The Worldview that Transforms Society

And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?" Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."
Mark 6:28-31

Your parents, your husband or wife, and your children are like your guiding angels -- three sets of angels for your heaven. Those three elements will lead you into heaven. We learn from our parents, we learn from our husband or wife, we learn from our children. This is the real family tradition.

Loving your grandparents is important. From your grandparents you learn about tradition, about history, and about your background, so you can root yourself to the spirit world. And your great-, great-, great-, great-, great-grandparent is God. We have to unify the extremes of the extreme. When you dig down, the deepest place is the heart of God. And your newest offspring represents the future, your posterity. By loving children you are learning how to love the world. So all of these extremes need to be connected in one joyful, wholesome system.

What is marriage? Marriage is education in unity. The man learns about the world of women and the woman learns about the world of men. Marriage is like entering into a new school -- the school of the opposite sex. You will get a report card. If you can make your husband or wife absolutely happy you will get a grade of 100.

*When the wife is continually nagging, nagging, nagging, the good husband doesn't say, "Don't do that!" The good husband will say, "Darling, darling, I understand!" The good husband is the servant of love. A slave of love. From this we can explain God. God is the highest possible king, the most powerful king, but his essence is love. Therefore, God walks down the road of the servant. SMM, The Day of Victory of Heaven, October 4, 1985

Hello,

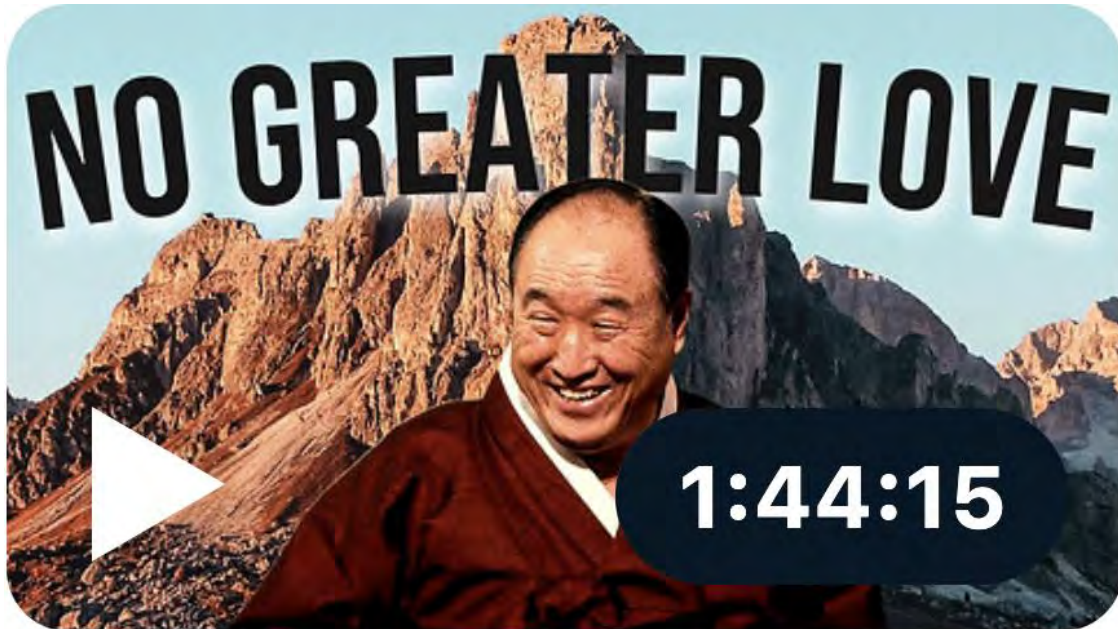

Hyung Jin Nim started the service by praising those who came out with their children to do outdoor bushcraft training even though it was raining. It helps youth to get used to a level of discomfort.

He spoke about investing in nature. In the 1920s there was a Christian-based movement to go back to God's creation, including camping, hunting and fishing. The viewpoint was not like a Buddhist or pacifist attitude which puts nature above human beings. God has given us stewardship and the ability to live to enjoy the outdoors. True Father was an avid outdoorsman. It teaches that you are not God and not in control of the weather, so you learn to be prepared. It's important to train the girls as well. Spoiling girls can make them self-centered and even wicked.

Hierarchies always exist in nature and in society. Learn how to work well in hierarchies with humility in many spheres. Learn from those who have more knowledge and authority.

Life in the modern day is too easy and can make you soft. Peace Police Peace Militia training teaches everyone that you are responsible to serve and protect your neighbor. The word has to become actualized through mind-body training. Then your community becomes stronger.

