian areas, and what's happening? They're now being hit with more and more brutality because they've been designated as domestic TERRORISTS for supporting Donald Trump. Now they can understand police brutality, and of course on Jan 6 there was police brutality.

Oh my gosh, have you seen the new video of the Capitol Police throwing in CONCUSSION grenades into the crowd; not only tear gas, but they were also throwing concussion grenades into the crowd and they were laughing about it. They were laughing about it. You got the audios come up and they're laughing "Yeah, throw it in the middle; just throw it in there," laughing about it. They're tossing concussion grenades, detonating amidst the people who were just staying in front of the Capitol Police. Now they start detonating explosives, basically, concussion grenades, and they're shooting tear gas. A lot of our people got tear gas too. The people are getting teared, so the police are pushing them up into them; they were force manufacturing that clash.

Mike Johnson has been doing a PHENOMENAL job. Let's give it up for God's move through Matt Gaetz and Mike Johnson! (Applause) Oh my gosh! What a MIRACLE! He's not perfect but in one month that boy has put out the Jan-6 tapes; he's done all the promises that McCarthy was hiding and covering up, this stupid establishment rat. Johnson has pushed it out. I mean he's now going to protect so many patriots and he's going to give them so much legal ground to sue the shmita out of the Feds and the Capitol Police. They're going to have SO many lawsuits; they should just lawsuit them to oblivion. They were shown to be the totalitarian entrapment Nazi police, military police, and that's coming out. That's amazing! The fact that this came out, that's incredibly huge news.

Louisiana congressman Clay Higgins tweeted out that there are now going to be five to ten Democrats resigning in the next couple of weeks. Why? Because of Epstein Island. Oh! Pizza, pizza. Epstein Island. Oh, oh! So now the Epstein Island leaks are also happening from within the deep state. It's INCREDIBLY important! Why? Because it's showing that there's now a bureaucratic civil war exploding within this Beast.

JUST like the Family Fraud. Within the BEAST of the macro there is a bureaucratic civil war that is now popping off. What does that mean? It's now being divided between Abel and Cain types and the Abel-type saying, "Okay, screw this. If we let this go, we're all going to die. I'm going to risk my life, my future, my fortune to try to help President Trump get back in and get some control over this dang country that's about to go to hell." There are some of those Abel-type people that are doing that and that's why they're leaking the Epstein leaks and that's why these Democrat congressmen, we have to watch them closely since about five to ten of them will be resigning apparently. We'll keep a close eye on that. If that is happening, that is EVIDENCE that the bureaucratic civil war within the deep state has popped off. That is an EXCELLENT phenomenon.

That is exactly what we WANT and we need as a country and the world, because we have to have the division between Cain and Abel within the Beast. You have to have them, and then within the Beast you have to have the Abel-type side saying, "Hey, we're going to try to ally with Trump and the patriots to get control of this crap and WEED out these TRAITORS." That's also what's happening in the Family Fraud, right? You see that? (Applause) Hallelujah! Praise God! This was happening during the two-week period of rescue tour and mission when everybody's heart was there together with us. I know all of you came with me in the spirit realm.

Save the Christian-Values World

All that stuff happening at the macro too is mirroring the micro. So many amazing things are happening. We got to keep up the prayers and we got to keep up the readiness. Why? Because next year is going to be nuts; it's going to be insane. As Tucker Carlson is saying 2024 is going to be insane. This is it for the world. This is it. This is a big one. This is whether the world goes to totalitarianism or it goes to trying to grasp freedom again and the Cheon Il Guk culture.

In order to do that the Christian world has to become what? Strong again. Christians have to become Rod of Iron patriots; the Christian world HAS to start embracing the Rod of Iron Kingdom and the Cheon Il Guk Constitution. That's what this new generation of young people is able to connect with, because they grew up with the weakened church, the lukewarm church; the church that won't speak out against evil and protect its traditional values. They've seen that, so now they are searching for Islam. Andrew Tate is helping them go to Islam, but they also know that Islam has many bad issues to it and it's not of God.

They also have access to those people who are teaching about that but they know that in the end the Christian kingdom has to be strong and that the men have to reclaim that position of kingship, of priesthood and of protector. Otherwise, the whole Western world will die. And they all feel that it's an existential reality. We're being flooded at the border; the whole country is being imploded. So, they see it's an existential reality. Everybody feels it. Nobody can lie about it. Everybody knows it is here. All the money has been pumped up; it's on full throttle -boom! - to destroy the Western world and that means the Christian-values world. That's what it means: the Christian-values world.

We got to get off this stupid secularism crap and we got to come back to the strong Christian values. That's the only thing that will keep a strong moral culture code and also keep husband and wife STRONG together. But Christianity in itself can't do that because it's the New Testament. It's not ready for it; it didn't have the Completed Testament, Jesus creating his family and creating the kingdom. So, it has nothing to say other than "till death do you part." Marriage is not even the main aim, because in the end Jesus talked about the fact that when you go to Heaven you will be neither male, nor female. Therefore, the Christians say that's why marriage is not really the most important thing; they don't focus on it because it's not the most important.

But what happens then? Marriages fall apart and you get devoured by the world. But as long as you have your individual salvation, I guess that's okay. That's not true! That's not what Jesus wanted, because he said, "Had you not known that in the beginning God had made them male and female, and that the husband would cleave to his wife and leave his parents?" He talked about the institution of marriage from the beginning.

Loving the Father, Loving Christ

In the Cheon Seong Gyeong - it's beautiful, we read that in HDH - Father explained that when Jesus talked about the fact that there was no male no female, that is the heart of the people; when you go to the spirit world you will not be focused on just the love of your wife. Your whole focus will be about loving CHRIST ever more deeply. You see what I'm saying? The two will become like one, and in that sense, you're becoming a new entity; God has a plus and a minus but you're becoming one entity. So, you're no longer just male or just female; you are husband and wife worshipping God.

That's how Father clarified what Jesus meant in that quote. It didn't mean that marriage is something temporary because, "You're horny dogs and you got to have sex with something so I just give you marriage so you can bang a girl and then you go to heaven." NO! That's NOT what it was ABOUT! It was from the BEGINNING. From the beginning. From the beginning, God intended the marriage and when we go to Heaven, we're still married. But the focus of all that love is not just romancing one another, it's giving joy to Father. You see that? Amen! That is the power of God's Word and as we get into the Word, we get into the basics of what? Loving the Father, loving Christ.

These kinds of miracles are happening on the worldwide stage and that's why these rescue missions are very important. So please pray for Japan Church, Korea Church, for all the folks there; for hardened hearts to be open, hardened hearts to be penetrated by True Father, and for people to come to their senses once again and come back to his powerful Kingdom, his loving fatherly guidance and TRAINING because through that there will be resurrection, there will be... (video cut off)

Pastor Sean' Reporting Prayer

... today here with Your Three-Generation Kingship we offer these things. Amen and Aju! All right folks, let's all rise and give Father the glory! Hallelujah! (Applause)
