

Subject Yourself to the Highest Authority

PEACE through a PERSON, NOT the STATE

*"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Matthew 6:9-13

The person who lives for the sake of the whole world is welcomed in any place and has unlimited freedom of movement around the world. However, if a person wants to live in a small, self-centered way, all the other elements of the universe will wish him ill. Those self-made millionaires who only live to acquire wealth are never loved and welcomed by the world, especially if they hurt others in their quest for money. Such people are considered violators of universal law. Their success is not looked upon as a virtue but as a manifestation of their sinfulness.

Money is not the only thing which falls under this principle. Knowledge, too, can be used properly or improperly, depending upon whether one uses it for the sake of others or just to advance his personal goals. Likewise with position and prestige. All these things must be guided by this principle of harmony, and then there is nothing wrong with them.

SMM, The Deep Desire Of Our Original Nature, February 14, 1982.

Hello,

Hyung Jin Nim started the service by discussing how an ideological agenda is being imposed on our nation. Please pray for President Trump. The media didn't like that fact that True Father identified Communism as political satanism. They were calling him "Hitler," just as they call Trump that now.

Hyung Jin Nim again critiqued the Pre-Tribulation doctrine, which was popularized in the Scofield bible commentary, published in 1909. Seminaries across the United States received funding along with donated Scofield bibles. The doctrine interpreted New Testament scriptures to mean that Christians will be "raptured" away from the earth before the tribulation and return of Christ.

But if you read Matthew 24:37-49 it says that the time of Christ's return will be like the time of Noah when evil people were swept away as in the flood judgment. Those who remained were Noah and his family who had been judged to be righteous. From this we can learn that the righteous ones who love Christ will remain on earth to work with the returning Lord and the wicked ones will be "swept away." The PreTribulation teaching makes Christians weak, thinking they have no responsibility during these tumultuous times.

3-24-2024 Sunday Service

As Jesus and True Father both taught, our purpose is to establish God's Kingdom on earth. The Lord's Prayer is the model for prayer, "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven."

In Romans 13 St. Paul teaches that God commands us to submit ourselves to the State, who ultimately serve at the pleasure of the Creator. Specifically, St. Paul wrote:

Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Romans 13:1-4

Hyung Jin Nim pointed out that in America, the highest authority is the Constitution, which honors our God-given rights. Government officials are supposed to be subject to the Constitution, not the reverse. If we submit ourselves to bureaucrats who are in rebellion to the Constitution, then we will be in rebellion against God.

Peace will come through a person, not the state. In Christ you will have peace. Christianity has been infiltrated. In Christ we have liberty and become kings and priests. If communists destroy America, then the whole world will perish in the darkness of tyranny. Christians must fall in love with the Father, who is strong.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