He discussed Steven Covey's book, 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, which talks about the importance of long-term investments, not just what is urgent, in things that are truly important to you and your family's future success and wellbeing.

There are important differences between the New Testament and the Completed Testament. The New Testament focuses on faith. That is definitely the beginning of your spiritual journey, but it's just the beginning.

Christians expected something important to happen on 9/23/2017, but they did not know what. Of course, we know that the Perfection level blessing took place on that date. There was worldwide media attention due to the presence of firearms carried by those who participated, showing their willingness to defend their families, communities and nation. Most of the media do hit pieces, but that just brings attention and spreads the message further.

In Islam, there are 99 names for God, but none of them is "love." In Christianity we are called to have love, but that doesn't mean weakness. In Hinduism, Buddhism, there is no creator that we must resemble.

Without a transcendent God, there is no moral imperative that you keep commitments or tell the truth. It is easier to just be loyal to your own clan or tribe. Christianity is a sophisticated worldview that transforms society. It calls you to overcome your base desires and emotions, and lean towards his light in the darkness.

Many seek the cults of money, pleasure, status, and power. But in God's world, your love relationships are more precious, especially with your father and mother. Sisters should not pressure your husband about money. Your greatest assets are your spouse and children. Seek to reduce sibling rivalry.

Kings think about assets, not just money. In the West there is more wealth, but also a lot of debt, divorce, etc. Train so that your outside and inside personas are aligned.

True Father forced him to do a Martial Arts demo during a Little Angels ballet performance for veterans. Hyung Jin Nim didn't want to do it, but Father insisted that he do so. The veterans loved it. He became more free and now speaks openly about his interest in gun and martial arts training.

He and Kook Jin Nim had faith in Father. When church leaders pressured them to just follow the Only Begotten Daughter, they said no.

He and Yeonah Nim invested a lot of time in their children. Children can see the contradictions in their parent's lives.

He has guided the 3rd King there is no way to avoid controversy. He learned from the scatological tradition of True Father who would openly curse Satan. He learned from Father not to be politically correct or to do "public relations." Don't try to appease leftwing culture. Islam is conservative in certain ways, but it is a very different civilization from Christianity.

If your kingdom is emotional, random, and changeable, you will scar your children. Don't be an emotional junkie, with an atmosphere of threats and violence. It's important to transcend the view of "me" to embrace "we." In the Orient, it's common for parents to beat their children, but that leads to rebellion and hatred of the Lord.

Just as we desire judges who are rational, objective and factual, children desire that, too. Learn from other parents. Pursue "Just Parenting."

Women have 27 times more eye movement, mostly focusing on facial features. They have to take care of helpless children and get along with other wives. If the husband has an angry face, his wife will get scared. That is why Bible teaches love and respect. When you can't give each other feedback, it's hard to grow. It's important to come across as a kind person, who has their best interests in mind.

The Cheon Il Guk constitution limits the size and power of government. That will lead to a great increase in charitable activity. In the 19th century, there were there were thousands of active private charities. Faith-based charities do not limit themselves to addressing physical needs, they try to help those receiving assistance by teaching about their divine purpose. Be a stepping stone, not a welfare stone.

Teach the Kingdom Culture. Love God, love your neighbor, even if they have different beliefs or backgrounds.

Here is my answer to FFWPU Continental Director Demian Dunkley's "Rebirth workshops" and the Only Begotten Daughter theology he advocates. According to him, Mother wants to set the record straight, that True Father needs to be liberated because he committed great sins. This is an accusation, but where is the due process? In most countries even a thief gets a trial and is allowed to defend himself.

In Japan, emails and phone calls came in to the Sanctuary headquarters during the service. One said "I'm coming back to True Father." One was from a grandmother, saying "I cannot pray in front of Hak Ja Han's photo. Please send me a photo of the 3 Generations Kingship. I am coming back to True Father's authority!"

Another said "I cannot deal with all these owls! There are even owls on the Family Fed offering tables!" They should realize that owls are symbols of Moloch and Illuminati because it can see at night.

The national government of Japan is now mobilized to end FFWPU in that nation. This is powerful evidence that True Father is on the throne, bringing judgment to the woman and her followers who rejected him.

Many are coming to repentance. Many Christians say that once saved, they are always saved. That is what many in the FFWPU also believe, that once blessed, they are always blessed, regardless if they disobey Christ. They portray Hyung Jin Nim as angry and disrespectful, but he is just about sharing love about True Father, praising the Father. He was shouting to warn them to get out of the burning building!

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
